Passion is the evil in adultery. If a man has no opportunity of living with another man's wife, but if it is obvious for some reason that he would like to do so if he could, he is no less guilty than if he was caught in the act.
—Saint Augustine

SPIRITUAL EXCERPT: Professor Alice von Hildebrand, a distinguished Catholic writer and the wife of the late Dietrich von Hildebrand. Alice and I have been close friends for many years and you may have seen our series on suffering on EWTN. She reminded me of a very important line which I had forgotten. It was a statement by the late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen: 'Nothing is worse than wasted suffering'. Of course, one is tempted to ask, 'Why did this accident occur?' While I am being tempted to ask this, I am looking at a picture of St. Padre Pio, who said, 'Don't ask why, ask what - what am I supposed to do?' That seems rather obvious, except one must admit a deficiency of virtues and throw oneself before Christ crucified and the Holy Spirit. We all suffer. Some suffer well, some poorly, some bitterly, some in union with Christ, some in union with Our Lady and the saints, some in union with God as they know Him, some only in union with the other people in the hospital, and some all alone - but we suffer. How much better it is to suffer even poorly and inconsistently in union with Christ. —Fr. Benedict Groeschel, CFR

2025 LENTEN REGULATIONS

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and abstinence "substantially", or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, March 9 to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, June 15. *Canon 920, §1.

All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.

2025 JUBILEE YEAR WEDDING ANNIVERSARYMASS SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 2025 - 3PM

The Archdiocese of Newark is preparing the annual tradition of honoring those couples who will be celebrating their 5th, 25th and 50th years of Christian marriage in 2025. This year there will be ONE anniversary liturgy for all couples from all counties - celebrated by Cardinal Joseph Tobin on Sunday, June 1, at 3PM at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark. Registration due by May 10. Please contact the rectory to register.

SHOULD I CONFESS?

St. John said: "If we say that we have not sinned, we make a liar out of God..." And that's because God sent His Son for our sins. If we have not sinned, then something is wrong with God for sending His Son to be sacrificed. And that simply is not so! People say no one steals anymore; they simply lift something, or in the case of some large corporations, someone simply made an error in judgment. No one lies anymore; they simply misrepresent the facts. No one kills an unborn child; they simply terminate a pregnancy. Who is kidding whom here? Some people say they are for a "woman's right to choose". A woman's right to choose what? All this represents a clever way of candy-coating the reality of sin because we don't like to admit that we sin. If we close our eyes to sin in our lives, we don't need Jesus. And if we don't need Jesus, then we are surely lost!

A WAY TO HELP YOUTH OF ST. JOE'S TO ATTEND CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOLS

There are parishioners who ask for help with paying tuition at Catholic High Schools and we agree that their child would be better off with a Catholic education. We have a fund for this purpose if you would like to provide help to students who have this desire to study and deepen their faith.

DEFERRED GIVING

Many families over the years have left a bequest in their wills for St. Joe's. It is a wonderful way to help our parish to remain vibrant, continue serving the families and save on taxes. If they had three children, for example, they would divide the estate into four, one for each child and one for the parish. Call for more information.

PALM CROSSES PICK-UP

The Rosarians' Palm Crosses will be available for pickup after all the Masses this weekend, in the lobby.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The weekend was very busy for the Knights and for those who came to the catechesis this year. Both groups had about thirty people for their retreats, which included some youth and many couples. Faith is a journey that takes a lifetime with God's help through his Word and his Sacraments. Without his help at least weekly we easily become worldly people so please keep them in your prayers.

This weekend we will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation after all the Masses. Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery to go and sin no more, which was like a new life for her. The best way to prepare for Easter that is a victory over death and sin and all of the situations that kill us each day is to fall into the arms of the one who always forgives us.

The Pharisees were trying to trap Christ. They did not care too much about justice since they did not even bother to find the man, or about the woman who they used for their own purposes. Their only intention was to trap Jesus. If he let her go, then he was against the Law of Moses. And if he said it was ok to stone her, where was the mercy? He came to save the sinner.

