Our Mission

We are a Catholic community of followers of Christ who desire to be ever more deeply rooted in the presence and power of God. We are guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit, the Word of God and the tradition of the Church. We welcome all to join us as we reach out in justice and love to build God's kingdom.

Pope Francis (@Pontifex)

The Church is a family of brothers and sisters with one Father, who gave us Jesus as our brother, to help us understand how much He loves fraternity. In fact, he wants all humanity to become one universal family. #FrattelliTutti

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lord, that we may see

People of goodwill generally assume they're not complicit in racism or racist practices. That's because we describe racism as attitudes, words, and acts intended to harm or subordinate people whose origins are different from ours. However, racism involves omissions as well as actions: in what we fail to do or say to make equality tangible for everyone. Racism can also be institutionalized in laws, education, hiring practices, economic opportunities, zoning regulations, and voting restrictions. Racism operates best under the surface. As Pope Francis reminds us: Let none of us imagine that the conversion of hearts isn't meant for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 27:4-7; 1 Corinthians 15:54-58; Luke 6:39-45 (84). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Monday, February 28, 2022

Build it up

Ever wonder what the kingdom of God will be like? Well, look around, because you're already living in it. Not seeing all the love, peace, and justice you were promised? The kingdom of God began with Christ's death and Resurrection and will be brought into perfection by Christ at the end of time. Until then, it's our job as Christians to build the Kingdom up. Pray, discern what God is calling you to do, and act to make this world more harmonious and respectful of the dignity of others. And then of course, wait with hope.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:3-9; Mark 10:17-27 (347). "For men it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Tuesday, March 01, 2022

Your Rx for Lent

While many Christians focus on feasting today—ahead of tomorrow's fasting—it's also a good time to survey a smorgasbord of penitential spiritual practices, perfect for the upcoming Lenten season. Saint John Chrysostom identifies five in one of his homilies: "I have shown you five paths of repentance: acknowledgement of your own sins, forgiveness of our neighbor's sins against us, prayer, almsgiving, and humility." Sounding more like a doctor than one of the doctors of the church, he concludes: "Now that we have learned how to heal our wounds, let us apply the cures." How will you fill your prescription?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:10-16; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "Do not act in compliance with the desires of your former ignorance."

Wednesday, March 02, 2022

ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Add another step to your Lenten journey

Ash Wednesday is full of rituals and traditions of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. But it includes an extra step. As Pope Francis puts it, it is a time "to find concrete ways to overcome our indifference." So in addition to your regular Lenten practices, try to care more deeply about the suffering and disaffected in your community. Volunteer at

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20—6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (219). "And your Father who sees in secret will repay you."

Thursday, March 03, 2022

THURSDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Exceed expectations

Katharine Drexel was a wealthy heiress in late 19th-century Philadelphia. She rocked that world one day: "Miss Drexel Enters a Catholic Convent—Gives Up Seven Million," the Philadelphia Public Ledger announced when she decided not to simply become a nun but to found her own religious order. Head of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, she used her family fortune to found the nation's only Catholic university for African Americans (Xavier University in New Orleans), schools for Native Americans, and more. Are you, too, being called by God to do something unexpected?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 9:22-25 (220). "What profit is there for one to gain the whole world yet lose or forfeit himself?"

Friday, March 04, 2022

FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

A cleansing fast

A couple years ago, two young white women decided that they needed to more closely align their spiritual practices of Lent with their commitment to being anti-racist. They chose, as they wrote in Sojourners magazine, to try fasting from media that lacked a diversity of voices and to spend Lent engaged with books, films, and podcasts written or directed by women of color. Their goal was to take a step toward repentance, which is one of the hallmarks of Lent. To repent is to turn away from sin, including the sin of racism. What Lenten practice of prayer, fasting, or almsgiving might you contribute toward being more intercultural and helping end racism?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Matthew 9:14-15 (221). "This, rather, is the fasting that I wish."

Saturday, March 05, 2022

SATURDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

Tax forgiveness

Tax collectors in Jesus' time were particularly despised. The Roman occupiers auctioned off the right to collect taxes to the highest bidders, who then aggressively collected taxes from their neighbors in order to turn a profit on their "investment." When Jesus calls Levi the tax collector to follow him and attends a celebration with Levi's tax-collecting cohorts, the shock among the Jewish leaders is evident. But Levi became Matthew, the evangelist, and wrote a vivid account of the Good News. Jesus sees beyond the worst in us and brings out the best. Follow his lead.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:9b-14; Luke 5:27-32 (222). "Jesus saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow me.'"

Arimathean Ministry

We are in desperate need of people to assist with the funeral ministry. We have funerals on any day of the week except for Sundays.

Duties would include setting up for Mass (sacristan duties + funeral symbols and readings) and assisting families with tables and easels for pictures. Training will be provided. Our hope is to have teams of 2 people to accomplish this set up for each funeral.

For more information contact Jayne Rose - jrose@olom.org or 301-365-1415 ex. 102.

Interfaith Works - 2 Taft Court, Rockville, MD Women's Center -- Week of March 6 - 13, 2022

THE HISTORY AND THEOLOGY OF THE COUNCILS

Instructor: Dr. Gregory LaNave, PhD, Professor of Systematic Theology at the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, DC.

The college of bishops, when it is united with the Pope as its head, exercises supreme authority in the Church. Gatherings of the college of bishops have therefore been regarded as particularly solemn and significant moments in the Church's history, and important parts of God's providential care for his Church.

This course will begin with a theological and canonical definition of a council, and then take an historical look at the twenty-one ecumenical councils, from Nicea I to Vatican II, examining the circumstances that gave rise to them and the impact they had on the Church.

Our Lady of Mercy Book Club is meeting virtually at 6:30 pm on the Second Monday of the month.

PSALM 92

1 A psalm. A sabbath song.

I

2 It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,

3 To proclaim your love at daybreak,
your faithfulness in the night,

4 With the ten-stringed harp,
with melody upon the lyre.

5 For you make me jubilant, LORD, by your deeds;
at the works of your hands I shout for joy.

II

6 How great are your works, LORD!
How profound your designs!

7 A senseless person cannot know this;
a fool cannot comprehend.

8 Though the wicked flourish like grass
and all sinners thrive,
They are destined for eternal destruction;

9 but you, LORD, are forever on high.

10 Indeed your enemies, LORD,
indeed your enemies shall perish;
all sinners shall be scattered.

III

11 You have given me the strength of a wild ox;
you have poured rich oil upon me.

12 My eyes look with glee on my wicked enemies;
my ears shall hear what happens to my wicked foes.

13 The just shall flourish like the palm tree,
shall grow like a cedar of Lebanon.

14 Planted in the house of the LORD,
they shall flourish in the courts of our God.

15 They shall bear fruit even in old age,
they will stay fresh and green,

16 To proclaim: "The LORD is just;
my rock, in whom there is no wrong."
