5th Sunday of Lent

Any good teacher or parent will tell you that once a lesson is really learned it doesn't need to be taught again. When we internalize things we have learned, they become a part of who we are and influence how we perceive and interact with our world. The same is true for the law God has written upon our hearts. Once humanity learns this lesson, we will simply know it to be true and act accordingly. Sometimes, it is hard to get people to learn the lessons they need to learn. They are often distracted, disinterested, conflicted, misdirected, or just too stubborn and unable or unwilling to see what is right before their eyes. Understanding that God is in a loving and committed relationship with those fashioned and formed in God's own image, seems like such a simple lesson to learn. But history and experience has proven that it is not. When we accept the law God has placed in our hearts and gain wisdom from it, then when we suffer we learn to listen more attentively to the Voice behind that law. We naturally flee to our Creator for inspiration, consolation, hope, direction, and comfort as we navigate through this time of darkness. We will not need to run from it, subdue it, fight it, or be overcome by it because we will know, having internalized this profound lesson before, that God will bring new life. God's law is love and love never fails. Even in the moments of Jesus' deepest despair, he glorified the name of his Father. What he learned allowed him to put everything in perspective and be obedient to the tender, loving Voice that echoed within. As Lent quickly winds down, may we learn the same! Then, may we gain the fortitude and wisdom to help others see what is right before their eyes.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

FASTING TO ALMSGIVING TO FEASTING

Shop smart and waste less. (1) Make a list and stick to it. (2) Shop more frequently, as we tend to overbuy during a "big shop" and end up wasting food. (3) Shop on a full stomach; resist impulsive buying. (4) Buy fresh items in smaller quantity/ Choose loose fruits and veggies over prepackage ones. Buying loose produce will make it more likely that you will use your food before it spoils. (4) If you purchase "Family Size" or "Buy one, get one free," consider sharing with a neighbor or the local food pantry. Fasting from waste can provide a feast for someone else.
