THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16bc

A Message From Our Pastor Father Carlos

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Some may wonder at the fact that Jesus asked to be baptized. To be baptized, prior to Jesus' baptism, was a sign of repentance and renewal, and it was also a gesture that could be used to unite disciples to a particular teacher. However, as with many things Jesus did, he took a practice that had existed and by participating in it He gave it a much deeper meaning.

Jesus is baptized in part to fulfill prophecies that had been given such as what the prophet Isaiah wrote, "But a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, A spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD, and his delight shall be the fear of the LORD. (Is 11:1-3)

Jesus' baptism is also one of the many epiphany moments in His life. The Epiphanies are those times where the divinity of Jesus shines out through His humanity. As St Justin Martyr says in his Dialogue with Trypho, "When Jesus came to the waters, He was deemed a carpenter, but the proclamation of the Father and the descent of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove showed him to be far more than a mere worker of wood."

Jesus' baptism also points toward His death and resurrection. What Jesus begins in the Jordan, taking our sins upon Himself, He completes perfectly upon the cross. He even speaks of his crucifixion as a baptism. (Mk 10:38; Lk 12:50).

As we consider the power and significance of Jesus' baptism, it should make us look again at how we approach baptism. Baptism isn't just a nice ceremony or a rite of passage. We are baptized in imitation of Christ. Baptism gives us forgiveness of original sin and all personal sin. This means that a person baptized as an adult ends up with as clean a slate as an infant that is baptized, but this is no excuse to delay baptism! Baptism makes us adoptive children of the Father, members of the body of Christ, and temples of the Holy Spirit. Our baptism entrusts us with the mission of bringing Christ's light into the world. This is an important mission entrusted to us. It's also entrusted to our Godparents, which is why the Church insists that they should be a person who is confirmed and who actively lives their Catholic faith because their primary role is to help their godchild to keep that faith alive and shining.

As we celebrate our Lord's baptism, may we also reflect upon the graces He has given us at our baptism. In our baptism, we join Jesus in His death, and may our living and carrying of His light prepare us one day to join Him in resurrection and in eternal glory. – Fr. Carlos

Charitable Contribution Letters for the year 2021

It is that time of year to organize records for tax returns! Cash contributions that are not in a parish envelope cannot be tracked by the parish and will not be included in the year-end contribution statement.

Written confirmations of your 2021 donations will be available after January 28th
To have your donation record sent to you, please contact:

Paula Myers at pmyers@stoughtoncatholic.org at 781-344-2073.

Please include your full name, address, the way you contribute (envelope, online giving, loose check), and please allow one week for us to get your written verification to you.

In the light of spiking numbers of new COVID cases and the likely increase in those numbers in the upcoming holiday season, Cardinal Seán is mandating that throughout the archdiocese all people attending public Masses, including weddings and funerals, wear masks.

This mandate took effect the weekend of December 18/19, 2021, and expires on January 17, 2022.

2022 Parish Registration Form

Attention new and established parishioners! Please fill out a Parish Registration Forms available on the tables as you enter the Church. For more information or to have a form mailed to you, please call the parish office at 781-344-2073 or email us at info@stoughtoncatholic.org

iThirst: Evening of Prayer & Support

A night of prayer and peace for those who are experiencing a loved one's addiction and those who would like to join in solidarity and support. The evening will include times for Eucharistic Adoration, prayer and reflection, and fellowship.

Monday January 10th at 6:30 -8:00 pm

St. James Church - 560 Page Street Stoughton
www.stoughtoncatholic.org

Daily Morning Mass will be canceled if we receive more than 4 inches of snow. Please bear in mind that when there is even a physical inability to make it to Mass (such as hazardous driving conditions from too much snow), the obligation to attend Mass does not apply. Please use your best judgment in these circumstances.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!!

It's that time of year again! We are in desperate need of volunteers to help out with the snow removal at Immaculate Conception and St. Anthony's Free Market. We are looking for four volunteers for Immaculate Conception and 2 volunteers to help at St. Anthony's Free Market to help with snow removal.

