Worship Aid and Bulletin

May 8, 2022 The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said.

Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles.

For so the Lord has commanded us,
*I have made you a light to the Gentiles,
that you may be an instrument of salvation
to the ends of the earth.*"

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord.
All who were destined for eternal life came to believe,
and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region.
The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers

and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas,
and expelled them from their territory.
So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them,
and went to Iconium.
The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude,
which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

Then one of the elders said to me,
"These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress;
they have washed their robes
and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple.

The one who sits on the throne will shelter them.
They will not hunger or thirst anymore,
nor will the sun or any heat strike them.

For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne
will shepherd them
and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus said:
"My sheep hear my voice;
I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.
No one can take them out of my hand.
My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all,
and no one can take them out of the Father's hand.
The Father and I are one."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters, May is such a beautiful month for many reasons. As Catholics, we give honor to Mary, Mother of the Lord during May, as May is “her” month. May has already proven to be a blessing for our community with the celebrations of infant baptisms, weddings, and First Eucharists. Sunday, May 15, we welcome Cardinal Wilton Gregory who will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation for our teens.

Today is also a blessing! Mother’s Day!!! All mothers will be given a special blessing at the end of our Masses. Today, after both morning Masses, there will be a wonderful Mother’s Day Brunch to honor all of our mothers at Jesus the Good Shepherd. We wish to publicly thank the Knights of Columbus of our community for hosting this event.

In today’s Gospel on this Mother’s Day, Jesus says: “My sheep hear my voice: I know them and they follow me.” The recognition of voice, we now know, begins even BEFORE birth. Babies recognize the voices of their parents for weeks before they are born.

This is especially true of their mother’s voices, for the unborn babies are [obviously] with their mothers all the time. On this Mother’s Day, we can see how mothers are a reflection of the Good Shepherd: their children know their voice and follow them. So too are we all made to know and follow the voice of the Good Shepherd, from the moment we are conceived until the moment we are called home to God.

Let us pray. Lord God, we are your people, the sheep of your flock. Hear our prayers and shepherd us from sin and death to joy and newness of life. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

I wish all the Mothers of Jesus the Good Shepherd a beautiful MOTHER’S DAY! God bless you!

Father Mike

URGENT -- STAFF POSITIONS AVAILABLE: Jesus the Good Shepherd seeks an individual to serve as the Coordinator of our Children's Faith Formation Program and another individual to serve as the Administrative Assistant for the same.

We are blessed with Children's Faith Formation to form our young people in our community in the Catholic Faith. However, this program cannot continue to run on its own. People are needed to run this ministry to our young people. We are advertising again these positions both within and outside our community. The first position was never filled for this current school year; the second position was wonderfully done on a temporary basis by Mrs. Trish Contrino of our community. She is returning to work in the public sector. We thank her for her devotion during this school year.

Failure to fill both these positions puts our Children's Faith Formation at Jesus the Good Shepherd in critical jeopardy for the fall. Again, Children's Faith Formation Ministry does not run by itself: it needs a coordinator and an assistant; this is why we are advertising them now. If you are interested or if you know someone who might be interested, kindly contact Mrs. Laura Cleary at the church office at secretary@ccjgs.org or Father Mike at pastor@ccjgs.org. A job description of both these positions will be sent upon request. Thank you for your prayers and concern in this matter.

Are you new?

NEW MEMBERS ONLINE REGISTRATION! Online registration is available on the JGS website by clicking here: ccjgs.org. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offertory and involvement.

The Virtue of Spirituality

ON-GOING HEALTH PROTOCOLS AT MASS: The wearing of masks at Mass is optional. Our community currently follows the protocols of both Calvert County and the Archdiocese of Washington. Neither require mask-wearing at this time. Holding hands is not required by the Church during the Lord's Prayer at Mass and is solely the decision of the individual. The sign of peace is a regular part of the Mass but there are different ways of extending the peace of Christ to those around you.

BAPTISMS AT JGS!

Congratulations to Mitchell and Emilia Mudd on the baptism of their daughter Olivia Noell last Sunday

RELUCTANT SHEEP

Sheep get an awfully bad rap, linguistically. Some are quick to label people as "sheep" if we think they haven't sufficiently questioned authority or if they're too willing to go along with someone else's plan. We say someone has "the wool over their eyes" if they aren't willing to see what we think is very obvious. "A wolf in sheep's clothing" is what we call someone looking to take advantage of those too gullible to identify a real threat.

Taking all this into account and considering how often we are referred to as sheep in Scripture, you've really got to wonder if God trying to tell us something about ourselves.

If you look at the phraseology associated with sheep, it's no wonder that nobody wants to be one. Sheep are innocent. Sheep can't protect themselves. They're vulnerable and easily misled.

We want to see ourselves as the opposite of all that. We like to think we're shrewd, with plenty of common sense. We want to believe that we don't have to rely on anybody for anything. We would sooner identify with the wolf than with the sheep — at least the wolf can take care of himself.

We do this because we often resist the need to rest in the greatness of God. Like a child walking to school alone for the first time (forgetting his mom is following watchfully in the car), we want to think we can handle it all by ourselves.

The truth is that God is trying to tell us something by comparing us to sheep: You don't have to do this on your own.

Every time I look at an obstacle and think that there is no way around it, I am forgetting that I have a shepherd who knows the location of the gate.

2022 ANNUAL APPEAL UPDATE | We are pleased to announce that our parish is 76% of our parish goal as of April 29, 2022, thanks to 168 parish families making a gift to this year's Annual Appeal. Thank you for your generosity in supporting the many important charitable ministries of our archdiocese! If you haven't made your 2022 gift, we encourage you to do so today by visiting appeal.adw.org or taking a brochure in the back of the church. Every donation makes a difference in uplifting our local Church to serve our brothers and sisters in need. Thank you for your support!

SACRIFICIAL GIVING for the weekend of May 1, 2022:

OFFICE HOURS

Monday—Thursday 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
