May 22, 2022 The Sixth Sunday of Easter

Covenant Prayer: Father, you have called us to be a People of the Covenant. You sent your only begotten Son to be our Savior so that we might praise You, proclaim your Word, encounter You in the sacraments, welcome each other, share our faith, bring our sacrifices and be strengthened for your service. We pray that we might be a source of compassion toward the poor, justice for the oppressed, peace for the troubled, healing for the wounded, and wisdom for the searching. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that we might live the mystery of your love and fulfill the covenant we celebrate in the Eucharist. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some who had come down from Judea were instructing the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the Mosaic practice, you cannot be saved." Because there arose no little dissension and debate by Paul and Barnabas with them, it was decided that Paul, Barnabas, and some of the others should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.

The apostles and elders, in agreement with the whole church, decided to choose representatives and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. The ones chosen were Judas, who was called Barsabbas, and Silas, leaders among the brothers.

This is the letter delivered by them:

"The apostles and the elders, your brothers, to the brothers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia of Gentile origin: greetings. Since we have heard that some of our number who went out without any mandate from us have upset you with their teachings 2 and disturbed your peace of mind,

we have with one accord decided to choose representatives and to send them to you along with our beloved Barnabas
and Paul,
who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

So we are sending Judas and Silas
who will also convey this same message by word of mouth:
'It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us

not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities,
namely, to abstain from meat sacrificed to idols,
from blood, from meats of strangled animals,
and from unlawful marriage.
If you keep free of these,
you will be doing what is right. Farewell.'"

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

The angel took me in spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem
coming down out of heaven from God.
It gleamed with the splendor of God.
Its radiance was like that of a precious stone,
like jasper, clear as crystal.
It had a massive, high wall,
with twelve gates where twelve angels were stationed
and on which names were inscribed,
the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites.
There were three gates facing east,
three north, three

south, and three west.
The wall of the city had twelve courses of stones as its foundation,
on which were inscribed the twelve names
of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

I saw no temple in the city
for its temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb.
The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it,
for the glory of God gave it light,
and its lamp was the Lamb.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples:
"Whoever loves me will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.
Whoever does not love me does not keep my words;
yet the word you hear is not mine
but that of the Father who sent me.

"I have told you this while I am with you.
The Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
whom the Father will send in my name,
will teach you everything

and remind you of all that I told you.
Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
Not as the world gives do I give it to you.
Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.
You heard me tell you,
'I am going away and I will come back to you.'
If you loved me,
you would rejoice that I am going to the Father;
for the Father is greater than I.
And now I have told you this before it happens,
so that when it happens you may believe."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born
of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit

was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Dear Community Members,

Last Sunday, we were blessed with the presence of Cardinal Gregory, our archbishop, for the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation. Although he has visited Jesus the Good Shepherd several times before, it was the cardinal's first time being here as the minister for Confirmation. He was a "delight" to have on many levels. He was personable, engaging and socialized outside of church afterwards. In particular, I wish to extend my sincerest congratulations to the young people of our community whom the cardinal confirmed. To the newly confirmed and the parents: Stay active in your Catholic faith – participate in Sunday Mass and be of service to others in the name of Christ.

At this point in the Easter Season, we hear numerous times of Jesus speaking to us about LOVE. Today's Gospel is no exception! "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." Think about it: what powerful words!

Jesus adds that we ought not to let our hearts be troubled, just as we not be troubled about what will happen after our own death [John 14:1-4]. Even death will not keep Christ from returning to us, so while he is away, we need not fear. And, of course, we ought not fear because Christ is never really away from us.

Let us pray. Lord Jesus, you are with us and have promised to return to us. Grant that we may rejoice as we eagerly anticipate your return, and hear the prayers that we offer today, who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen!

JGS A.C.T. Youth Mission Trip

DONATIONS NEEDED FOR MISSION TRIP: The JGS ACT Youth Group is going on a mission trip this summer to Lafayette, TN. Your support is needed. Here is how you can help:

- Prayer: please pray for them as they embark on this mission
- Donate: Walmart gift cards
- Donate: white youth t-shirts, sizes: small, medium, large and XL, especially medium and large.