If you are interested in lending a hand in shoveling the entrance ways to the Church or putting out ice melt we would greatly appreciate your help!

Please contact Paula Myers for more information.

Stewardship

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

Gospel Meditation & Reflections

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

Question:

At my grandson's Baptism, the priest put a bib on the baby. I do not remember seeing this before. Why is this done? Is it something new?

Answer:

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: “See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers and this is symbolized by the white garment.

Ministries, Sacraments and Prayer

Sign-up to host the traveling Good Shepherd Icon to pray for Vocations.

We are grateful to many individuals and families in our Parishes who have volunteered to host the traveling Good Shepherd icon for a week and made a special effort to pray for Vocations.

We are still looking for volunteers. Please sign-up through the links found on our website www.stoughtoncatholic.org if you are willing to host the icon for a week and join us to pray and promote Vocations!

The Sacrament of Marriage

Couples planning a wedding should call the parish office to set up a meeting with the Pastor. Dates cannot be set by phone or e-mails. After meeting with the Pastor and proper church paperwork has been completed, a wedding date can be booked. A wedding date should be arranged with the church before making any other plans.

To assist parents in preparing for the baptism of their child the Catholic Parishes of Stoughton offers a Baptism Class once a month. Parents are asked to attend a class at least a month before the baptism of their child. Classes run approximately one hour.

Upcoming Baptism Class:

January 5th at 7:00 pm in St. James Hall

Baptisms are held the 3rd Sunday of the month at St. James and the 4th Sunday of the month at Immaculate Conception.

The Haitian Prayer Group meets on Saturdays from 5pm to 8pm at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall.

St. Hilary of Poitiers, Bishop and Doctor of the Church | January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

Uma mensagem do nosso pastor Padre Carlos

Hoje celebramos a festa do Batismo do Senhor. Alguns podem se perguntar porque foi que Jesus pediu para ser batizado. Ser batizado, antes do batismo de Jesus, era um sinal de arrependimento e renovação, e também era um gesto que podia ser usado como expressão da união entre um mestre e seus discípulos. No entanto, como com muitas coisas que Jesus fez, ele transformou uma prática que já existia e, ao participar dela, deu-lhe um significado muito mais profundo.

Jesus é batizado em parte para cumprir profecias que foram dadas, como o que o profeta Isaías escreveu: “Um renovo sairá do tronco de Jessé, e um rebento brotará de suas raízes. Sobre ele repousará o Espírito do Senhor, Espírito de sabedoria e de entendimento, Espírito de prudência e de coragem, Espírito de ciência e de temor do Senhor. Sua alegria se encontrará no temor do Senhor.” (Is 11: 1-3)

O batismo de Jesus também é um dos muitos momentos de epifania em Sua vida. As epifanias são aqueles momentos em que a divindade de Jesus resplandece por meio de sua humanidade. Como diz São Justino Mártir em seu Diálogo com Trifão: “Quando Jesus veio às águas, foi considerado carpinteiro, mas a proclamação do Pai e a descida do Espírito Santo em forma de pomba mostraram que ele era muito mais do que um mero trabalhador da madeira.”

O batismo de Jesus também aponta para Sua morte e ressurreição. O que Jesus começou no Jordão, levando nossos pecados sobre Si, Ele completou perfeitamente na cruz. Ele até fala de sua crucificação como um batismo. (Mc 10:38; Lc 12:50).

Ao considerarmos o poder e o significado do batismo de Jesus, isso deve nos fazer olhar novamente para como celebramos o batismo. O batismo não é apenas uma bela cerimônia ou um rito de passagem. Somos batizados em imitação de Cristo. O batismo nos dá perdão do pecado original e de todos os pecados pessoais. Isso significa que uma pessoa batizada como um adulto termina com uma ficha tão limpa quanto uma criança que é batizada, mas isso não é desculpa para atrasar o batismo! O batismo nos torna filhos e filhas adotivos do Pai, membros do corpo de Cristo e templos do Espírito Santo. Nosso batismo nos confia a missão de levar a luz de Cristo ao mundo. Esta é uma importante missão que nos foi confiada. Também é confiada aos nossos padrinhos, e é por isso que a Igreja insiste que eles devem ser pessoas crismadas que vivem ativamente sua fé católica, porque seu papel principal é ajudar seu afilhado a manter essa fé viva e brilhante.

