SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." - Jn 6:12

A Message From Our Pastor Father Carlos

A church's name like a person's name carries great meaning and power. Even in occasions where parishes are brought together and a new name is given to the parish the name of the Church always remains the same. It is important to know and celebrate the significance of the names of our parishes. This Sunday the Church celebrates the Feast of St. James. More accurately, the Feast occurs July 25, and this year in most places, it is replaced by the Sunday celebration. At the Church of St. James within our collaborative, we have the privilege of celebrating this feast instead of the usual Sunday celebration since it is our patronal feast. Whether we are members of St. James, Immaculate Conception, or more accurately members of the collaborative of our Stoughton Catholic Parishes, the life and example of St. James offer us much to reflect on.

James, the son of Zebedee, was one of the original apostles of Jesus, together with his brother John. The gospels tell us that James and John were fishermen working alongside their father. When Jesus called them, they gave this all up to follow Him. He was among the circle of disciples that were closest to Jesus. He was present with Peter and John at the Transfiguration, and again at the Agony in the Garden, where the same three are seen sleeping while Christ prays. Saint James is traditionally considered the first to have been martyred. He died around the year 44AD and he is the only apostle whose martyrdom is recorded in the New Testament (Acts 12:2).

Saint James is often depicted in pilgrim's garb, including the beautiful statue in our Church. He wears a broad-brimmed hat and cloak. He carries a satchel, a water jug, and a shell.

As a disciple and as a patron of pilgrims, Saint James embodies for us what the life of discipleship looks like both in the price, it may require of us and in the fruitfulness that we can give when we are attentive and faithful to following Jesus wherever he leads us. Saint James' life illustrates that following Jesus is not an anonymous experience. He doesn't call us because we're perfect and will always respond well. Rather, knowing us more intimately than we know ourselves Jesus finds us wherever we are and through repeated invitations He gives us the opportunity to cultivate our gifts and to put them at His disposal to serve others.

The life of a Christian is a life of discipleship and pilgrimage. For our life to make sense we must live it following Jesus' will for us, and this means that we never root too deeply in a particular moment but rather that we're always ready to follow a new turn in our journey. While our human inclination is to prepare for any eventuality, the life of a pilgrim is one that requires a light load and a constant dependence on God's providence. Fidelity to Jesus and His truth eventually cost Saint James his life, but His fidelity ensured His entrance into glory and the fruitfulness of His life is seen in the countless souls he has touched through his legacy. As members of this collaborative may we continually seek Saint James intercession to follow Jesus, to share His gospel, and to journey until we reach our heavenly homeland. --Fr. Carlos

Stewardship

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What do you think is the value of your stewardship? Do you believe that through your actions both great and small that God can touch people, heal them, and change their lives? Too often we can mistakenly assume that what we do, say, or offer can have little effect in the grand scheme of life. We are simply poor sinners in need of salvation so what could we do anyway?

Jesus speaks very powerfully to what can be done by those who believe in him and follow him. He says in John's Gospel, "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father." Greater ones than these? Think about all the miracles of Jesus recorded in sacred Scripture. You and I can do works greater than those?

St. Teresa of Avila said, "Christ has no body now on earth but yours." We are Christ to a world that needs him. It is the Christ in you that responds to the Christ in me. If it were only you alone going about doing good works and deeds, then your stewardship would amount to little. But if you bear the name Christian, and you approach your discipleship seriously, you can truly do greater things. If you understand your stewardship as a way that Jesus works in our world, then this way of life, cultivating and sharing your gifts at every turn, becomes more valuable than all the gold in the world.

History of St. James the Greater

James is the brother of John the Evangelist and the two were called by Jesus as they worked with their father in a fishing boat on the Sea of Galilee. From that point on, Jesus was the focus of James' life and it is also evident that James held a special place in Jesus' life as well. During pivotal moments throughout Jesus' ministry (witnessing the Transfiguration, the raising to life of the daughter of Jairus and the agony in Gethsemane) James along with his brother John and fellow apostle Peter were close by His side. To be singled out in this way, James must have been a close and respected friend of Jesus. Jesus even gave the brothers a nickname, calling them the "Sons of Thunder." Acts 12:1 tells us that James was the first apostle martyred in Jerusalem some 11 years after the Resurrection. King Herod Agrippa beheaded him in an attempt to halt the spread of Christianity. There is a story that the man who arrested James became a convert after hearing James speak at his trial and was executed with the Apostle.

Legends have sprung up that James evangelized Spain before he died but it's unclear he ever visited the area. Notwithstanding, St. James is beloved in Spain and one story might have contributed to this devotion. It is said after his death St. James' relics were taken by ship to Spain. As it approached the coast of Portugal, a man was riding his horse on the beach. The horse disobediently plunged into the sea, with its rider, making for the boat. They sank, of course, but then rose again, covered with scallop shells, and hence the cockleshell became the symbol of St. James. The relics were entombed and forgotten during years of Roman persecution, invasions, and Muslim attacks. That is until an early 9th century hermit, Pelagius, discovered the tomb. Later, a cathedral was built to mark the location.

