

CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

Quotes of the Week

“The day after tomorrow, God willing, I will go to Iraq for a three-day pilgrimage. I have long wanted to meet this people that has suffered so much, encounter that martyred church. . .

“I ask you to accompany this apostolic journey with prayer, so that it may develop in the best way possible and bear the expected fruits.”

- Pope Francis, at the end of his televised Wednesday audience. “Pope prays for upcoming trip to Iraq to meet ‘martyred church.’” Cruz. March 3, 2021.

“We need the world to know what ISIS has done to us, how we have suffered in these years. For some time, the media focused on Iraq and then, all of a sudden, they forgot us. . .

“ISIS has devastated our hometown, looted our properties, but they could not take away our hope.”

- Sr. Luma Khudher, one of the Dominican Sisters of St. Catherine of Siena, a community in the Nineveh plain that is still rebuilding after ISIS fighters invaded the area some six years ago. The order has just opened a new school for Christian and Muslim children called Al-Tabera. Sr. Luma added: “When Pope Francis comes, I would like to show him the school: it is how we turned his example into reality.”

“We Catholics have a sense of everyday sacredness that each moment, no matter how ordinary, is imbued with God’s presence. I still see that holiness in the faith. It’s just part of the air I breathe, and that will always be there.”

- Anne Barrett Doyle, co-director of Bishop Accountability, an archive documenting the sexual abuse problems of the Catholic Church. “The conscience of the Catholic Church.” Elle. February 26, 2021.

“The very survival of [Nigeria] is at stake. The nation is falling apart. Serious insecurity, clearly evident in widespread loss of lives and property, for long unaddressed, has left the sad and dangerous impression that those who have assumed the duty and authority to secure the nation are either unable – or worse still, unwilling – to take up the responsibilities of their office. Time is running out and the situation needs to improve.”

- Bishops Augustine Akubeze and Camillus Raymond Umoh, president and secretary of the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of Nigeria, in a statement about ongoing violence and insecurity throughout the country. “Nigeria on brink of collapse, Catholic bishops warn.” Premium Times. February 25, 2021.

“For years, there were too many churches and too few priests and faithful to tend them. They needed to dispose of many of these aging and sometimes crumbling churches to kickstart the real church, the one that is not made of concrete, brick and mortar, but of flesh, blood and faith.”

- Frédéric Barriault, a researcher at the Jesuit-run Center for Justice and Faith in Montreal, on the changes and challenges facing the declining Catholic Church in Canada. “Catholics in Quebec are leaving the church in droves. Can reinventing parish life save it?” America. February 25, 2021.

“For a long time, the fact that [Americans] had a very racist nation was under the table, it was invisible to most white people, although not to people of color, so what is happening recently is no longer invisible to us.”

- Sister Beth Murphy, communications director for the Dominican Sisters. “At a crossroads: Addressing racism in the Catholic Church.” The Daily Egyptian. February 28, 2021.

- Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, speaking about U.S. President Joe Biden, contradicting those U.S. bishops who have falsely claimed or implied that the President is not Catholic. “Biden is ‘Catholic and observant,’ says Benedict.” The Tablet. March 2, 2021.

“Citing a significant decrease in enrollment and a projected budget deficit of over a half million dollars, the leadership of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Belle Chasse [Louisiana] announced Tuesday that the school would close at the end of this school year. . . [The school] is the only Catholic school in Plaquemines Parish.”

- “The only Catholic school in Plaquemines Parish will be closing at the end of the school year.” WDSU NBC 6. March 2, 2021.

“Over the past couple of months, we have seen an uptick in permanent private school closures that are at least partially due to COVID-19 – 9 in the last 60 days, after just 3 in all of September through December – and we are likely to see many more soon, as schools take stock of enrollment numbers for next year and decide if they will be viable.”

- “COVID is killing the private schools for everyman.” CATO Institute. February 25, 2021.

REFLECTION

Many prefer a “create as you go” approach to life where laws and protocols primarily exist to secure and protect liberties rather than dictate and outline proper and right behavior. There are no real benchmarks for acceptable ethical and moral behavior, with a “you can’t tell me what to do” attitude prevailing. Parents are even limited in what they can request of their children, and dealing with threatening behaviors, especially from adults, are a challenge as well. Acceptable and expected conduct seems to amount to safeguarding each other’s space rather than increasing awareness of necessary relationships that require a more refined and higher response.

We have lost our axis to the world of “anything goes” and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on “relativism island” where only a possible suggestion to “love and do not harm” may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus’ display of anger in the temple.

The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life’s preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost.

CATHOLIC CHARITY FUND APPEAL

This year’s appeal is in full swing. Many of you have already responded on the secure online website, givecentral.org/2021cca. When using the website, please choose parish 37 (CTK Kingston) for your donation. You can also drop your donation off in the office or place in the collection box on the weekend, and we will forward it to Providence. Thank you for your generosity.