Ao celebrarmos o batismo de nosso Senhor, esperemos que possamos também refletir sobre as graças que Ele nos deu em nosso batismo. Em nosso batismo nos unimos a Jesus em Sua morte, e que nosso viver e levar Sua luz nos prepare um dia para nos unir a Ele na ressurreição e na glória eterna. - Pe. Carlos

MEDITAÇÃO GOSPEL
O Batismo do Senhor

"Somos chamados a viver o nosso batismo todos os dias, como novas criaturas, vestidas em Cristo." — Papa Francisco

Que ponto de referência usa ao tomar decisões? Muitas vezes, o impulso toma o controlo e as decisões são tomadas apenas com base na emoção e no desejo. Todos sabemos que este tipo de decisões pode muitas vezes meter-nos em sarilhos. Quando uma pessoa tem um senso confiante de quem é e uma compreensão real do que é importante e de valor, a probabilidade de escolhas impulsivas diminuem. O batismo dá-nos o que precisamos para tomar decisões bem informadas e propositadas. Por este simples gesto, Deus afirma-nos como Seus e fornece-nos a identidade e o propósito de que precisamos para viver a vida corretamente.

É tremendamente reconfortante, quando abraçamos verdadeiramente esta revelação e percebemos que já não temos de nos interrogar sobre o propósito das nossas vidas ou lutar para encontrar o nosso caminho. A resposta de quem somos em Deus foi-nos dada. Já não temos de nos desentender, tropeçar em nós mesmos ou andar sem rumo. Questões que rodeiam a sacralidade da vida, o sentido da morte, a proteção dos mais vulneráveis, o cuidado com os fracos e os pobres, oferecendo hospitalidade a quem procura uma casa, o propósito e o local de trabalho adequado, como criar uma ordem social justa, cuidar da criação, e compreender os nossos papéis como arautos e mordomos são apenas alguns dos maravilhosos dons que o batismo traz. Quando tomamos decisões baseadas em coisas como estas verdades fundamentais do Evangelho, nós realmente agimos como o próprio Cristo, revelando aos outros as novas criações que somos. É assim que vivemos o nosso batismo.

É difícil andar contra a maré. No entanto, é precisamente isso que o batismo nos chama a fazer. Embora sejamos pecadores, que precisamos de misericórdia e longe da perfeição, somos chamados a ordenar a nossa vida e a tomar decisões baseadas na sabedoria e orientação de Deus Todo-Poderoso. Só ele é aquele que nos pode reclamar como seus filhos e filhas. Defender os nossos princípios não nos tornará populares. Mas quem disse que o cristianismo é um concurso de popularidade? O batismo chama-nos a defender aquilo que vai contra o grão do secularismo. Em pé na linha com outros pecadores, temos a nossa âncora para nos estabilizar nas tempestades da vida e Deus está muito satisfeito. Seguir em frente. Não há nada a temer. ©LPi

REQUIRED

À luz do aumento do número de novos casos de COVID e do provável aumento desses números na próxima temporada de férias, o Cardeal Seán está a ordenar que, em toda a arquidiocese, todas as pessoas que assistem a missas públicas, incluindo casamentos e funerais, usem máscaras.

Este mandato entrou em vigor no fim de semana de 18/19 de dezembro de 2021, e expira em 17 de janeiro de 2022.

A missa diária será cancelada se recebermos mais de 10 cm de neve. Tenha em mente que quando há mesmo uma incapacidade física de chegar à missa (como condições de condução perigosas de muita neve), a obrigação de assistir à missa não se aplica. Por favor, use o seu melhor julgamento nestas circunstâncias.
