Faith Formation

Religious Education classes began this past week for students in Grades 1-12. Everyone was adjusting to the new start time (7:30am) and new pick up procedures for our elementary students. It was a challenge, but we made it through our first week and look forward to upcoming classes. Thank you to all our catechists, parents and especially our students.

REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS

The sick: members of our parish and community.

The deceased: Doris Eagan, long-time parishioner; members of our parish and community.

Parishioners: in nursing homes and who are homebound.

Women and Men: Both at home and abroad serving in our military.

Congratulations on your baptism

Year of Vocations

"Every high priest is selected from among the people and is appointed to represent the people in matters related to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices." There is always a burning desire to become closer to God. Discerning the priesthood, diaconate, or religious life is one way to become closer to God. Call Fr. Jason Hage, 315-470-1468 or email vocations@syrdio.org.

NOT TOO LATE ... in this year of vocations, we are more aware of the universal call to holiness received at Baptism. Some are called to serve the church as lay ministers or deacons. Today, October 24 from 1:00-3:0pm at Holy Trinity in Fulton, an information session on the Formation for Ministry program will be held for those who are interested in learning more on how to serve in the different ministries of the Church, including the diaconate program. Those interested in the diaconate program should attend with their wives if married.

If you are planning on attending Mass, please make sure to wear your mask. If you forget to bring one, extras are available in the back of the church. Thank you.

Inspiration for the week

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" We will instinctively know that it is only our Divine Master who can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. This is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become God patiently waits to console us, guide us, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our heart.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Peter of Alcantara was born in Alcantara, Spain in 1499. His father was the Governor of the province and his mother came from a noble family. He was privately tutored and attended the University of Salamanca. After he returned home from university, he was accepted as a Franciscan Friar of the Stricter Observance in 1515. He was ordained as a priest in 1524 and in 1525 he became Guardian of the friary of St. Mary of the Angels.

Throughout his life, St. Peter of Alcantara took up his spiritual cross and preached with great success to the poor, but also spend much of his time in solitude. From 1553 to early 1555, he spent this time alone in meditation and prayer. Soon following, St. Peter made a pilgrimage to Rome, barefoot the entire way. While in Rome he obtained permission from Pope Julius III to establish friaries.

St. Peter was known for frequently experiencing ecstasy, a state where he was entirely consumed with the warmth and light of the Holy Spirit. These euphoric moments were common during his prayer and meditation.

When he was near death, St. Peter took to his knees and prayed. When he was offered water, he refused it, saying, "Even my Lord Jesus Christ thirsted on the Cross." He died while in prayer on October 18, 1562. On April 18, 1622, he was declared blessed by Pope Gregory XV and later canonized by Pope Clement IX on April 28, 1669.