CANCER SUPPORT GROUP ZOOM MEETINGS:

Due to the pandemic, the Cancer Support Group has been meeting once a month via ZOOM. Have you been diagnosed with cancer, undergoing or recovering from treatment? Plan to attend one of our confidential ZOOM meetings and share your unique experiences and support with the group. For information or questions, please contact group facilitator and fellow parishioner/cancer survivor Bob Maher: bmaher71@verizon.net

CATHOLIC SCHOOL TUITION AID

Our parish policy is to allocate catholic school tuition assistance to parishioners using a needs-based formula. Aid is considered for students in grades K-12. This year we will again utilize the services of FACTS which is the same process used by the schools in the diocese and most other parishes to allocate their financial aid. We hope by utilizing FACTS we can more efficiently and effectively assist our parishioners in obtaining the appropriate level of aid. Families need to only fill out one FACTS application per family for all children and all schools. When completing the application select Christ the King Rectory Kingston as recipient of the information. The application can be found at www.online.factsmgt.com, and must have a COMPLETED status by March 31.

DONATION STATEMENTS

Statements were mailed from our budget company, Cathedral last week. If you make your donations online through OSV, you will need to log into your account and print out a statement from there. If you have any questions, please call Beth in the office Monday - Thursday, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

With our world in such constant turmoil and conflict, it makes such good sense to return to the simple directives given in the Ten Commandments. God's unassuming guidelines provide the perfect recipe for ordering our relationships with God, others, and even ourselves. But yet, we are so quick to glance beyond them and even remove them from public view because we foolishly believe we can create something better. Arrogance runs far deeper in the members of our society than we can ever imagine. Lent is a perfect time to call ourselves back to our foundations and the basic relationships that comprise our lives. It is also a time to remember that Jesus is the true sign of God's presence. Everything he says and does, including his suffering and death, is a sign of the God who sent him. The anger we witness when Jesus exhorts those in the temple to stop making his Father's house a marketplace can equally be seen in his anger and frustration over humanity's constant mission to turn God's creation into a secular world. We have a lot of work to do for sure.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In this weekend's Gospel reading, you may hear the story of Jesus' cleansing of the Temple, a familiar story. The prophets Jeremiah, Zechariah and Malachi prophesied that when the Kingdom of God was at hand, the Temple would be cleansed of all activities unworthy of an encounter with God. Christians are often referred to as "Temples of the Lord." As stewards of a "Holy Temple" God has entrusted to each one of us, what are we doing to be cleansed of activities unworthy of an encounter with the Lord? This week, reflect on one thing you can do to cleanse the Temple God has given you so that it becomes a more inviting home for Christ Jesus.

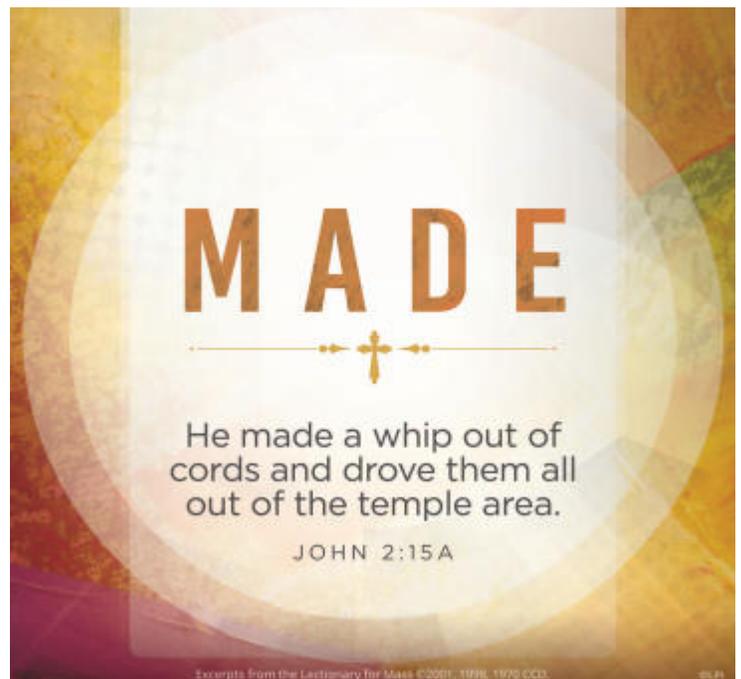

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

The signs of spring are starting to appear; green shoots poking out of the flower garden, and snow melting away. It gives us hope for the coming warm weather. But when the reality of being homebound is one we have to face, it is not as easy to be upbeat. That's a good reason to try something new to change your outlook. How about starting a relationship with a Friendly Visitor? A new friend to chat with and share stories. Someone is ready to visit with you, but we need to know who you are. Help us by calling Bonnie Feeney at 391-9460, she'd love to talk with you.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord Jesus,
We journey with you this Lenten season,
in a time of stress and uncertainty,
ever closer to Jerusalem,
ever closer to your death on the cross.
We hear your Gospel mandate:
"Deny yourself,
take up your cross
and follow me," but we are unsure of their meaning,
or anxious about their true intent.
Through the power of the Holy Spirit,
give us the strength
to deny the "self"
that keeps us from being good stewards of your teachings, and of those who need our love and compassion.
Give us a deeper awareness of the cross in our own lives
so that we may embrace it and join our sufferings with yours
in a world in need of your redemption.
And give us the confidence to follow you
no matter the cost;
knowing that if we die with you,
we will also live with you
and eternally rejoice in your resurrection.
We humbly ask this of you who live and reign with the Father
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen
