CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

Religious Formation News

RELIGIOUS FORMATION

Religious Formation Grades 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 home lessons were emailed to families last week. We will post pictures on our Facebook page of children doing lesson activities that are emailed to us. 6th grade lessons will be going out via email on the first Friday of Lent, February 19. The series on “Prayer 101” will be coordinated by Fr. Jared.

The census is just sending to Head of Household emails but if you and your spouse have separate emails - you may each get a set of lessons! If you have not received an email – please check any emails that may be associated with your family. If your emails have changed during this time or if you want another email to be the primary email – please email the office.

March is Scouting Month!

Attention Parents:

If you have a Boy or Girl Scout who is interested in earning any of the Catholic Scouting Awards, please contact the Religious Formation office, glardaro@ckri.org

Attention Troop leaders for Girl Scouts and BSA:

The promises for both ask each individual to serve God and to help others. If your troop or child has been involved in either – please send a picture and description so that it can be posted to our Facebook page! glardaro@ckri.org.

March Mitten Madness

Make multiple mittens for the veterans and shelters! Packets with everything you need will be available for pick up beginning March 7.

“Give them some food yourselves.”

Luke 9:13

Each year, our parish dedicates a portion of its income to charities and agencies that serve the needs of people in the spirit of Christ, the Gospel message, and the mission of the Catholic Church. This year, our annual outreach program will provide $30,000 to food pantries in Rhode Island.

The pandemic has led to what the Rhode Island Food Bank is calling a “hunger crisis.” More than 30 million Americans are facing food insecurity, and the need for food among Rhode Islanders has increased dramatically in the last year.

In January, we gave $3,000 to the RI Center Assisting Those in Need, located in Charlestown. This month, we support the Saint Edward Food and Wellness Center on Branch Ave. in Providence.

The Center began in 2003 in response to the plight of hunger in the geographical north end of Providence, a large, impoverished area with limited resources, dilapidated public housing and statistically high poverty levels. More recently, needy families from North Providence, east of Douglas Avenue, were added to area of eligibility.

The Center is an all-volunteer outreach to the poor, located in a former Catholic school building. There are 70 volunteers on staff. It distributes over 400,000 pounds of food annually. Currently, the Food Center is servicing over 2000 families with an average of about 300 to 350 families receiving assistance weekly.

Here at Christ the King, our outreach program is funded by our regular weekly offering. As we share our resources with those in most need around us, may we always be humble and grateful for all that we have.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL TUITION AID

Our parish policy is to allocate catholic school tuition assistance to parishioners using a needs-based formula. Aid is considered for students in grades K-12. This year we will again utilize the services of FACTS which is the same process used by the schools in the diocese and most other parishes to allocate their financial aid. We hope by utilizing FACTS we can more efficiently and effectively assist our parishioners in obtaining the appropriate level of aid. Families need to only fill out one FACTS application per family for all children and all schools. When completing the application select Christ the King Rectory Kingston as recipient of the information. The application can be found at www.online.factsmgt.com, and must have a COMPLETED status by March 31.

DONATION STATEMENTS

Statements were mailed from our budget company, Cathedral last week. If you make your donations online through OSV, you will need to log into your account and print out a statement from there.

If you have any questions, please call Beth in the office Monday - Thursday, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

Staying inside where it is warm and cozy this time of year can be comforting. When we are staying in because we cannot go out, it can be downright depressing. Those are the times when a friendly phone call can be a welcomed break in the routine. That is why we have Friendly Visitors here at Christ the King. A new friend can help brighten your day and listen to your story. Call Bonnie Feenely at 391-9460 to get set up with a new friend to help make long days less lonely.

