REFLECTION

My friends, as we begin this Lent, we recall the story of Jesus, who spent 40 days in the wilderness being tempted. Let us remember that our forgiveness comes at a cost, that a price is paid for our sin, a price in pain and suffering, and that, as long as we yield to sin, as long as we yield to temptation, not only do we hurt ourselves and others, but we hurt God. What can we do for Jesus during Lent? Try to repent of your sinful ways. Maybe, until now, you have not struggled quite hard enough with sin and temptation, especially in the simple things like the temptation to gossip, the desire to get just a little bit of revenge, the desire to kid ourselves about our lifestyle and tell ourselves that it is really OK. Acknowledging our weakness in the face of temptation gives us a foundation upon which we can build a new life. Most of the things we do arise out of the habits we have, habits that are comfortable and whose correction requires some effort. We hang onto our sinful ways, because no matter what we might say, we are comfortable with them. The good news is that God does not forget us. God loves us, God forgives us, and God calls us to holiness. God calls us to be like Jesus, to struggle with temptation, and to hold firmly onto his word. This Lent, God calls you to examine your life, to look at all that you do, how you treat you family members and other people, and ask yourself if you are taking the easy way, or if there is something you can do to be a more loving and caring person.

REFLEKSJA

Nawiązując do dzisiejszej Ewangelii o kuszeniu Jezusa na pustyni, można je skomentować za św. Augustynem: „Zasadniczo pokusa była jedna – albo miłość siebie, aż do zapomnienia o woli Bożej, którą przyszedł pełnić, albo miłość Boga, aż do zapomnienia o sobie.

Starajmy się żyć modlitwą, postem, jałmużną za w postawie miłości do Boga i każdego człowieka.

Modlitwa to nie tylko obowiązek każdego chrześcijanina, ale przede wszystkim okazja do nieustannego przebywania w obecności Boga. Może zbyt mało mieliśmy czasu dla Niego i trzeba nam to uporządkować. Wystarczy zadbać o regularne odmawianie codziennego pacierza (modlitwy), uczestnictwo we Mszy Świętej, co miesięczna spowiedz z okazji Pierwszych Piątków miesiąca, udział w drodze krzyżowej, gorzkich żali, dobrze przeżyte rekolekcje.

Jałmużna to bezinteresowny dar udzielony drugiemu człowiekowi. Musimy pamiętać, że Bóg widzi, jak dzielimy się darami, które nam udziela. Tutaj istotne są konkrety: Pomoc ubogim, dzieła charytatywne, pomoc ewangelizacyjna w krzewieniu wiary.

Post to wyrzeczenie się czegoś dla Boga, by bardziej Mu się podobać, a jednocześnie hartować ducha, rezygnując z przyjemności. To nie tylko mniej spożywanego pokarmu i używek, ale może i wielu z nas przydałoby się ograniczenie telewizji, komputera, Internetu, telefonu komórkowego, by bardziej być dla drugiego niż dla siebie.

Obyśmy nie przestawali próbować i podejmować różnorodnych wysiłków, mając głęboko w pamięci, że wielkie rzeczy wymagają wyrzeczeń i uczciwej pracy.
