

CHRIST
THE KING

CHRIST THE KING fosters a transformative parish culture that INSPIRES AND CHALLENGES Catholics of all ages to lead a life of prayer, service, and stewardship in imitation of Christ. In so doing, this faith-filled parish family aims to become an example of how a 21st Century Christian community can inspire others to follow Jesus.

LITURGY CORNER

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

The Feast of Christ the King marks the close of the liturgical year, and for us as parishioners, celebrates our patronal feast day.

On this day, we celebrate the universal kingship of Jesus Christ. He is the fulfillment of the vision of the Son of Man... Jesus' glory reigns in our hearts. He directs us, guides us, and helps us to discern our vocation as his disciples. We can come away with him to rest, to rejuvenate ourselves for our mission or to understand more clearly how it is he is calling us to reflect his glory. God's glory is in us and all around us. Take time to breathe in the glory that surrounds you! (LTP 2021 Sourcebook)

This year, as we celebrate this great feast, we will also highlight our opportunities to serve God's people by having many of our parish stewardship opportunities represented at receptions following all Masses next weekend (November 20, 21). Please join us in the parish hall!

BETHLEHEM CHRISTIAN FAMILIES: NOVEMBER 27/28

Suhair Awwad, representing the Bethlehem Christian Families; a nonprofit organization through Land of Peace will be selling Crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries, all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has dropped significantly, Christian families in the Holy Land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help many organizations and Churches in the Middle East. Sale of these goods will help them thrive and give you the opportunity to have "something" authentic from the Holy Land. For more information please see Website: www.landofpeace.org and www.bcfmission.com)

Quotes of the Week

“Supply chain disruptions, lower inventory and labor shortages have all contributed to increased costs for charities on which tens of millions of people in the U.S. rely on for nutrition. Donated food is more expensive to move because transportation costs are up, and bottlenecks at factories and ports make it difficult to get goods of all kinds.”

- “US food banks struggle to feed hungry amid surging prices.” Associated Press. November 10, 2021.

“As we find ourselves immersed in a health, economic and social crisis, aggravated by other problems such as environmental and food problems, the pope’s reminder in Fratelli Tutti that ‘no one can be saved alone’ has resounded loud and clear.”

- Cardinal Archbishop Carlos Osoro of Madrid, during Mass in the Spanish capital on Tuesday. “Spanish cardinal warns against withdrawing God from ‘history of humanity.’” Crux. November 10, 2021.

“Well, it’s been a long time since I took theology classes, but I think the standard for receiving Communion is a well-formed conscience, and where you come down as a result of that, and that is personal to the individual standing at the rail.

So I would say to categorize people based on anything else is to perhaps go too far beyond what Catholics have considered to be the appropriate standard. I can certainly raise questions about other people and the conduct in their lives and say, ‘Well, if we’re going to start down this road of denying Communion, where do we stop?’”

- Catholic Senator Dick Durbin of Illinois. “Senator Dick Durbin on being denied Communion over abortion stance: ‘I am careful when I go to a church.’” America. November 9, 2021.

“As a theologian and a Franciscan priest, I am keenly aware of the limitations that we all face in our professional and pastoral ministries. Bishops are no different than any other cleric, religious or layperson. Episcopal ordination does not confer any special knowledge (which is the literal meaning of ‘Gnosticism’), nor does it provide anyone with special intellectual powers.”

- Fr. Daniel P. Horan, director of the Center for Spirituality and professor of philosophy, religious studies and theology at Saint Mary’s College in Notre Dame, Indiana. “Archbishop Gomez’s comments reveal anti-intellectualism among church leaders.” National Catholic Reporter. November 10, 2021.

“The ethics regarding donation of one’s body to science relate closely to the Church’s teaching on organ donation. The Catechism teaches, ‘Organ donation after death is a noble and meritorious act and is to be encouraged as an expression of generous solidarity’ (§ 2296). The Church recognizes therapeutic uses of the body, including organ donations. Bodies are useful for scientific inquiry and training healthcare providers. Recognizing that donating one’s body to science can assist others, whether directly or indirectly, recent pontiffs praised anatomical gifts as acts of love and even a form of heroism. The Church cautions, however, that death must not be unnaturally hastened or prolonged for the purpose of donation.”

- Father David Endres, associate professor of Church history and historical theology at Mount St. Mary’s Seminary. “A question of faith: Donating your body to science?” Catholic Telegraph. November 9, 2021.

“We do a disservice to our membership if we call for an apolitical Church, because that would be a Church that is aloof to the concerns of the human family and just the opposite of how the Church is described in Gaudium et spes. At the same time, I also believe that the Church should be nonpartisan. Catholic theology and even Catholic social teaching does not align neatly with any political party. ...

- Bishop John Stowe, of the Diocese of Lexington, KY, in an interview with La Croix International, November 10, 2021.

“Time is running out. This occasion must not be wasted, lest we have to face God’s judgement for our failure to be faithful stewards of the world he has entrusted to our care.”

- Pope Francis, in a special message to the Catholics of Scotland, speaking about the world’s ecological crisis. “Pope warns of ‘God’s judgement’ if COP26 fails.” The Tablet. November 10, 2021.

“The supreme rule regarding fraternal correction is love: to want the good of our brothers and sisters. It is a matter of tolerating the problems of others, the defects of others in the silence of prayer, so as to find the right way to help them to correct themselves. And this is not easy. The easiest path is to gossip. Talking behind someone else’s back as if I am perfect. And this should not be done.

“Gentleness. Patience. Prayer. Proximity.”

- Pope Francis, during his general audience at the Vatican on November 3, 2021.

