June 27, 2021

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Take some moments to inhale and exhale deeply for a while, as you begin to allow for stillness to take place within your mind and body. Resting within your landscape of inner quiet, notice what lives and what sounds fill the space around you. In this space where all things live and breathe, feel how your breath connects you to all things. Offer it up on gratitude and praise for this world where all things, in stillness and in movement, are sustained by the breath of God. (Sisters of St. Joseph Carondelet)

From the Pastor:

I'm glad to be among you as your new pastor. With the help of God's grace I will do my best to serve you in the spirit of Jesus Christ. There will be plenty to learn, but again, God gives every grace we need along the way. I look forward to getting to know you better and walking with you in faith. Let us pray for each other.

I'm making progress in getting settled in but it is an arduous process – starting all over and beginning again. I now know where all the light switches are and how to find my way to Sackets Harbor traveling from Brownville. Please be patient with me as I try to learn names. But that is not as easy as it used to be when I was newly ordained.

Please join me in congratulating Christopher M. Lapointe for successfully completing the Formation for Ministry program. It is a 2 year program of formation for lay people, preparing them for service in the Church. This afternoon Bishop LaValley will commission Chris in a special ceremony at St. Mary's Cathedral. I plan to attend.

Bishop LaValley has written to inform us of the updates and clarifications on NYS lifting COVID 19 restrictions. These are some highlights. Please be aware that unvaccinated individuals must continue to be responsible for wearing masks under CDC directives. Bishop LaValley lifted the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass on June 6. The distribution of Holy Communion will continue to be under one form, namely the Sacred Host. There are no longer any capacity restrictions on houses of worship.

We began the wonderful Season of Summer a week ago. It is a busy Season. It is easy to not only forget to notice the small wonders of the Season but also forget to praise our Creator for them. It is a beautiful time to walk and talk to God, enjoying all He has created and not forgetting Him during our fun-filled days. There should be no vacation from our vocation to love and serve the Lord and attend Sunday mass.

Thought for the new week: FEED YOUR FAITH AND YOUR DOUBTS WILL STARVE TO DEATH!

Healing Mass: Fr. Amedeo Guida will be returning to St Anthony's Church July 14, 2021 to celebrate an annual healing mass during the week of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
