Year of Vocations

"If any one would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all." Could you be called to serve others through the priesthood or religious life? . Call Fr. Jason Hage, 315-470-1468 or email vocations@syrdio.org.

WELCOME NEXT WEEKEND ...

Deacon George Phillips to St. James. Dc. Phillips is our mission speaker this year and he will be sharing with us about the Congregation of the Little Sisters of Mary Immaculate. The Little Sisters of Mary Immaculate was founded to promote education for girls in Uganda. African women were denied the opportunity of going to school. In time, it was extended to both mixed and boy schools. Eventually, they responded to the spiritual and social needs of their communities. A second collection will be taken to help support the Little Sisters of Mary Immaculate. If you would like to donate by check, please make it out to St. James. Please take a moment next weekend to welcome Dc. Phillips to St. James.

Thank you to those who have pledged...

so far to help us reach our assessed goal of $44,125.00. Pledge/donation envelopes can be found in the pews again this weekend.

If you did not have an opportunity to take an envelope last weekend, we ask you to prayerfully consider taking one this weekend and making a pledge to help us reach our assessed goal. You may also make your pledge/donation by credit card or e-check, just call the Parish Office, 315-655-3441. 100% of any overage received after we reach our goal, will be returned to St. James.

From the Diocese regarding mask wearing.

"In response to the Delta variant of the coronavirus and the CDC Guidelines that recommend a return to mask wearing indoors in our seven counties, Bishop Lucia is highly recommending mask wearing during Masses and during any indoor church related event. All Eucharistic Ministers are asked to wear a mask during the distribution of the Eucharist and to use hand sanitizer prior to the distribution."

October Silent Directed Retreat October 10-15. Retreatants can meet with a spiritual director daily and they will guide you in prayer and activities that will help achieve a time of intense prayer and connection to God and self.

Registration begins at 5pm on Sunday, October 10 with dinner at 6pm. Retreat ends on Friday, October 15 at 11am. Offering is $525. Call Christ the King Retreat House at 315-446-2680 to register or for more information.

Inspiration for the week

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.
