

CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

Religious Formation News

RELIGIOUS FORMATION

Prayer 101 lessons for Grade 6 will be emailed out every Friday during Lent. Lessons for other grades were emailed the first week of March.

Thank you to those families who are sharing photos of Religious Formation activities. Email photos of your child and they will be posted to the parish Facebook page. If you have not received an email – please check any emails that may be associated with your family. If your emails have changed during this time or if you want another email to be the primary email – please email the office.

First Communion

Sign up directions for dates were emailed to families on Monday – don't forget to follow directions and sign your child up!

Mark your Calendars:

Saturday, April 10: Reconciliation Preparation & First Communion Rehearsal 9-11 a.m.

Saturday, May 22: The Sacrament of Reconciliation 11:00 a.m.

CONFIRMATION NOTE

The remaining classes are:

March 28, 5:30-7 p.m. - Decubellis family presentation. Parents are encouraged to join their candidates for this presentation.

Sunday, April 11, 6-7 p.m. via ZOOM.

Once we have the date for confirmation I will set a final class and rehearsal.

March is Scouting Month!

Attention Parents:

If you have a Boy or Girl Scout who is interested in earning any of the Catholic Scouting Awards – please contact the Religious Formation office: glardaro@ckri.org

Attention Troop leaders for Girl Scouts and BSA:

The promises and pledges for both ask each individual to serve God and to help others. If your troop or child has been involved in either – please send a picture and description so that it can be posted to our Facebook page! glardaro@ckri.org

CONFIRMATION FOR ADULTS

Any adult who has received the sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist but has not received Confirmation is invited to “receive the gift of the Holy Spirit” during Mass on Pentecost Sunday. Several adults have already expressed their intention to be confirmed at this Mass. While the RCIA program remains in place for those who are unbaptized and have yet to receive the message, this Pentecost ceremony is for Catholic adults who have accepted the message of the Gospel years ago and have been practicing the Catholic faith as initiated disciples who have already been baptized and receive Holy Communion. If you would like to be confirmed during this Confirmation ceremony within Sunday Mass on Pentecost, May 23, please contact Jennifer Marran (jmarran@ctkri.org) for more information.

CATHOLIC CHARITY FUND APPEAL

This year’s appeal is in full swing. Many of you have already responded on the secure online website, givecentral.org/2021cca. When using the website, please choose parish 37 (CTK Kingston) for your donation. You can also drop your donation off in the office or place in the collection box on the weekend, and we will forward it to Providence. Thank you for your generosity.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL TUITION AID

Our parish policy is to allocate catholic school tuition assistance to parishioners using a needs-based formula. Aid is considered for students in grades K-12. This year we will again utilize the services of FACTS which is the same process used by the schools in the diocese and most other parishes to allocate their financial aid. We hope by utilizing FACTS we can more efficiently and effectively assist our parishioners in obtaining the appropriate level of aid. Families need to only fill out one FACTS application per family for all children and all schools. When completing the application select Christ the King Rectory Kingston as recipient of the information. The application can be found at www.online.factsmgt.com, and must have a COMPLETED status by March 31.

March Mitten Madness

“Mitten” bags are ready for pick up after all the masses, or in the office during the week. Directions and all materials are included in each bag to make 4 pairs of fleece mittens. All supplies were obtained from Resources for Rhode Island Education. RRIE collects leftover unused materials from local business to reduce waste and supply miscellaneous materials to those in education.

This is a great service project to help those in need!

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

This weekend’s Gospel reading gives us the encounter between Jesus and Nicodemus, a Pharisee and leader of the Jews who comes to Jesus by night, recognizing Jesus as a teacher from God, but coming in secret for fear of being put out of the synagogue. Jesus rebukes him for his lack of understanding. Good stewards realize that for the sake of this world, God gives his most cherished beloved son. And so they are willing to confess Jesus as their Lord and savior in a public way. They do not keep their faith to themselves, in darkness. The Gospel reading challenges us to profess our faith in word and deed publicly, not to hide it away. Are we willing to accept the Gospel’s challenge? Are we willing to get out of our personal “comfort zone” and confess our faith in Christ Jesus in an open, tangible way?