The mission trip will take place July 9-16. Any interested teen wishing to go should contact Deacon Paul Fagan immediately for more information, but time is running out. deaconpaul@ccjgs.org

URGENT -- STAFF POSITIONS AVAILABLE: Jesus the Good Shepherd seeks an individual to serve as the Coordinator of our Children's Faith Formation Program and another individual to serve as the Administrative Assistant for the same.

We are blessed with Children's Faith Formation to form our young people in our community in the Catholic Faith. However, this program cannot continue to run on its own. People are needed to run this ministry to our young people. We are advertising again these positions both within and outside our community. The first position was never filled for this current school year; the second position was wonderfully done on a temporary basis by Mrs. Trish Contrino of our community. She is returning to work in the public sector. We thank her for her devotion during this school year.

Failure to fill both these positions puts our Children's Faith Formation at Jesus the Good Shepherd in critical jeopardy for the fall. Again, Children's Faith Formation Ministry does not run by itself: it needs a coordinator and an assistant; this is why we are advertising them now. If you are interested or if you know someone who might be interested, kindly contact Mrs. Laura Cleary at the church office at secretary@ccjgs.org or Father Mike at pastor@ccjgs.org. A job description of both these positions will be sent upon request. Thank you for your prayers and concern in this matter.

BIG NEWS: We have several men from JGS participating in the Fr. Emil Kapaun pilgrimage in Kansas from June 2-5. Please pray for them as they embark on this journey.

What is the Father Kapaun Pilgrimage? Each year at the beginning of summer hundreds of pilgrims walk 60 miles in the plains of the heartland of Kansas to the hometown of Servant of God Emil Kapaun. They do it not only to remember the heroic Catholic priest and Army chaplain who is on the path to sainthood but to discover the true meaning of their own unique paths to sainthood.

St. Rita of Cascia | May 22

St. Rita of Cascia (1381 – 1457) had the opportunity to live her life as a wife, mother, widow, and eventually, member of a religious community. Born in central Italy, St. Rita felt the calling to become a nun, but was pressured at a young age into marriage. During her 18-year marriage to a cruel man, she raised two sons. When her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons died, St. Rita decided to go back to her first love and attempted to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Her status as a widow caused some complications to her entering, but she eventually succeeded in professing vows.

Throughout her lifetime, St. Rita of Cascia was known for her prayerfulness and charity. She also experienced stigmata on her forehead, meditated frequently on Christ's passion, and cared for the nuns of her religious community and those in the lay community who came to her for counsel. © LPI

NEW TO PARISH? – Welcome to our Catholic Community! We encourage you to register with us as soon as possible. To register go to ccjgs.org/im-new. The best way to connect with us is through Flocknote. From your phone: Text: 84576 Keyword: ccjgs From your computer: <https://app.flocknote.com/ccjgs>. To be eligible for admission to our Children's Faith Formation Program, reception of the Sacraments or to receive testimonial letters for sponsorship, an individual must be a registered, participating member of the parish, attend the sacraments, and support the parish via offering and involvement.

RCIA – We welcome adults interested in becoming Catholic into our RCIA program. Please contact the church office at 410-257-3810 x1000, 1001 or 1003.

BAPTISM PREPARATION - Parents seeking baptism are encouraged to call the church office at 410-257-3810 or email receptionist@ccjgs.org. We invite all new (and expecting!) parents to a baptism retreat to be held 3 times per year.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - We rejoice with members who are preparing for the Sacrament of Marriage. Please contact our office at least six months in advance; otherwise, dates cannot be guaranteed. Please do not set a date before making Church arrangements first. Dates for weddings will not be arranged before a preliminary meeting.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND HOLY COMMUNION: Please contact the church office if you or a family member is homebound, in the hospital, or in a nursing home and would like to receive these sacraments. We will do our best as restrictions allow during the pandemic.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION/PENANCE: Saturdays 3:00-4:00 p.m. or by appointment.

Mission Statement: “We, the Roman Catholic Parish of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Community, have chosen to serve the Lord by evangelizing through the virtues of Hospitality, Spirituality and Stewardship.” 10
