Quotes of the Week

“The church is called to be the great sacrament of salvation and the great sacrament of unity. And if ever there were a time we needed to live up to that deeply theological description of what the church is, it’s right now in our polarized culture. And so we have to be careful of not allowing ourselves to go down no exit, partisan alleys where there is no life at the end of it, no evangelical life, no spiritual fruit.”

- Baltimore Archbishop William Lori. “Archbishop Lori speaks about Pope Francis meeting Biden, abortion and Communion.” America. October 25, 2021.

“[Pope Francis and President Biden] have in common that it has become visibly harder for them to keep together their people. There is a culture of deep suspicion against the leader. It’s no longer ‘I don’t agree with him but he’s my pope anyway’ or ‘I don’t agree with him but he’s my president anyway.’ It’s no longer like that for many people. So they understand each other on that, I think.”

- Massimo Faggioli, Villanova University theology professor and author of Joe Biden and Catholicism in the United States. “Biden’s meeting with Pope Francis carries resonance as disputes divide U.S. Catholics.” Washington Post. October 24, 2021.

“The American Catholic Church has historically come down on the side of public health, even when doing so has violated Catholic teachings. During the 1918 flu pandemic, American church leaders even temporarily sacrificed a central observance of Catholicism — the Mass — to slow the spread of the disease. Their decision illustrated how, for the church, preserving lives, even through imperfect means, has taken precedence over other deeply held beliefs.”

- Susan Breitzer, “The Catholic Church’s embrace of coronavirus vaccines is consistent with past practice.” Washington Post. October 21, 2021.

“While conservative U.S. bishops want to deny Communion to the House speaker, President Joe Biden and other pro-choice Catholic elected officials, Pope Francis and most Vatican leaders seek common ground, refuse to play politics with a sacred sacrament and don’t reduce centuries of Catholic social justice teachings to a single issue.”

- John Gehring, Catholic program director at Faith in Public Life and author of The Francis Effect: A Radical Pope’s Challenge to the American Catholic Church. “It’s time to end the Catholic Church’s abortion culture wars.” Religion News Service. October 20, 2021.

“I do not understand how a Catholic can completely reduce their sense of Catholic identity to being opposed to abortion, any more than I can understand how a Catholic can dismiss the church’s profound teaching about the inviolability of human life and embrace abortion rights as some kind of progressive triumph.”

- Michael Sean Winters, “When Biden meets with Francis, some heads will explode.” National Catholic Reporter. October 27, 2021.

“The number of Catholics in the world grew by more than 15 million from 2018 to 2019, according to a census by the Vatican news agency Fides published on Thursday (Oct. 21). ‘The increase applies to all continents, except Europe,’ which saw the number of Catholic faithful decrease by almost 300,000, the survey found.”

“Vatican Census: The Catholic Church is growing everywhere — except Europe.” America. October 21, 2021.

“Today, there are many who still seek religious security rather than the living and true God, focusing on rituals and precepts instead of embracing God’s love with their whole being. And this is the temptation of the new fundamentalists, isn’t it? Of those who seem to be afraid to make progress, and who regress because they feel more secure: they seek the security of God and not the God of our security...”

“Sometimes, those who approach the Church get the impression that they are dealing with a dense mass of rules and regulations: but no, this is not the Church!

“The beauty of faith in Jesus Christ cannot be grasped on the basis of so many commandments or of a moral vision developed in many layers which can make us forget the original fruitfulness of love nourished by prayer from which peace and joyful witness flow. In the same way, the life of the Spirit, expressed in the Sacraments, cannot be suffocated by a bureaucracy that prevents access to the grace of the Spirit, the initiator of conversion of heart. And how many times we ourselves, priests or bishops, follow so much bureaucracy to give a sacrament, to welcome people, so that people say: ‘No, I do not like this,’ and they do not go, and many times they do not see in us the power of the Spirit who regenerates, who makes everyone new. We therefore have the huge responsibility of proclaiming Christ crucified and risen, enlivened by the breath of the Spirit of love. For it is this Love alone that possesses the power to attract and change the human heart.”

- Pope Francis, during his general audience at the Vatican on Wednesday. Vatican Dicastery for Communication. October 27, 2021.

