Worship Aid and Bulletin

May 15, 2022 The Fifth Sunday of Easter

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished.

And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

R: Thanks be to God

Responsorial:

PSALM 145: I WILL PRAISE YOUR NAME/
THE HAND OF THE LORD FEEDS US

Scott Soper

Refrain

I will praise your name for ev-er, my king and my God, my king and my God.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.
I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem,
coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
“Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes,
and there shall be no more death or mourning,
wailing or pain,
for the old order has passed away.”

The One who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

“When Judas had left them, Jesus said,
“Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
If God is glorified in him,
God will also glorify him in himself,
and God will glorify him at once.
My children, I will be with you only a little while longer.
I give you a new commandment: love one another.

As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
This is how all will know that you are my disciples,
if you have love for one another.”

The Gospel of the Lord
R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Refrain
All the ends of the earth, all you crea-tures of the sea, lift up your eyes to the won - ders of the Lord. For the Lord of the earth, the mas-ter of the sea, has come with jus-tice for the world.

Verses:

1. Break into song at the deeds of the Lord, the wonders God has done in ev'ry age.
2. Heaven and earth shall rejoice in his might; ev'ry heart ev'ry nation call him Lord.

3. The Lord has made salvation known, faithful to the promises of old.
Let the ends of the earth,
let the sea and all it holds make music before our King!

Please be patient as you leave and avoid crowding the aisles by using all church exits. Thank you for worshipping with us today, and we are praying for you and your family!

Dear Parish Community,

Continued Easter Season Blessings upon you and your loved ones!

The Lord continues to bless each of us and our community. Baptisms and First Eucharists abound, mixed with several weddings as we progress during the Easter Season. A personal blessing for me this weekend is May 14 marks the 45th anniversary of my priestly ordination. I have MUCH to thank God for, to be sure. This weekend, we are delighted that many of our teens will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation from the Archbishop of Washington, Cardinal Wilton Gregory. Given the many demands placed on his time, we are so fortunate to have His Eminence come to Jesus the Good Shepherd for Confirmation this year. His presence adds to our overall sense of joy and gratitude to God this Easter Season for the many blessings He gives us!

How do WE respond when we realize that God wants us to do something new in our lives? It is a challenge to open ourselves to such a transformation, whether it is a change in job status, geographical location, or a close relationship.

Today's Mass readings remind us that even when our eyes are filled with tears and our hearts are mourning, God will always dwell with us! Today, let us pray for the grace to recognize where God wants to work something new within us, and for the strength to allow him to do so.

Let us pray. Good and gracious God, bless our newly Confirmed and bless Cardinal Gregory, our chief shepherd of this local Church of Washington, who will confirm them. In your love and presence, death and mourning are nowhere to be found. Fill us with Easter joy, and hear the prayers that we offer this day. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord is Risen! He is Risen, indeed. May the peace of the Risen Christ be with you!

Father Mike

The Virtue of Hospitality

VBS AT JGS - GREAT BIG BEAUTIFUL WORLD:

Jesus the Good Shepherd will be hosting Vacation Bible School June 27th-July 1st, 9 am - 12 pm this summer! Join us as we explore, care for, and celebrate God's wonderful creation! Participants are welcome from PreK4 through 5th grade. Volunteers are needed from 6th grade up to adults. Please contact Trish Contrino at religioused@ccjgs.org if you are interested in volunteering.

To sign up, please use the following link or cut and paste to your browser. <https://forms.ministryforms.net/viewForm.aspx?formId=5b28b2d1-7ff4-46e7-b2a4-fc018cc742a2>

THE MYSTERIES OF THE ROSARY

Have you ever wanted to explore the life of Jesus and Mary in a deeper way? Each decade highlights a sacred episode:

Joyful Mysteries: Through the Annunciation (1) and Visitation (2), we get a glimpse at Mary's joyful yes to God. She gives birth to Jesus in the Nativity (3). Mary and Joseph present their son at the temple (4) and bring him there again when he is a teenager (5).

