It is often said that the mother is the heart of the home. Which is not an expression I would dispute. But on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus we honor what should be the heart of hearts in every home. And why the heart? Jesus surely had a brain with which he thought. And muscles which mobilized him as he grew, traveled, and felt the suffering of the Cross. He had feet which carried him and hands which served him as he performed miracles. So why the heart? Well, without the heart to pump vitality to the body the other parts are useless. Rather than the brain, the heart has long been considered the center of our being – literally and emotionally. As much as we think and pine, we do not send St. Valentine's greetings adorned with pink, glittery brains. We do not extend brain-felt congratulations or condolences to our friends. In our moments of grief we do not express our loss as having left us broken-brained. The heart is at the heart of our being and the corporal being of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Sacred Heart of Jesus – a heart wounded and surrounded with a crown of thorns, with flames showing his suffering love for humanity – has been honored since the twelfth century. Devotion to the Sacred Heart was popularized by the visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in France in the late 1600s. Our Lord asked for a Feast in reparation for the offenses against his love, saying, "Behold the Heart that has so loved men ... instead of gratitude I receive from the greater part (of mankind) only ingratitude ...." For those who practice devotion to his Sacred Heart, Our Lord made twelve promises:

- 1) I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
- 2) I will establish peace in their families.
- 3) I will console them in all their troubles.
- 4) They shall find in My Heart an assured refuge during life and especially at the hour of their death.
- 5) I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
- 6) Sinners shall find in My Heart the source of an infinite ocean of mercy.
- 7) Tepid souls shall become fervent.
- 8) Fervent souls shall speedily rise to great perfection.
- 9) I will bless the homes where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.
- 10) I will give to priests the power of touching the most hardened hearts.
- 11) Those who propagate this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, never to be effaced.
- 12) The all-powerful love of My Heart will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under my displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments; My heart shall be their assured refuge at that last hour.

REFLECTION

In the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity we come face to face with the innermost mystery of God as a family of persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, where there is complete harmony, love and total peace. The Trinity is an invitation to discover and deepen our relationship between God and ourselves. The Gospel tells us about God's inner life, and if we are made in the image and likeness of God, then we must strive to become like Him. To be aware of our true dignity as children of God demands a great deal of change on our part. It requires a basic readiness to let go of everything which binds us to this world and pulls us away from God. The material things of this world can trap us and lead us away from what is truly important. It is important on this Trinity Sunday to think about our relationship with God. We are all different and unique individuals, never duplicated. God does not use a mold. He gave us life, gifts, talents and opportunities to use and to enjoy. We are created in the image of God. Our whole Christian life is a life of the Trinity. We are baptized into the Trinity. We begin and end each Eucharistic celebration in the name of the Trinity. We will never understand the Trinity because it is a mystery. St. Patrick used the three leaves on a clover to explain this, three little leaves forming one plant, all equal, but all distinct. God is the deepest mystery of our lives.

Feast of Corpus Christi

On June 23rd, following the 9 a.m. Mass, a Eucharistic procession will take place along the four altars set up outside around the church grounds. Please join us.

REFLEKSJA

Podczas chrztu Jezusa w Jordanie objawia się cała Trójca Święta: Syn Boży stoi na brzegu, Bóg Ojciec daje Mu świadectwo głosem a Duch Święty jawi się nad Jezusem w postaci gołębic. Przed Wniebowstąpieniem Jezus polecił swoim uczniom: „Idźcie więc i nauczajcie wszystkie narody, udzielając im chrztu w imię Ojca i Syna i Ducha Świętego”. Trójosobowy Bóg Ojciec, Syn i Duch Święty nie jest daleko od nas. Przez łaskę chrztu Boskie Osoby uczyniły sobie niebo w ludzkiej duszy, aby w niej mieszkać zawsze, o ile człowiek na to pozwoli.

PODZIEKOWANIE

W tym roku mojego Srebnego Jubileuszu Kapłaństwa modłę się i dziękuję Bogu za wszystkie łaski i Jego błogosławieństwo. Dziękuję Bogu za wszystkich ludzi, których postawił na mojej drodze w czasie tych 25 lat, z którymi podążałem za Panem tworząc jedną chrześcijańską rodzinę. Chciałbym wymienić wszystkich z imienia, ale jest ich tysiące. Do wszystkich osobiście kieruję serdeczne podziękowania za dar wzajemnego spotkania, wspólne modlitwy i wszelkie wyrazy przyjazni i serdeczności. Bogu niech będą dzięki za dar braterskiego spotkania na Jubileuszowej Eucharystii. Było wielkim zaszczytem dla mnie celebrować mój Jubileusz Kapłański wraz z moimi parafianami w obecności Pasterza diecezji Worcesterz, ks. Biskupa Roberta McManus, oraz wielu byłych parafian z parafii w których pracowałem. Dziękuję wszystkim za obecność, serdeczne życzenia i prezenty. Jestem wdzięczny wszystkim, których Pan postawił na mojej drodze za dar waszego serca i modlitwy. Niech Pan Bóg Wam błogosławi. Ks. Krzysztof

Festival News

Plans for the St. Andrew Bobola Parish Festival continue to move forward. We have identified chair people for most activities, but still have a spot or two to fill. If you are interested in chairing a booth, please reach out to Paula or Gene Niksa at niksa.charter.net or phone: 508-248-4237. Please remember this event is vital to the well being of our parish and our parish family. We will be looking for all parishioners to support this effort in various capacities. Raffle tickets will be mailed to all parishioners early in June. Dates for Polish food preparation are the weekend of July 14th and July 21st—many helping hands will be needed. Additional volunteers will be needed for the actual Festival weekend. I am sure we can all find an hour or two to dedicate to our parish. You may even find some new faces & discover that giving back to the parish community is quite rewarding. Please join us as we draw nearer to our Parish Festival on August 23-24. Your help is greatly appreciated!
