Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." - Mk 6:4

A Message From Our Pastor Father Carlos

In today's gospel, we hear of Jesus' amazement at the lack of faith of those who should have known him best, his kinsmen, and those with whom he grew up. Those who spent much of their lives close to Jesus should have been the ones most aware of who He was, but as they say, familiarity breeds contempt. As Jesus enters into their midst and begins to teach powerfully, they don't stop to contemplate the power of His teaching, instead, they use the personal data they know about Jesus and His family to build up barriers against taking Jesus seriously. Jesus continually comes to us. In the scriptures and in His presence in our lives He speaks to us in new and powerful ways. I don't mean to say that He teaches us new things that He hasn't taught before or that he contradicts what He has taught before. I mean that Jesus moves us to listen afresh and to respond in new ways. The way that Jesus has touched the hearts of disciples and shaped the life of the Church throughout the centuries is an embodiment of the new ways he proposes for His people.

Our stewardship model of being a collaborative is one of the ways that Jesus is inviting us to step out in faith and allow Him to act in our midst. You know the culture and traditions that these parishes have had in the past, and it may be uncomfortable and even painful to allow Jesus to lead us down a new path, but the future of our parishes and the success of our efforts at evangelization depend on our ability not to get stuck where Jesus' kinsfolk got stuck. They thought they knew who Jesus was, how he spoke, and how he acted. When He spoke in new and powerful ways, they weren't able to receive the message and follow Him. We also can fall into a similar temptation. We may have lived our Catholic faith for decades or we may be relatively new to the Church but it's all too easy to slip into the mode of thinking that we know all that Jesus can do in our lives based upon all that He's already done.

We need to remember though that Jesus is almighty, eternal, infinite God and we are not. Jesus doesn't want to keep us in a comfort zone simply going through comfortable motions. Tradition is important but we always have to be open to the fact that God can take us on a new path. Following Jesus as His disciples means that we need to be willing to continually be stretched and guided to trust in Him and to allow Him to work in new and powerful ways in our midst. We must accept Jesus at His word and receive Him as our Messiah and Lord. Let us never give Jesus a reason to be amazed at us or at our lack of faith. Rather by opening ourselves to the Lord, let us receive everything He wants to do in us and through us. –Fr. Carlos

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.

Gospel Meditation & Reflections

GOSPEL MEDITATION 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

Independence Day Prayer

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

We all know these words by heart. They are from the United States Declaration of Independence. However, are these words held with the same reverence around the world as they are held here at home? Sadly, no. There are many places in the world where it is a life-threatening endeavor to practice one's faith, that faith that was given to each human by that Creator who endowed us with inalienable rights.

Let us take a moment to remember all those people in the world who are not free to seek life, liberty or happiness.

Let us pray...

O God,

you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.

You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you.

Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross.

Amen.

FUN FACTS

About our Patron Saint – St. James The Greater
Originally St. James was depicted as an old man and Apostle. Up until the 12th Century he was only recognized having general apostle attributes: “The Bible”. The sword was the next addition to firstly remind us that he was beheaded and later as a symbol of patron Saint of warriors, knights and fighting men. This sword is often is often to be seen as a St. James cross, which is a red cross shaped sword where the short arms end with a dagger form in lilies with St. James in the middle. Since the middle ages, he is also depicted as a pilgrim father with a large walking stick, bottle of water and St. James ship. One legend tells us how a knight with his runaway horse fell into the sea and asked St. James for help. The knight remained afloat and when got ashore, he discovered that he was covered with shells. St. James’ shells are to be found on the Spanish North western coast at Galicie.

Uma mensagem do nosso pastor Padre Carlos

No evangelho de hoje, ouvimos sobre a admiração de Jesus com a falta de fé daqueles que deveriam tê-lo conhecido melhor, seus parentes e aqueles com quem ele cresceu. Aqueles que passaram grande parte de suas vidas perto de Jesus deveriam ser os mais conscientes de quem Ele era, mas como dizem, a familiaridade gera desprezo. Quando Jesus entra no meio deles e começa a ensinar poderosamente, eles não param para contemplar o poder de Seu ensino, em vez disso, usam os dados pessoais que conhecem sobre Jesus e Sua família para construir barreiras contra levar a Jesus a sério. Jesus vem continuamente a nosso encontro. Nas escrituras e em Sua presença em nossa vida, Ele nos fala de maneiras novas e poderosas. Não quero dizer que Ele nos ensina coisas novas que não ensinou antes ou que contradiz o que ensinou antes. Quero dizer que Jesus nos motiva a ouvir novamente e a responder de novas maneiras. A maneira como Jesus tocou o coração dos discípulos e moldou a vida da Igreja ao longo dos séculos é uma personificação dos novos caminhos que ele propõe para o Seu povo Nosso modelo de mordomia de ser uma colaborativa é uma das maneiras pelas quais Jesus está nos convidando a dar um passo de fé e permitir que Ele atue em nosso meio. Vocês conhecem a cultura e as tradições que essas paróquias tiveram no passado, e pode ser incômodo e até doloroso permitir que Jesus nos conduza por um novo caminho, mas o futuro de nossas paróquias e o sucesso de nossos esforços de evangelização dependem de nossa capacidade de não ficar presos onde os parentes de Jesus ficaram presos. Eles pensavam que sabiam quem era Jesus, como falava e como agia. Quando Ele falou de maneiras novas e poderosas, eles não eram capazes de receber a mensagem e segui-Lo. Também podemos cair em uma tentação semelhante. Podemos ter vivido nossa fé católica por décadas ou podemos ser relativamente novos na Igreja, mas é muito fácil cair no modo de pensar que sabemos tudo o que Jesus pode fazer em nossas vidas com base em tudo o que Ele já fez.

Precisamos lembrar, entretanto, que Jesus é o Deus todo-poderoso, eterno e infinito, e nós não. Jesus não quer nos manter em uma zona de conforto simplesmente fazendo as coisas confortáveis que fizemos no passado. Tradição é importante, mas sempre temos que estar abertos que Deus pode levarmos num novo caminho. Seguir Jesus como Seus discípulos significa que precisamos estar dispostos a ser continuamente estimulados e guiados para confiar Nele e permitir que Ele trabalhe de maneiras novas e poderosas em nosso meio. Devemos aceitar Jesus em Sua palavra e recebê-Lo como nosso Messias e Senhor. Nunca vamos dar a Jesus um motivo para ficar admirado conosco ou com nossa falta de fé. Em vez disso, abrindo-nos ao Senhor, vamos receber tudo o que Ele deseja fazer em nós e por meio de nós. —Pe. Carlos

Sobre o nosso Santo Padroeiro - São Tiago O Maior

Originalmente, São Tiago foi descrito como um velho e apóstolo. Até ao século<sup>XII</sup> só foi reconhecido tendo atributos apóstolos gerais: "A Bíblia". A espada foi a próxima adição para nos lembrar primeiro que foi decapitado e mais tarde como um símbolo do santo padroeiro dos guerreiros, cavaleiros e combatentes. Esta espada é muitas vezes vista como uma cruz de São Tiago, que é uma espada em forma de cruz vermelha onde os braços curtos terminam com uma forma de punhal em lírios com São Tiago no meio. Desde a idade média, ele também é representado como um pai peregrino com uma grande bengala, garrafa de água e navio de São Tiago.

Uma lenda diz-nos como um cavaleiro com o seu cavalo fugitivo caiu no mar e pediu ajuda a São Tiago.

O cavaleiro permaneceu à tona e quando chegou a terra, descobriu que estava coberto de conchas.

As conchas de São Tiago devem ser encontradas na costa noroeste espanhola da Galileia.
