

April 25, 2021 Fourth Sunday of Easter

CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

A scenic landscape photograph of rolling green hills under a soft, hazy sky. In the foreground, there are rows of a vineyard. A dirt road winds through the hills, leading to a small stone building with a red roof, possibly a church or farmstead, surrounded by tall cypress trees. The overall mood is peaceful and pastoral.

MASS SCHEDULE & INTENTIONS

Please note: although you may have heard that capacity limits for churches have increased in Rhode Island, we are still required to seat people from different households at least six feet apart. This means that we will not be able to increase our capacity until the six-foot rule is changed. For this reason, reservations are still required. It's very easy and quick;; simply visit www.cktkri.org to make a reservation, or call the parish office. If you are unable to keep a reservation, please cancel it so that other people will have the opportunity to attend. Thank you for your understanding.

First Communion

Saturday, May 22: 11 a.m.:
The Sacrament of Reconciliation

VBS 2021: August 9 - 13

ROCKY RAILWAY

Jesus' Power Pulls us Through
The express train is coming, watch for more information.....

CONFIRMATION FOR ADULTS

Any adult who has received the sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist but has not received Confirmation is invited to "receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" during Mass on Pentecost Sunday. Several adults have already expressed their intention to be confirmed at this Mass. While the RCIA program remains in place for those who are unbaptized and have yet to receive the message, this Pentecost ceremony is for Catholic adults who have accepted the message of the Gospel years ago and have been practicing the Catholic faith as initiated disciples who have already been baptized and receive Holy Communion. If you would like to be confirmed during this Confirmation ceremony within Sunday Mass on Pentecost, May 23, please contact Jennifer Marran (jmarran@ctkri.org) for more information.

CATHOLIC CHARITY FUND APPEAL

As of this week CTK parishioners have donated $101,924 to this year's appeal. We are halfway to our goal. If you have not contributed yet, there will be envelopes available as you come to mass this weekend. They can be returned to the rectory or placed in one of the collection boxes by the door. You can also donate on the secure online website, givecentral.org/2021cca. When using the website, please choose parish 37 (CTK Kingston) for your donation.

Thank you for considering the needy in our diocese.

Quotes of the Week

“I am called to share the message that the space of God’s grace is here for all of us, especially the most disenfranchised. As God’s highest creation, we are all called to find a seat in the kingdom of heaven, whether the pope sees fit to bless us or not. The church will never have jurisdiction over the seat in the kingdom of heaven found within. That’s reserved only for you and your consciousness.

“It would be easier to cancel the church in my mind. I tried, it didn’t work. A church still lives within me. A church lives inside you too, whether you are Catholic or not. I’m also the bridge that extends from the front doors of the church to hold space between a dogmatically religious past and a more religiously spiritual future, where God, Jesus, Mary, and the Holy Spirit are full of only mercy, compassion, and grace.”

- Brian Rodda, “The Pope’s antigay decree has not dimmed my love for church.” The Advocate. April 16, 2021.

“While a great deal of energy is spent trying to figure out where this divided church is headed, the real power brokers and the deals that harden the image of U.S. Catholicism as an ultraconservative, libertarian behemoth aren’t a product of the bishops’ conference or any of its agencies. Collectively, the U.S. episcopacy, by virtue of scandal and other forces, has largely been drained of authority and credibility.

“The real deals are done out of sight, among hedge fund executives, credit card barons, luxury resort developers, those who’ve made fortunes protecting and strategizing to enhance the fortunes of some of the wealthiest humans inhabiting the wealthiest country in the history of the planet.”

- “Wealthy conservative Catholics are the new US magisterium.” National Catholic Reporter. April 13, 2021.

“Pope Francis asked for and accepted the resignation of Bishop Michael Hoeppner, 71, from the Diocese of Crookston in Minnesota. The official statement published by the diocese explains that Bishop Hoeppner was asked to resign following an investigation arising in 2017 from ‘reports that he had at times failed to observe applicable norms when presented with allegations of sexual abuse involving clergy of the Diocese of Crookston.’

“He was charged with coercion for pressuring a seminarian preparing to be a deacon to withdraw a past accusation of sexual abuse by a priest.”

