

33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

“But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.”

- Mk 13:30-32

Since 1988, the Collection for Retired Sisters has provided needed financial support for religious communities who have served the Archdiocese of Boston as educators and health care and social service providers. On November 21 & 22, parishes across the Archdiocese will hold the annual special collection We thank you in advance for your generosity. If you are unable to give to the collection at Mass, but would still like to make a contribution, please send a check made payable to the Archdiocese of Boston to Sr. Germana Santos, FSP, Delegate for Religious, 66 Brooks Drive, Braintree, MA, 02184.

Be sure to visit our website (sagsfx.org) to learn more about the Giving Tree Program at St. Albert the Great and St. Francis Xavier. This annual program begins the weekend of November 27th at both churches. We look forward to spreading joy throughout our community as you've enabled us to do for many years!

For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome.
Mt 25:35

Thank you for your generosity through our Donation Boxes and contributions via the Center these past months. With the upcoming Christmas season we can assist families and individuals who reach out to us.

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today’s Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It’s hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord’s coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God’s eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

The St. Albert the Great sponsored Boy Scout Troop 92 will be holding a food drive on the weekend of November 13th and 14th.

"Scouting for Food" helps support the Weymouth Food Pantry by collecting food and non-perishable items for those in need in our community. The scouts will be handing out collection bags following all Masses the weekend of Nov. 13th and Nov. 14th.

Please support this most worthy of causes by returning your donations at church entrance before Mass on either Saturday, Nov 20th or Sunday, Nov 21st. As always, we thank you for your continued support of both our Boy Scout Troop 92, and more importantly, those of our neighbors most in need of our help.

The members of the St. Francis Xavier Council of Knights of Columbus would like to thank the parishioners and friends of St. Albert the Great and St. Francis Xavier churches for their tremendous outpouring of support during our recent “Baby Shower” for the Friends of the Unborn. We collected $2695.00 as well over two dozen gifts. I’m sure that the Lord will bless our Collaborative families for their help. Look for us again next year. Fraternally, Tom Goode, Grand Knight

Mass on Thanksgiving, will be offered at 8:00am at St. Francis Xavier Church.