Well, it is not easy to trick Jesus Christ and what does he do? He was already sitting down, and he starts to write on the ground with his finger. Some think he was writing the sins of the accusers, or maybe he was just doodling. It could be his accusers thought of a phrase from Jeremiah about God writing our sins in the dust. Who knows?

Then he said, "Let the man without sin cast the first stone." Maybe they thought of what he said earlier in his ministry that to look at a woman with lust was to commit adultery or how can you tell your brother to remove the splinter from his eye if you have not removed the plank from yours. And then he started to write a second time and they went away starting from the eldest.

Finally, Jesus is left alone with this woman and tells her that he does not condemn her and go and sin no more. He doesn't just brush off the sin and minimize it. He tells her not to do this again. He does not threaten her. Imagine her fear and what was going through her mind in all of this. Stoning someone to death is not an easy death.

I think Christ is telling us that to receive forgiveness from our sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation we need to show a purpose of amendment. What does that mean? It is the true desire to never commit that sin again. That is required for the person to receive forgiveness from God. It is not that the person will never commit sin again but that he has the firm desire to avoid it.

God will always help us and as it says in the first reading: he gives us "a way out," as he did to the Jews in Egypt. God always provides a way, a friend, a Word in church, to help us get out of our rut. Ask for this "way out" during these last two weeks of Lent, and Christ will help you.

THE 2025 ANNUAL APPEAL

I am happy to see that we are more than halfway to attain our goal & more people are giving. I am grateful for your generosity, and I rely on it because it helps support essential ministries and programs of our Archdiocese.

Your support to the Annual Appeal helps us accomplish across the Archdiocese what we would not be able to do alone. Our Parish goal is $25,723. There are two financial benefits to our Parish if we achieve this goal. First, if we reach this goal in cash by June 30th, our Parish is eligible for a two percent reduction on our fiscal obligations to the Archdiocese. Second, if we go over goal in pledges as of June 30th, we will be eligible for a rebate, which comes back to our Parish, unassessed, to be used at our own discretion. So far we have $19,112 paid from 70 families and $20,362 pledged.

I always make my gift to the Appeal. Please consider taking a step with me on this Stewardship journey by responding to Cardinal Tobin's invitation to support the Appeal, I hope you made your commitment already and if not please do so soon. You can also make a gift online by going to rcan.org/sharing. Thank you for your time and consideration. You are in my prayers. Please pray for the success of the Annual Appeal.

GIVING WHEN IT COUNTS

Many years ago, a little girl named Liz was critically ill, suffering from a rare and serious disease. Her only chance of recovery appeared to be a blood transfusion from her 5-year-old brother, who had miraculously survived the same disease and had developed the antibodies needed to combat the illness. The doctor explained the situation to her little brother and asked the little boy if he would be willing to give his blood to his sister. Her little brother hesitated for only a moment before taking a deep breath and saying, "Yes I'll do it if it will save her." As the transfusion progressed, he lay in bed next to his sister and smiled, seeing the color returning to her cheek. Then his face grew pale, and his smile faded. He looked up at the doctor and asked with a trembling voice, "Will I start to die right away?" Being young, the little boy had misunderstood the doctor; he thought he was going to have to give his sister all of his blood in order to save her.

SEVEN CAPITAL SINS

The Catechism of the Catholic Church also refers to these sins as “deadly sins”. “Vices can be classified according to the virtues they oppose or also be linked to capital sins which Christian experience has distinguished, following St. John Cassian and St. Gregory the Great. They are called “capital” because they engender other sins, other vices. They are pride, avarice [greed], envy, wrath, lust, gluttony and sloth” (CCC No. 1866).

Pride: an excessive love of self or the desire to be better or more important than others. “Respect for the human person proceeds by way of respect for the principle that ‘everyone should look upon his neighbor (without exception) as “another self,” above all bearing in mind his life and the means necessary for living it with dignity” (No. 1931).

Lust: an intense desire, usually for sexual pleasure, but also for money, power or fame. “The God of promises always warned man against seduction by what from the beginning has seemed ‘good for food ... a delight to the eyes ... to be desired to make one wise” (No. 2541). Gluttony: overconsumption, usually of food or drink. “The virtue of temperance disposes us to avoid every kind of excess: the abuse of food, alcohol, tobacco or medicine” (No. 2290).