- “Pope Francis asks for resignation of bishop accused of failing to investigate sexual abuse.” Rome Reports. April 13, 2021.

“The verdict in the trial of Derek Chauvin, the former Minneapolis police officer now convicted on all counts as a result of his role in the death of George Floyd last spring, is a sobering moment for our community. The decision by a jury of peers punctuates the grief that has gripped the Twin Cities in these last months and underscores the soul-searching that has taken place in homes, parishes, and workplaces across the country as we together confront the chasm that exists between the brokenness of our world and the harmony and fraternity that our Creator intends for all his children.

“We hold up once again the image of the Crucified Christ, whose resurrection gives witness to the healing power of forgiveness, compassion, reconciliation, and peace. It is our shared brotherhood with Jesus that calls us to a deeper respect for all human life. We ask him to bring healing into our communities, comfort to the family of George Floyd and all who mourn, and satisfaction to those who thirst for justice. May the many reminders of the Lord’s loving closeness even in challenging times inspire us to treat each other with unfailing respect, to work non-violently for the common good and to be instruments of reconciliation.”

- Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda (Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis), in a statement regarding the guilty verdicts in the Derek Chauvin trial. April 20, 2021.

“The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles will close six of its elementary schools in June as it struggles to keep many of its schools afloat...

The students at the schools are mostly children of working-class Latino families. Parents have lost jobs and could no longer afford tuition that ranges from about $3,900 to $6,000 annually, leading to enrollment drops.”

- “Six Catholic elementary schools are closing in the Los Angeles archdiocese.” American School & University. April 5, 2021.

“St. Joseph High School in west suburban Westchester will close at the end of the current school year after more than six decades of educating the Catholic faithful, the latest Chicago-area school to shut its doors amid a period of declining religiosity.”

- “St. Joseph High School in Westchester, former basketball powerhouse featured in ‘Hoop Dreams,’ announces closure.” Chicago Tribune. April 13, 2021.

EASTER CHOIR VIDEO

Although our choir was not able to sing together in church for Easter this year, they have been hard at work creating a virtual choir version of the song Out of Darkness as a gift to our parish for this Easter season. Thank you to our choir and cantors for sharing their talents. You can now view the video on our YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/ChristtheKingVideos>

BAPTISMAL BIBS

We are looking for a few folks who would like to sew the Baptismal cloths used for baby Christenings. The pattern is provided. Please call Beth in the office if you would like to help. 783-7459.

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

Sunny days and more and more people vaccinated will mean that a Friendly Visitor's visit can be in person, soon. It will be nice to sit outside and chat, face to face, not just on the phone. If you are feeling lonely, a Friendly Visitor can be the answer. Bonnie Feeney will be happy to talk to you and get you started. Give her a call at 391-9460. Do it now while it is on your mind.

CAMPUS MINISTER NEEDED

Bishop Hendricken High School is searching for a new Campus Minister. It will be a full time, paid position. If you are interested, please contact Hendricken Chaplain Fr. Brian Morris at bmorris@hendricken.com.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost. ©LPi

REFLECTION

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures. ©LPi

A Window into Your Investment

Thanks to you ...

Renovations are underway at our future home at 22 Kersey Road in Peace Dale! Your investment has made this project possible. We are so excited that this local landmark will once again serve this great community.

Deslandes Construction has been working on the building for approximately five weeks, installing new energy-efficient windows and framing offices for our member services and administrative staff. Our goals are to create a safe, accessible, and functional space while retaining as many of the original features as possible. We have instructed the crew to preserve the chalkboards, woodwork, doors, staircases, and wood floors in every possible instance.

We are extremely excited to announce ...

We just reached our goal of $1.7 million for the campaign! We could not have met this goal without the amazing support of a small but mighty group of donors, like you, who stepped up to provide our community with a new home for hope.

Last month, our parish donated $10,000 to the Jonnycake Center's capital campaign, which will allow them to renovate the former Peace Dale Grammar School into a place where our neighbors can get healthy food and support services under one roof in a safe, welcoming environment. Christ the King Church is proud to sponsor the good work and people of the Jonnycake Center. Thank you to all parishioners for your loyal support and generous contributions to the parish, which allows us to feed the hungry and reach out with help for so many people in need throughout our community.