Luminous Mysteries: Jesus is baptized in the Jordan River (1) before Mary gives him a nudge to his first miracle at Cana (2). Jesus proclaims the Gospel (3), is transfigured on Mount Tabor (4), and institutes the Eucharist (5). The light is shining!

Sorrowful Mysteries: Jesus prays in agony in Gethsemane (1), knowing his hour of suffering has come. After his betrayal and arrest, Jesus is scourged (2) and crowned with thorns (3). He carries his cross (4), and Mary stands at the foot of the cross as he is crucified (5).

Glorious Mysteries: Christ is risen in glory (1)! After appearing to those he loves, he ascends into heaven (2). Jesus' followers receive the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (3). Mary, unaffected by original sin, is assumed body and soul into heaven (4), where she is crowned queen, humble mother of Christ the King (5).

URGENT -- STAFF POSITIONS AVAILABLE: Jesus the Good Shepherd seeks an individual to serve as the Coordinator of our Children's Faith Formation Program and another individual to serve as the Administrative Assistant for the same.

We are blessed with Children's Faith Formation to form our young people in our community in the Catholic Faith. However, this program cannot continue to run on its own.

People are needed to run this ministry to our young people. We are advertising again these positions both within and outside our community. The first position was never filled for this current school year; the second position was wonderfully done on a temporary basis by Mrs. Trish Contrino of our community. She is returning to work in the public sector. We thank her for her devotion during this school year.

Failure to fill both these positions puts our Children's Faith Formation at Jesus the Good Shepherd in critical jeopardy for the fall. Again, Children's Faith Formation Ministry does not run by itself: it needs a coordinator and an assistant; this is why we are advertising them now. If you are interested or if you know someone who might be interested, kindly contact Mrs. Laura Cleary at the church office at secretary@ccjgs.org or Father Mike at pastor@ccjgs.org. A job description of both these positions will be sent upon request. Thank you for your prayers and concern in this matter.

LOVING AS NEW CREATIONS -"There's something different about you."

Think about the times in your life when this has been said to you. Maybe it was after someone complimented you on a job well done, and you realized that you were walking through life with a little more confidence. Maybe it was after meeting someone special, as you carried the glow of that relationship wherever you went. Chances are, if someone has noticed something different about you, it's because, inwardly, you've been changed by the loving or respectful actions of another person.

Love, you see, can make us into new creations. From the love of God flows the grace to tackle any challenge, including the biggest challenge of all: loving each other well. Christ knows what a big request this is. He was human, too. He came and lived among us. He knew intimately what it was to love people in the chaos of their own flaws. He knew what he was asking of us when he said, "As I have loved you, so you should also love one another."

In essence, this is the call to stewardship: loving as Christ loves, amidst the messiness of everyday reality. Loving with accountability, challenging ourselves and our brothers and sisters to be faithful even when it is hard. Loving with an unflinching sense of hospitality that welcomes even those we do not agree with or understand. Loving with gratitude, giving thanks for the great variety of ways that Christ can make himself known to us through others.

It isn't easy — we all know that. But if we ask God for the grace to remain steadfast in this greatest commandment, we will be given what we need to live as new creations. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

ON-GOING HEALTH PROTOCOLS AT MASS: The wearing of masks at Mass is optional. Our community currently follows the protocols of both Calvert County and the Archdiocese of Washington. Neither require mask-wearing at this time. Holding hands is not required by the Church during the Lord's Prayer at Mass and is solely the decision of the individual. The sign of peace is a regular part of the Mass but there are different ways of extending the peace of Christ to those around you.

The health and safety of our community is very important to us! We truly love our neighbor! If you or a member of your household is ill with any contagious illness, is quarantining, or is awaiting Covid test results, please participate in the Mass from the comfort of your home via our livestream.

Contact Laura Cleary at 410-257-3810 (secretary@ccjgs.org) for Mass Cards/ Intentions; Sponsor Certificates (for Sacraments) or to place bulletin announcements. Deadline for bulletin items is Thursday at noon, 10 days before the weekend you want your article to appear. Thank you!

Monday—Thursday 9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