The faithful began to make pilgrimages to the site -- so much so that Compostela in northern Spain became the third greatest place of pilgrimage, just after Jerusalem and Rome. After making one of the many routes, known as "the Camino," (the way) pilgrims attach cockleshells found along the trail to their hats or clothes as "pilgrim badges," signs that they'd venerated the holy relics. The scallop shell also acts as a metaphor. The grooves in the shell, which meet at a single point, represent the various routes pilgrims traveled, eventually arriving at a single destination: the tomb of James in Santiago de Compostela.

At the time of the "Moorish" invasions, a particular battle took place that was to seal St. James ever more closely to Spain, where he is known as "San Tiago." In 841 A.D. the Christians had lost a battle and were in retreat when the king had a dream in which St. James assured him of victory. He relayed his vision to his men. The next morning, when called to battle, the men saw before them St. James on a horse adorned with cockleshells, waving a banner. He led the Christians on to a clear victory, and ever since, the Spanish battle-cry has been "Santiago!"

Because of the love the Spanish have for St. James, they adopted him as their patron, and his feast is a national holiday, a time of great celebration, much like the feast of St. Patrick is for the Irish, and that of St. Joseph is for the Italians. St. James is the patron saint of equestrians, blacksmiths, and soldiers. He is usually depicted in art with his symbols -- the cockleshell, pilgrim hat, sword, Sacred Scripture -- or on horseback.

The celebration of the Eucharist is the highest form of worship in the Catholic Church and it is our long standing tradition to pray for the dead at Mass. Anyone can ask for a Mass to be offered for a special intention; the most common being for the repose of the soul of someone who died. We reserve one intention per Mass and you can schedule a Mass by contacting the respective parish office.

Uma mensagem do nosso pastor Padre Carlos

O nome de uma igreja como o nome de uma pessoa carrega grande significado e poder. Mesmo nas ocasiões em que as paróquias se juntam e se dá um novo nome à paróquia, o nome da Igreja permanece sempre o mesmo. É importante conhecer e celebrar o significado dos nomes das nossas paróquias.

Neste domingo, a Igreja celebra a festa de São Tiago. Mais precisamente, a festa ocorre em 25 de julho e, neste ano, na maioria dos lugares, é substituída pela celebração do domingo. Na Igreja de São Tiago, dentro da nossa colaborativa, temos o privilégio de celebrar esta festa em vez da celebração dominical, pois é a nossa festa patronal. Quer sejamos membros de St. James, Imaculada Conceição ou, mais precisamente, membros da colaborativa de nossas Paróquias Católicas de Stoughton, a vida e o exemplo de São Tiago nos oferece muito sobre o que refletir.

Tiago, filho de Zebedeu, foi um dos apóstolos originais de Jesus, junto com seu irmão João. Os evangelhos nos contam que Tiago e João eram pescadores que trabalhavam ao lado de seu pai. Quando Jesus os chamou, eles desistiram de tudo para segui-Lo. Ele estava entre o círculo dos discípulos mais próximos de Jesus. Ele estava presente com Pedro e João na Transfiguração, e novamente na Agonia no Jardim, onde os mesmos três são vistos dormindo enquanto Cristo ora. São Tiago é tradicionalmente considerado o primeiro apóstolo que foi martirizado. Ele morreu por volta do ano 44AD e é o único apóstolo cujo martírio está registrado no Novo Testamento (Atos 12: 2).

São Tiago é frequentemente retratado em trajes de peregrino, incluindo a bela estátua em nossa Igreja. Ele usa um chapéu de aba larga e uma capa e carrega uma bolsa, um jarro de água e uma concha.

Como discípulo e padroeiro dos peregrinos, São Tiago representa para nós o que é a vida do discipulado, tanto no preço que pode exigir de nós, como na fecundidade que podemos dar quando estamos atentos e fiéis ao seguimento de Jesus onde quer que ele nos leve. A vida de São Tiago ilustra que seguir Jesus não é uma experiência anônima. Ele não nos convida porque somos perfeitos e sempre responderemos bem. Em vez disso, conhecendo-nos mais intimamente do que nos conhecemos a nós mesmos, Jesus nos encontra onde quer que estejamos e, por meio de convites repetidos, Ele nos dá a oportunidade de cultivar nossos dons e colocá-los à Sua disposição para servir aos outros.

A vida de um cristão é uma vida de discipulado e peregrinação. Para que nossa vida faça sentido, devemos vivê-la seguindo a vontade de Jesus para nós, e isso significa que nunca enraizamos profundamente em um momento particular, mas sim que estamos sempre prontos para seguir uma nova virada em nossa jornada. Embora nossa inclinação humana seja a de se preparar para qualquer eventualidade, a vida de um peregrino exige uma carga leve e uma dependência constante da providência de Deus. A fidelidade a Jesus e à sua verdade acabou por custar a vida de São Tiago, mas a sua fidelidade garantiu a sua entrada na glória e a fecundidade da sua vida se manifesta nas inúmeras almas que tocou com o seu legado. Como membros desta colaborativa, devemos pedir continuamente a intercessão de São Tiago para seguir Jesus, compartilhar Seu evangelho e caminhar até chegarmos à nossa pátria celestial. --Pe. Carlos
