3rd Sunday of Lent

We have lost our axis to the world of “anything goes” and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on “relativism island” where only a possible suggestion to “love and do not harm” may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus’ display of anger in the temple. The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life’s preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost. ©LPi

BULLETIN

If you can't make it to church to grab a bulletin or just forgot to pick one up you can find it online at www.immaculateconceptionbrownville.org.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Our Lenten fasting makes sense only when we keep in mind its purpose of uniting us more fully with Christ and our sisters and brothers. Consider fasting this week from some time spent on computer, TV, phone, etc. to feasting on the presence of God found in His creation. Whether observing from your window or from being outdoors, take time each day to notice the beauties of the ice crystals, your "winter neighbors" of fur and feather, the trees when they seem to say nothing, etc. "To see as God's sees" invites us to inhabit God's world, to notice it, to cherish it. Enjoy the feasting with all your senses and give praise to the Creator.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC BEST LENT EVER:

Sign up for the daily reflections, videos and inspiring stories. The theme this year is "It's Who You Become". There will be a Lenten journal available at the entrance to the Church. Please take one home and journal along with the daily reflections. To sign up for the daily reflections go to Dynamiccatholic.com/bestlentever. May your journey this lent bring you closer to God and give you deep faith in our Catholic religion.

FREE NATIONAL CATHOLIC WOMEN'S CONFERENCE:

March 12-14

The National Catholic Women's Conference is a FREE virtual event for Catholic women of all ages. This year, we will be exploring all the ways that we as women can open ourselves to receive Christ's peace.

Despite the pressures that we feel in life, peace is possible! Let's explore it together.

The free event goes March 12-14.