Celebrating the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls

Monday, November 1, is the feast of All Saints. This year, because it falls on the Monday, it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation. For those who wish, there will be a Mass on Monday, November 1, at 9 a.m. in the church.

Tuesday, November 2, we celebrate the Feast of All Souls. Our remembrance of our deceased relatives and friends on the feast of All Souls comes from a place of conviction and Christian belief that they have joined the company of the holy ones in the presence of God. More so, we believe that their difference-making presence in our lives and the lives of others, through their virtuous Christian life, was based on faith in Christ through their baptism. Let us turn our memorial of the faithful departed into an occasion to renew our baptismal commitment to God through Christ and be present to one another in love and compassion. (adapted from Living Liturgy, Liturgical Press)

This year, our parish remembers our deceased loved ones at all the liturgies the weekend of October 30/31. The names of those whose funerals were celebrated here at Christ The King during the past year will be inscribed on our Memorial Banner and included in the Book of the Dead, with a candle lit in their memory. The Book of the Dead will be available in the church next weekend for others to inscribe the names of their departed loved ones.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED FOR SKN&R

We are looking for a couple of people to assist our current ministers by bringing Communion to the residents at South Kingstown Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, one or two Sundays a month. Vaccination and masking required. Training provided. If available, please contact Jen Marran at jmarran@ctkri.org; 783-7459. Thank You.

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

As the days grow shorter and the chill in the air encourages us to spend more time indoors, we might be feeling more isolated and lonely. A friendly visit could provide the opportunity to engage in needed companionship and conversation. Our Christ the King Friendly Visitors are waiting to meet you. Call Bonnie Feeny at 401-391-9460 to arrange a visit.

1 JOHN 1:5

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me.”

In the next few months, approximately 300 people who were evacuated from Afghanistan in August will be making a new home for themselves here in Rhode Island. These are folks who left their homes and homeland to escape the Taliban, and they're about to enter a whole new world. We can imagine how excited and hopeful they are about their future and a new life here in America. Naturally, they are also anxious as the unknown awaits them.

Aware of the call of our Good Teacher, who will say to those who are welcomed to Father's house on the day of judgment: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me,” our parish will be providing financial and material support to the refugees.

First, we have offered to help families with rent and utilities. As the Diocese works with government officials and the numbers and needs become clearer, the parish finance council will add a line item to our budget that will reflect our generous support to our new neighbors from across the world. Once these funds are set aside, the monthly commitment amount will be published in the bulletin.

This funding will come directly from what you already give and commit to the weekly collection.

In addition to our work with the Diocese of Providence to provide financial support, we will also be partnering with Dorcas International of Rhode Island, which has begun a campaign to collect material goods that the evacuees will surely need as they start from scratch, having left everything behind in Afghanistan except the clothes on their backs! On the weekends of November 6/7 and 13/14, the Social Action Committee will sponsor a drive to collect necessities. Please consider donating any of the following new items. Items (in new condition) can be dropped off in the church hall before or after weekend Masses.

Hygiene items: shampoo, toothbrushes, toothpaste, bars of soap, deodorant, floss, lotion, combs, hairbrushes, shaving cream, razors, feminine pads

Baby supplies: bottles, baby food, diapers, crib sheets, baby wipes, diaper rash cream, sets of clothes

Miscellaneous: basic tool kits, kettles, first aid kits, English dictionaries, umbrellas, electrical cords, outlet strips

Let's fill the church hall with these items, and fill our Afghan brothers and sisters with hope and love!

“Project Warm Welcome” is a campaign to collect and distribute winter clothing for the recently displaced Afghanistan refugees. Ava Grosso, a senior at The Prout School, will collect the donations from Christ the King that will be delivered to the base in November. Fort McCoy has taken in 13,000 Afghan evacuees with the capacity to house up to 50,000 total. This collection is also November 6/7 and 13/14.

The following gently used items have been requested, new items would also be greatly appreciated!

Acceptable for donation:

Only new or gently used clean items

Children's winter clothing (sizes 2T to 5T)

Children's coats and snow pants (all sizes)

Winter coats for adults (XS-M)

Adult winter clothing (XS-M)

Winter boots or shoes (children-adult)
