GOSPEL MEDITATION

LESS STRESS, MORE FAITH

Faith helps us overcome many of the anxieties of daily life.

As a society, we are experiencing an epidemic of stress. Keeping up with the demands of life has worn us out. Many of us are getting much less sleep than we need. This heightened stress takes a toll on our bodies making our blood pressure soar ... As we close in on ourselves, we become more isolated until we find ourselves trapped in a prison of fear.

How different our life is when we put God at the center of it! Jesus promised those who follow him that his yoke would be easy and his burden light (Mt 11:30). Those who live according to his teaching are no longer burdened by having to live up to the world's unrealistic expectations. We no longer measure ourselves against what others have but against the word of a merciful God who knows and loves us. We who follow Jesus live in the freedom of faith.

Today's second reading from the letter to the Hebrews focuses on what faith means in the life of the believer. Faith is more than believing that God exists ... Rather the faith that transforms and saves us is the trust that God's promises to us will be fulfilled.

In today's gospel reading, Jesus gives us an important example as to how we are to exercise our faith. As believers, we have an active expectation that Jesus will come again. This is the real important difference between those who believe and those who do not.

Those of us who enjoy the gift of faith have a different outlook. We know that this world and its pleasures are passing away. Our hope is set not on what this world can give us but on the eternal life promised to us by our Savior.

We still need to work, to support our families and to prepare for the future, but we do so in trust knowing that God will provide for us. And if hardship or misfortune should come our way, we endure it with patience knowing that God is at our side and trusting that He will make all things work for our good. It is not an easy way to live, but it is a more fulfilling and happier life than this world can give. And it is ours if we stake our lives on God's promise

An Invitation to Deepen your Faith!

The RCIA program is a beautiful program offered by our parish to invite parishioners to deepen their faith in 3 ways:

- ✦ Time to learn more about their Catholic faith - open to all parishioners, individuals, families and children
- ✦ Individuals/families that may be missing one or more of the sacraments - Baptism, Reconciliation, Holy Communion and/or Confirmation
- ✦ Those who wish to join the Catholic faith

Valerie Sprague is the Coordinator the program & is planning the September to Easter 2023 sessions.

Sessions are one hour and are offered:

- ✦ Before the 10:30 Mass
- ✦ Wed. evenings, 6:30- 7:30 pm in Wallace Hall

To learn more contact:

- ✦ Val Sprague valsprague@optonline.net,
- ✦ Father Thadeus, pastor.stpats@outlook.com or the parish office, 914-273-9724.

Catechists Needed

This fall, over 300 children will be enrolled in our St. Patrick's Religious Education Program and we would love your help. There are so many reasons to become involved.....

- ✦ Your baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry
- ✦ Children in today's world, more than ever, need to hear the Good News of Jesus and to encounter good role models of faith
- ✦ You will be handing on a 2000-year-old tradition that changes lives
- ✦ You have much to share with those you will teach, and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists
- ✦ We will offer you outstanding support
- ✦ You will have fun and make new friends
- ✦ You will be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus
- ✦ And finally....it is our job! Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations"

Welcome Back Father Tomy

Father Tomy Palely has been visiting our parish over the summer for many years - he skipped a few recently. We are blessed because he is with us for the month of August.

Father Tomy is back at his Parish in India after completing his studies in Rome, where he received his Ph.D.

Congratulations to all who attended the very successful Steubenville Youth Conference last weekend!