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

“When things get tough, the tough get going” is often said. But that is not always the case. When difficult things happen and leave us isolated, it is tough and even tougher to get going. The encouragement of a friend can make all the difference. That is one of the ways a Friendly Visitor can help get you through tough times. Someone you can talk to and express your frustration. We have folks who would be glad to share some time with you and talk things over. Call Bonnie Feeney at 391-9460, she'll help you get started.

Quotes of the Week: The Pope's Visit to Iraq

“Mr. President, distinguished authorities, dear friends! I come as a penitent, asking forgiveness of heaven and my brothers and sisters for so much destruction and cruelty. I come as a pilgrim of peace in the name of Christ, the Prince of Peace.

“How much we have prayed in these years for peace in Iraq! Saint John Paul II spared no initiatives and above all offered his prayers and sufferings for this intention. And God listens, he always listens! It is up to us to listen to him and to walk in his ways. May the clash of arms be silenced! May their spread be curbed, here and everywhere! May partisan interests cease, those outside interests uninterested in the local population. May the voice of builders and peacemakers find a hearing! The voice of the humble, the poor, the ordinary men and women who want to live, work and pray in peace. May there be an end to acts of violence and extremism, factions and intolerance! May room be made for all those citizens who seek to cooperate in building up this country through dialogue and through frank, sincere and constructive discussion. Citizens committed to reconciliation and prepared, for the common good, to set aside their own interests.

“Iraq has sought in these years to lay the foundations for a democratic society. For this, it is essential to ensure the participation of all political, social and religious groups and to guarantee the fundamental rights of all citizens. May no one be considered a second-class citizen. I encourage the strides made so far on this journey and I trust that they will strengthen tranquility and concord.”
- Pope Francis, from his address to authorities, civil society, and the diplomatic corps at the Presidential Palace in Baghdad, Friday, March 5, 2021.

“The Patriarch Abraham, who today brings us together in unity, was a prophet of the Most High. An ancient prophecy says that the peoples “shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks” (Is 2:4). This prophecy has not been fulfilled; on the contrary, swords and spears have turned into missiles and bombs. From where, then, can the journey of peace begin? From the decision not to have enemies. Anyone with the courage to look at the stars, anyone who believes in God, has no enemies to fight. He or she has only one enemy to face, an enemy that stands at the door of the heart and knocks to enter. That enemy is hatred. While some try to have enemies more than to be friends, while many seek their own profit at the expense of others, those who look at the stars of the promise, those who follow the ways of God, cannot be against someone, but for everyone. They cannot justify any form of imposition, oppression and abuse of power; they cannot adopt an attitude of belligerence.

“Dear friends, is all this possible? Father Abraham, who was able to hope against all hope (cf. Rom 4:18), encourages us. Throughout history, we have frequently pursued goals that are overly worldly and journeyed on our own, but with the help of God, we can change for the better. It is up to us, today's humanity, especially those of us, believers of all religions, to turn instruments of hatred into instruments of peace. It is up to us to appeal firmly to the leaders of nations to make the increasing proliferation of arms give way to the distribution of food for all. It is up to us to silence mutual accusations in order to make heard the cry of the oppressed and discarded in our world: all too many people lack food, medicine, education, rights and dignity!”

- Pope Francis, during his meeting with religious leaders at the Plain of Ur, Saturday, March 6, 2021.

“[Saint] Paul says that “love is patient.” We were not expecting this adjective. Love seems synonymous with goodness, generosity and good works, yet Paul says that charity is, above all, patient.

“The Bible speaks first and foremost of God's patience. Throughout history, men and women proved constantly unfaithful to the covenant with God, falling into the same old sins. Yet instead of growing weary and walking away, the Lord always remained faithful, forgave and began anew. This patience to begin anew each time is the first quality of love, because love is not irritable, but always starts over again. Love does not grow weary and despondent, but always presses ahead. It does not get discouraged, but stays creative. Faced with evil, it does not give up or surrender. Those who love do not close in on themselves when things go wrong, but respond to evil with good, mindful of the triumphant wisdom of the cross. God's witnesses are like that: not passive or fatalistic, at the mercy of happenings, feelings or immediate events. Instead, they are constantly hopeful, because grounded in the love that “bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.”