Greed: the desire for and love of possessions. “Sin is a failure in genuine love for God and neighbor caused by a perverse attachment to certain goods” (No. 1849). Sloth (or Acedia): physical laziness, also disinterest in spiritual matters or neglecting spiritual growth. “Acedia or spiritual sloth goes so far as to refuse the joy that comes from God and to be repelled by divine goodness” (No. 2094). Anger or wrath: uncontrolled feelings of hatred or rage. “Anger is a desire for revenge ... The Lord says, ‘Everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment.’” (No. 2302). Envy: sadness or desire for the possessions, happiness, talents or abilities of another, “Envy can lead to the worst crimes. ‘Through the devil’s envy death entered the world’” (No. 2553).

Prayer is: the place of refuge for every worry, a foundation for cheerfulness, a source of constant happiness, a protection against sadness. --St. John Chrysostom

Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin, all hope consists in confession; in confession there is a chance for mercy. --St. Isidore of Seville

LENTEN INSIGHTS

Abba John the Dwarf said, 'If a king wanted to take possession of his enemy's city, he would begin by cutting off the water and the food, and so his enemies, dying of hunger, would submit to him. It is the same with the passions of the flesh: if a man goes about fasting and hungry, the enemies of his soul grow weak.'

Isidore the Priest said, 'If you fast regularly, do not be inflated with pride, but if you think highly of yourself because of it, then you had better eat meat. It is better for a man to eat meat than to be inflated with pride and glorify himself.'

“The ultimate goal of fasting is to help each one of us to make a complete gift of self to God.”

LENT IS THE TIME TO VISIT THE DIVINE PHYSICIAN

God wants to heal us but unfortunately, too often we don't go to him with our spiritual sickness in order to be healed.

We stay instead in the darkness.

There exist numerous home remedies for the most common illnesses, but there is one sickness that cannot be healed through our own efforts. That sickness is the life of sin we are currently in and the many times we walk away from God. No matter how hard we may try to achieve inner healing through our own mental experiments, only God can heal us and bring us lasting peace through the forgiveness of sins.

What we need to do is to fly to the Divine Physician and to show him all of our ailments.

Pope Benedict XVI reflected on this spiritual truth during an Angelus message on the Fourth Sunday of Lent in 2012. St Augustine comments: “So far, then, as it lies with the physician, he has come to heal the sick. He that will not observe the orders of the physician destroys himself. He has become a Savior to the world... You will not be saved by him; you shall be judged of yourself”.

In this quote, St. Augustine is explaining how Jesus, the Divine Physician, wants to heal us, but he can only heal us if we want healing. Pope Benedict XVI continues his reflection by expanding on this reality, linking it to the sacrament of confession: Therefore, if the merciful love of God — who went so far as to give his only Son to redeem our life — is infinite, we have a great responsibility: each one of us, in fact, must recognize that he is sick in order to be healed. Each one must confess his sin so that God’s forgiveness, already granted on the Cross, may have an effect in his heart and in his life.

He further explains how, “it is only by opening oneself to the light and only by sincerely confessing one’s sins to God that one finds true peace and true joy. It is therefore important to receive the Sacrament of Penance regularly, especially during Lent, in order to receive the Lord’s forgiveness and to intensify our process of conversion.”

Sometimes it can be more convenient to ignore our sins and to hide them from God, or even from ourselves. We bury them deep within our soul, not letting them be exposed to the light of Christ. However, if we do that, we will never experience healing. This happens whenever we go to the doctor and don't tell him something that is ailing us.

Our doctor can't heal something that he doesn't know about. While it's true that the Divine Physician knows everything, he wants us to recognize our spiritual sickness and to bring it to him of our own free will. God wants to heal us and to bring us back to spiritual health. What we need to do is to let him and we can do that by going to confession and opening ourselves up to the healing power of mercy that Jesus grants through the ministry of the priest.
