Question: Why do Catholics Bless themselves?

All Catholics are familiar with making the sign of the cross. It is something we do often in Mass and in our own personal prayer life. Making the sign of the cross often precedes other prayers, such as grace before meals or night time prayers. Making the sign of the cross is not just an action that proceeds a prayer. It is in fact a prayer of its own. It is a powerful prayer of protection. It is not a good luck charm but rather, when we make the sign of the cross we are saying that we belong to Christ and we unite our suffering with his. When making the sign of the cross it reinforces two essential Catholic Christian doctrines, our salvation was secure through the Cross and the Trinitarian nature of God.

Do you have a question about your Catholic faith that you have always wanted to ask? This is your chance.

We'd love to hear from you!