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP ZOOM MEETINGS:

Due to the pandemic, the Cancer Support Group has been meeting once a month via ZOOM. Have you been diagnosed with cancer, undergoing or recovering from treatment? Plan to attend one of our confidential ZOOM meetings and share your unique experiences and support with the group. For information or questions, please contact group facilitator and fellow parishioner/cancer survivor Bob Maher:

OPERATION CHILLOUT

On behalf of the McAuley Ministries community, our board of Trustees, the Sisters of Mercy and, most especially, the guests and families we serve, I'd like to express my heartfelt gratitude for your in-kind donation. We received the following on 1/26/2021: 28 men's thermal sets; 40 pairs men's thermal/work socks; 150 pairs men's cotton socks; 68 men's hats; 4 pairs men's gloves; 3 men's hoodies/sweatshirts; 12 women's thermal sets; 3 women's thermal shirts; 11 pairs women's thermal socks; 30 pairs women's cotton socks; 42 women's hats; 1 pair women's gloves; and 6 women's hoodies / sweatshirts.

Our work is only possible thanks to the generosity of our donors. Thank you again for helping us continue to change lives by making your gift. Together we will provide compassionate care to those most vulnerable in our city.

Wishing you and yours all the best in 2021, Tracy Levy

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR LENT 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus revealed to his disciples the deepest meaning of his mission when he told them of his passion, death and resurrection, in fulfilment of the Father's will. He then called the disciples to share in this mission for the salvation of the world.

In our Lenten journey towards Easter, let us remember the One who “humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross” (Phil 2:8). During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, draw from the “living water” of hope, and receive with open hearts the love of God, who makes us brothers and sisters in Christ. At the Easter vigil, we will renew our baptismal promises and experience rebirth as new men and women by the working of the Holy Spirit. This Lenten journey, like the entire pilgrimage of the Christian life, is even now illumined by the light of the resurrection, which inspires the thoughts, attitudes and decisions of the followers of Christ.

Fasting, prayer and almsgiving, as preached by Jesus (cf. Mt 6:1-18), enable and express our conversion. The path of poverty and self-denial (fasting), concern and loving care for the poor (almsgiving), and childlike dialogue with the Father (prayer) make it possible for us to live lives of sincere faith, living hope and effective charity.

1. Faith calls us to accept the truth and testify to it before God and all our brothers and sisters.

In this Lenten season, accepting and living the truth revealed in Christ means, first of all, opening our hearts to God's word, which the Church passes on from generation to generation. This truth is not an abstract concept reserved for a chosen intelligent few. Instead, it is a message that all of us can receive and understand thanks to the wisdom of a heart open to the grandeur of God, who loves us even before we are aware of it. Christ himself is this truth. By taking on our humanity, even to its very limits, he has made himself the way – demanding, yet open to all – that leads to the fullness of life.

Fasting, experienced as a form of self-denial, helps those who undertake it in simplicity of heart to rediscover God's gift and to recognize that, created in his image and likeness, we find our fulfilment in him.

In embracing the experience of poverty, those who fast make themselves poor with the poor and accumulate the treasure of a love both received and shared. In this way, fasting helps us to love God and our neighbor, inasmuch as love, as Saint Thomas Aquinas teaches, is a movement outwards that focuses our attention on others and considers them as one with ourselves (cf. Fratelli Tutti, 93).

Lent is a time for believing, for welcoming God into our lives and allowing him to “make his dwelling” among us (cf. Jn 14:23). Fasting involves being freed from all that weighs us down – like consumerism or an excess of information, whether true or false – in order to open the doors of our hearts to the One who comes to us, poor in all things, yet “full of grace and truth” (Jn 1:14): the Son of God our Saviour.

2. Hope as “living water” enabling us to continue our journey.

The Samaritan woman at the well, whom Jesus asks for a drink, does not understand what he means when he says that he can offer her “living water” (Jn 4:10). Naturally, she thinks that he is referring to material water, but Jesus is speaking of the Holy Spirit whom he will give in abundance through the paschal mystery, bestowing a hope that does not disappoint. Jesus had already spoken of this hope when, in telling of his passion and death, he said that he would “be raised on the third day” (Mt 20:19). Jesus was speaking of the future opened up by the Father's mercy. Hoping with him and because of him means believing that history does not end with our mistakes, our violence and injustice, or the sin that crucifies Love. It means receiving from his open heart the Father's forgiveness.

