11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, “do small things with great love.” This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of God’s kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people’s faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air. As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God’s kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

FARWELL TO FATHER GAFFNEY

There will be a farewell reception for Fr. Gaffney Saturday June 12th after the 5:30 mass at IC and Sunday June 13 after the 10:30 mass at SA. Plan to attend to make sure that he leaves!

THE PARISH OFFICE

Tina Froedtert will be leaving us as secretary/bookkeeper to take on a new job after 16 years of dedicated service. I'm happy to say, she is not leaving the area. She and her husband Todd have raised four beautiful children over these years and we wish her and her family the best of God's Blessings. The position of Office Secretary/Bookkeeper will be filled by Marilynn Hibbard. She is no stranger to us as she has been an active and dedicated member of Immaculate Conception for over 40 years. She will be a great assistance to Fr. Robinson, your new Pastor in his transition. Marilynn will be available in the office Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday's. Her specific hours will be noted in the bulletin in the future. May God Bless Tina and Marilynn in their new endeavors.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Where is "away"? We throw so much away, but where exactly is "away?" When you think about it, there is no "away." When we throw away the styrofoam container, the non-recyclable plastic, the aluminum pan, it all goes somewhere... trash can, landfill. It may be out of sight, but it will remain for generations to come. Suggestion: For those coming summer picnics and family gatherings see how much trash you can reduce by using reusable plates, cups, eating utensils or paper products that biodegrade.

CONGRATULATIONS to Nicklas Goodwin & Silas Goodwin who celebrated their First Eucharist on Saturday, May 29th, in our Brownville church. Congratulations are also to Maeve King who celebrated her First Eucharist on Saturday, June 5th, in our Brownville church. Please keep these young people and their families in your prayers.
