22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

A Message From Our Pastor Father Carlos

The world is in need of redemption and change. Rather than programs and faddish initiatives, the change we need begins with each individual heart. God sent His Son to atone for our sins, and He desires that we cooperate in receiving and cultivating this gift. If all God wanted us to do was to fall in line and follow him then He could have come in His full radiant majesty and faced with such glory we would have been forced to worship and adore Him. However, God did the exact opposite, and this shows us that the relationship He wants with us is not one of coercion but one of love. Jesus came not in triumph but in humility. He chose to remain among us not in glory but in simplicity as He abides among us in the Eucharist. God's decision to enter human history in this way requires no less commitment on our part than if He came in full glory. Instead of forcing our hand, God allows for our response to pour forth on its own from inside us.

Given the gentleness with which God comes to encounter us and the freedom He gives us in responding, how should we respond? There are two practical things we can and should do. The first is to make sure that we come regularly to Mass and receive our Lord in the Eucharist conscious of the divine guest we are welcoming to dwell within us. The second thing we should do comes prior to that, and with some regularity, we should make sure that we've prepared Him a dignified space by examining our conscience and using the sacrament of confession to unburden ourselves of all those things that clutter our hearts and that should not share space with the Lord. There is yet another thing we can do, we can waste time with the Lord. What do I mean? Think of how much time we consume in rest and leisure activities. What if we sanctified some of that leisure and spent it with Jesus? Come to Eucharistic Adoration and come free of a set agenda of what you're going to do during that time. Just rest in the presence of the Lord. Talk to Him from the depths of your heart, and allow yourself to sit in silence where God may talk to you from His heart. He is waiting for you. In the eyes of the world, this is wasted and unproductive time, but in the eyes of the Lord, if you use it wisely, that time in adoration may be some of the most powerful time of your whole week. Come, let us adore Him—Fr. Carlos

Gospel Meditation & Reflections

GOSPEL MEDITATION - 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I'm afraid to.
How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don't be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because he has faith in you!

Grief Support Group

Parishioners who have experienced the loss of a loved one are warmly invited to register for a grief support group sponsored by our Ministry of Consolation. The group will be most helpful for those who have journeyed several months after their loss, and who would like to find comfort in faith and the shared experience of others in the Catholic Parishes of Stoughton.

We expect the group to begin in early September and have about 8 sessions on successive Wednesday evenings. Please contact Jane Griffin for more information or to register for the upcoming group. Jane can be reached either by email at janemgriffin@verizon.net or by calling the parish office (781-344-2073) and requesting a callback from Jane.

No rule book. No time frame. No judgement. Grief is as individual as a fingerprint. Do what is right for your soul.

BAPTISM

To assist parents in preparing for the baptism of their child the Catholic Parishes of Stoughton offers a Baptism Class once a month. Parents are asked to attend a class at least a month before the baptism of their child. Classes run approximately one hour.

Baptisms are held the third Sunday of the month at St. James and the fourth Sunday of the month at Immaculate Conception. Please call the parish office for more information.

Uma mensagem do nosso pastor Padre Carlos

O mundo precisa redenção e mudança. Em vez de programas e iniciativas populares, a mudança que precisamos começa com cada coração individual. Deus enviou Seu Filho para expiar nossos pecados e Ele deseja que cooperemos em receber e cultivar esse dom. Se tudo o que Deus queria que fizéssemos fosse entrar na linha e segui-lo, então Ele poderia ter vindo em Sua majestade radiante e diante de tanta glória seríamos forçados a adorá-Lo. No entanto, Deus fez exatamente o oposto, e isso nos mostra que o relacionamento que Ele deseja conosco não é de coerção, mas de amor. Jesus não veio em triunfo, mas em humildade. Ele escolheu permanecer entre nós não na glória, mas na simplicidade, pois Ele permanece entre nós na Eucaristia. A decisão de Deus de entrar na história humana desta forma não requer menos compromisso de nossa parte do que se Ele viesse em plena glória. Em vez de forçar nossa mão, Deus permite que nossa resposta seja derramada por si mesma, de dentro de nós.

Dada a gentileza com que Deus vem ao nosso encontro e a liberdade que Ele nos dá em responder, como devemos responder? Existem duas coisas práticas que podemos e devemos fazer. O primeiro é garantir que vamos regularmente à missa e recebemos o Senhor na Eucaristia, conscientes do hóspede divino que acolhemos para habitar em nós. A segunda coisa que devemos fazer vem antes disso, e com alguma regularidade, devemos certificar-nos de que preparamos para Ele um espaço digno, examinando nossa consciência e usando o sacramento da confissão para nos livrarmos de todas as coisas que desordenam nosso coração e que não devem compartilhar espaço com o Senhor.

Há ainda outra coisa que podemos fazer, podemos perder tempo com o Senhor. O que eu quero dizer? Pense em quanto tempo consumimos em atividades de descanso e lazer. E se santificássemos parte desse lazer e o passássemos com Jesus? Venha para a Adoração Eucarística e venha sem uma agenda definida do que você vai fazer durante esse tempo. Apenas descanse na presença do Senhor. Fale com Ele do fundo do seu coração e permita-se sentar em silêncio, onde Deus pode falar com você do Seu coração. Ele está esperando por você. Aos olhos do mundo, isso é tempo perdido e improdutivo, mas aos olhos do Senhor, se você usá-lo com sabedoria, esse tempo em adoração pode ser um dos momentos mais poderosos de toda a sua semana. Vinde adoremos! - Pe. Carlos