In these times of trouble, when everything seems fragile and uncertain, it may appear challenging to speak of hope. Yet Lent is precisely the season of hope, when we turn back to God who patiently continues to care for his creation which we have often mistreated (cf. Laudato Si', 32-33; 43-44). Saint Paul urges us to place our hope in reconciliation: “Be reconciled to God” (2 Cor 5:20). By receiving forgiveness in the sacrament that lies at the heart of our process of conversion, we in turn can spread forgiveness to others. Having received forgiveness ourselves, we can offer it through our willingness to enter into attentive dialogue with others and to give comfort to those experiencing sorrow and pain. God's forgiveness, offered also through our words and actions, enables us to experience an Easter of fraternity.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR LENT 2021

In Lent, may we be increasingly concerned with “speaking words of comfort, strength, consolation and encouragement, and not words that demean, sadden, anger or show scorn” (Fratelli Tutti, 223). In order to give hope to others, it is sometimes enough simply to be kind, to be “willing to set everything else aside in order to show interest, to give the gift of a smile, to speak a word of encouragement, to listen amid general indifference” (ibid., 224).

Through recollection and silent prayer, hope is given to us as inspiration and interior light, illuminating the challenges and choices we face in our mission. Hence the need to pray (cf. Mt 6:6) and, in secret, to encounter the Father of tender love.

To experience Lent in hope entails growing in the realization that, in Jesus Christ, we are witnesses of new times, in which God is “making all things new” (cf. Rev 21:1-6). It means receiving the hope of Christ, who gave his life on the cross and was raised by God on the third day, and always being “prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls [us] to account for the hope that is in [us]” (1 Pet 3:15).

3. Love, following in the footsteps of Christ, in concern and compassion for all, is the highest expression of our faith and hope.

Love rejoices in seeing others grow. Hence it suffers when others are anguished, lonely, sick, homeless, despised or in need. Love is a leap of the heart; it brings us out of ourselves and creates bonds of sharing and communion.

“‘Social love’ makes it possible to advance towards a civilization of love, to which all of us can feel called. With its impulse to universality, love is capable of building a new world. No mere sentiment, it is the best means of discovering effective paths of development for everyone” (Fratelli Tutti, 183).

Love is a gift that gives meaning to our lives. It enables us to view those in need as members of our own family, as friends, brothers or sisters. A small amount, if given with love, never ends, but becomes a source of life and happiness. Such was the case with the jar of meal and jug of oil of the widow of Zarephath, who offered a cake of bread to the prophet Elijah (cf. 1 Kings 17:7-16); it was also the case with the loaves blessed, broken and given by Jesus to the disciples to distribute to the crowd (cf. Mk 6:30-44). Such is the case too with our almsgiving, whether small or large, when offered with joy and simplicity.

To experience Lent with love means caring for those who suffer or feel abandoned and fearful because of the COVID-19 pandemic. In these days of deep uncertainty about the future, let us keep in mind the Lord’s word to his Servant, “Fear not, for I have redeemed you” (Is 43:1). In our charity, may we speak words of reassurance and help others to realize that God loves them as sons and daughters.

“Only a gaze transformed by charity can enable the dignity of others to be recognized and, as a consequence, the poor to be acknowledged and valued in their dignity, respected in their identity and culture, and thus truly integrated into society” (Fratelli Tutti, 187).

Dear brothers and sisters, every moment of our lives is a time for believing, hoping and loving. The call to experience Lent as a journey of conversion, prayer and sharing of our goods, helps us – as communities and as individuals – to revive the faith that comes from the living Christ, the hope inspired by the breath of the Holy Spirit and the love flowing from the merciful heart of the Father.

May Mary, Mother of the Savior, ever faithful at the foot of the cross and in the heart of the Church, sustain us with her loving presence. May the blessing of the risen Lord accompany all of us on our journey towards the light of Easter.