- Pope Francis, during his homily at Saint Joseph's Chaldean Cathedral in Baghdad, Saturday, March 6, 2021.

Quotes of the Week: The Pope's Visit to Iraq

“If God is the God of life – for so he is – then it is wrong for us to kill our brothers and sisters in his Name. If God is the God of peace – for so he is – then it is wrong for us to wage war in his Name. If God is the God of love – for so he is – then it is wrong for us to hate our brothers and sisters.”

“Lord our God, in this city, we see two signs of the perennial human desire for closeness to you: the Al-Nouri Mosque, with its Al-Hadba minaret, and the Church of Our Lady of the Hour, whose clock for more than a century has reminded passersby that life is short and that time is precious. Teach us to realize that you have entrusted to us your plan of love, peace and reconciliation, and charged us to carry it out in our time, in the brief span of our earthly lives. Make us recognize that only in this way, by putting it into practice immediately, can this city and this country be rebuilt, and hearts torn by grief be healed. Help us not to pass our time in promoting our selfish concerns, whether as individuals or as groups, but in serving your loving plan. And whenever we go astray, grant that we may heed the voice of true men and women of God and repent in due time, lest we be once more overwhelmed by destruction and death.

“To you we entrust all those whose span of earthly life was cut short by the violent hand of their brothers and sisters; we also pray to you for those who caused such harm to their brothers and sisters. May they repent, touched by the power of your mercy. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.”

- Pope Francis, praying for the victims of war at Hosh al-Bieaa (Church square) in Mosul, Sunday, March 7, 2021.

“With great sadness, we look around and see other signs, signs of the destructive power of violence, hatred and war. How much has been torn down! How much needs to be rebuilt! Our gathering here today shows that terrorism and death never have the last word. The last word belongs to God and to his Son, the conqueror of sin and death.

“Even amid the ravages of terrorism and war, we can see, with the eyes of faith, the triumph of life over death. You have before you the example of your fathers and mothers in faith, who worshipped and praised God in this place. They persevered with unwavering hope along their earthly journey, trusting in God who never disappoints and who constantly sustains us by his grace.

The great spiritual legacy they left behind continues to live in you. Embrace this legacy! It is your strength! Now is the time to rebuild and to start afresh, relying on the grace of God, who guides the destinies of all individuals and peoples. You are not alone! The entire Church is close to you, with prayers and concrete charity.”

- Pope Francis, during his visit to the people of Qaraqosh at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Qaraqosh, Sunday, March 7, 2021.

“The Church in Iraq, by God's grace, is already doing much to proclaim this wonderful wisdom of the cross by spreading Christ's mercy and forgiveness, particularly towards those in greatest need. Even amid great poverty and difficulty, many of you have generously offered concrete help and solidarity to the poor and suffering. That is one of the reasons that led me to come as a pilgrim in your midst, to thank you and to confirm you in your faith and witness. Today, I can see at first hand that the Church in Iraq is alive, that Christ is alive and at work in this, his holy and faithful people.”

- Pope Francis, during his homily at the Franso Hariri Stadium in Erbil, Sunday, March 7, 2021.

“Today is Women's Day, congratulations to women! In the meeting with the wife of the President of Iraq they were talking about why there is no men's day. I said: because we men are always celebrating! The President's wife talked to me about women, she said beautiful things today, about the strength that women have in carrying forward life, history, family, so many things.”

- Pope Francis, speaking to reporters on the return flight to Rome, March 8, 2021.

“Before leaving for the trip the other day, on Friday, 12 Iraqi refugees came to say goodbye to me. One had a prosthetic leg because he had escaped under a truck and had an accident... so many escaped. Migration is a double right. The right to not emigrate and the right to emigrate. But these people do not have either of the two. Because they cannot not emigrate, they do not know how to do it. And they cannot emigrate because the world squashes the consciousness that migration is a human right.”

- Pope Francis, speaking to reporters on the return flight to Rome, March 8, 2021.
