GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes.

While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime “in the future” while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today.

There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have.

By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. “Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom).”

We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God. (©LPi)

An Invitation to Deepen your Faith!

The RCIA program is a beautiful program offered by our parish to invite parishioners to deepen their faith in 3 ways:

- ✦ Time to learn more about their Catholic faith - open to all parishioners, individuals, families and children
- ✦ Individuals/families that may be missing one or more of the sacraments - Baptism, Reconciliation, Holy Communion and/or Confirmation
- ✦ Those who wish to join the Catholic faith

Valerie Sprague is the Coordinator the program & is planning the September to Easter 2023 sessions.

Sessions are one hour and are offered:

- ✦ Before the 10:30 Mass
- ✦ Wed. evenings, 6:30- 7:30 pm in Wallace Hall

To learn more contact:

- ✦ Val Sprague valsprague@optonline.net,
- ✦ Father Thadeus, pastor.stpats@outlook.com or the parish office, 914-273-9724.

Catechists Needed

This fall, over 300 children will be enrolled in our St. Patrick's Religious Education Program and we would love your help. There are so many reasons to become involved.....

- ✦ Your baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry
- ✦ Children in today's world, more than ever, need to hear the Good News of Jesus and to encounter good role models of faith
- ✦ You will be handing on a 2000-year-old tradition that changes lives
- ✦ You have much to share with those you will teach, and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists
- ✦ We will offer you outstanding support
- ✦ You will have fun and make new friends
- ✦ You will be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus
- ✦ And finally....it is our job! Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations"

The 2023 Mass book is open, so please call or stop by the office with your mass intention requests.