OPERATION CHILLOUT

Winter Backpack Veterans Homeless Outreach collection will take place once again for us here at Christ the King Parish. The Veterans and Social Action Committees passed out 240 backpacks with a list of materials to fill them: (knit hat, thermal socks, non-leather gloves, thermal underwear, hooded sweatshirt or heavy jacket shirt). We would like to have the filled backpacks returned by December 4/5 so that we can make the distributions before the real cold weather arrives.

If you would rather, you can make a donation to help fill the backpacks with the above materials by check made out to Operation Chillout RI. Send check to Dave Vissoe , Coordinator OCO-RI , PO Box 1277, Charlestown, RI 02813 or you can make a donation to operationchillout.org/ (make a note in a memo that it is for RI).

RECEPTIONS COMMITTEE

It has been a long time since we have enjoyed feast day and special occasions receptions here at CTK. We are starting up again and are looking for folks who are willing to help us setup, serve or cleanup at the receptions. Our first one is next weekend for Feast of Christ the King, with gatherings after each Mass. If you would like to help, please call Beth in the office, 783-7459.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Every human being asks and answers a very important existential question. What happens to us when we die? The answer we provide will determine how we chart the course of our existence. It will also determine whether the Second Coming of Christ will be of any concern to us. For many, life is simply a random occurrence with no significant intention or meaning about it. For these people, their eventual death, and the end of the earth as they know it, have little importance beyond their personal consequences. But, for people of faith our natural death and the Second Coming of Christ have huge implications. It is to these things that our faith speaks volumes and can bring a keen understanding and direction that the secular world simply cannot provide. This is where the call to vigilance and the primordial virtues of faith, hope, and love become useful and meaningful. We are works in progress who can either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful, surprising creativity of his will.

CANCER SUPPORT MEETING

Do you know a parishioner or have a friend recently diagnosed with cancer, undergoing treatment or in recovery? Encourage them to come to our next Cancer Support Group meeting on Wednesday, November 17, from 4:00-5:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall for an opportunity to discuss their unique situations with other survivors having similar experiences.

The meetings are confidential, and information shared will be held in strict confidence by participants. For information or questions, please contact group facilitator and fellow parishioner/cancer survivor Bob Maher: bmaher71@verizon.net

FRIENDLY VISITOR MESSAGE

As the days grow shorter and the chill in the air encourages us to spend more time indoors, we might be feeling more isolated and lonely. A friendly visit could provide the opportunity to engage in needed companionship and conversation. Our Christ the King Friendly Visitors are waiting to meet you. Call Bonnie Feeny at 401-391-9460 to arrange a visit.

THE PROUT SCHOOL

The High School Placement Test (HSPT) will be administered for incoming 9th grade students at The Prout School on Saturday, December 4 or 11.

Discover the Prout advantage! The Prout School is one of only two high schools in Rhode Island to offer the prestigious International Baccalaureate (IB) Program. We offer rigorous academics, a strong Catholic community, amazing arts, theatre, music and dance programs, competitive athletic teams, and numerous clubs and extracurricular activities.

For more information, please call Admissions Director Sharon DeLuca at 789-9262, Ext 514 or go to www.theproutschool.org

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me.”

In the next few months, approximately 300 people who were evacuated from Afghanistan in August will be making a new home for themselves here in Rhode Island. These are folks who left their homes and homeland to escape the Taliban, and they're about to enter a whole new world. We can imagine how excited and hopeful they are about their future and a new life here in America. Naturally, they are also anxious as the unknown awaits them.

Aware of the call of our Good Teacher, who will say to those who are welcomed to Father's house on the day of judgment: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me,” our parish will be providing financial and material support to the refugees.

First, we have offered to help families with rent and utilities. As the Diocese works with government officials and the numbers and needs become clearer, the parish finance council will add a line item to our budget that will reflect our generous support to our new neighbors from across the world. Once these funds are set aside, the monthly commitment amount will be published in the bulletin.

This funding will come directly from what you already give and commit to the weekly collection.

In addition to our work with the Diocese of Providence to provide financial support, we will also be partnering with Dorcas International of Rhode Island, which has begun a campaign to collect material goods that the evacuees will surely need as they start from scratch, having left everything behind in Afghanistan except the clothes on their backs! On the weekends of November 6/7 and 13/14, the Social Action Committee will sponsor a drive to collect necessities. Please consider donating any of the following new items. Items (in new condition) can be dropped off in the church hall before or after weekend Masses.

Hygiene items: shampoo, toothbrushes, toothpaste, bars of soap, deodorant, floss, lotion, combs, hairbrushes, shaving cream, razors, feminine pads

Baby supplies: bottles, baby food, diapers, crib sheets, baby wipes, diaper rash cream, sets of clothes

Miscellaneous: basic tool kits, kettles, first aid kits, English dictionaries, umbrellas, electrical cords, outlet strips

Let's fill the church hall with these items, and fill our Afghan brothers and sisters with hope and love!

“Project Warm Welcome” is a campaign to collect and distribute winter clothing for the recently displaced Afghanistan refugees. Ava Grosso, a senior at The Prout School, will collect the donations from Christ the King that will be delivered to the base in November. Fort McCoy has taken in 13,000 Afghan evacuees with the capacity to house up to 50,000 total. This collection is also November 6/7 and 13/14.

The following gently used items have been requested, new items would also be greatly appreciated!

Acceptable for donation:

Only new or gently used clean items

Children's winter clothing (sizes 2T to 5T)

Children's coats and snow pants (all sizes)

Winter coats for adults (XS-M)

Adult winter clothing (XS-M)

Winter boots or shoes (children-adult)
