From The Pastor

HAPPY EASTER !

This is the day the Lord has made! This is the day Christ broke the chains of death and rose in triumph from the grave. He did this for all us. He wants us to share in his victory over sin and death. Easter provides an enormous injection of hope for the human spirit. And how much it is needed right now. There is so much tragedy in our world at the present time. Jesus rose as a sign to those who loved him and followed him that God's love is stronger than death. By entering fully into human life, and by experiencing the bitterness of death, Jesus became a Brother and Savior to all people. At Easter we still feel the pain of the world, the pain in our families, and in our own hearts. But a new element has been introduced into our lives. It doesn't remove the pain but it gives it a meaning. It lights it up with hope. All is different because Jesus is alive and speaks His words of peace to us as He spoke them to the apostles. Faith in the resurrection is the basis of our hope of eternal life, a hope which enables us to bear patiently the trials of life. Therefore, there is a quiet joy among us and a deep sense of peace because we know that life is stronger than death, love is stronger than fear, and hope is stronger than despair.

As long as the sun comes over the hills,
scatters the darkness, and fills the world with light;
as long as the fields get green again,
and the primroses and violets return;
as long as the trees fill up again with leaves,
there is hope for us and for the world.
So, come, let us follow the footsteps of spring,
for the snow has melted,
and life is awakening from its sleep
and wanders through the hills and valleys.
Come, let us ascend the heights and gaze upon the wavering greenness of the plains below.
O Come, let us rejoice on this Easter Day,
for death has folded up his tent and gone away

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 24th and will be celebrated 3pm at St. Patrick's Church. We are encouraged to celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. We are called to bring home fallen-away Catholics. There couldn't be a better time to invite them back to the church. Jesus said "any soul that would go to confession & receive communion without a mortal sin on that feast day, would receive total forgiveness for their sins & punishment". Please come celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. More than Ever we need God's Mercy!

EASTER 2022

"...grant that by these paschal celebrations, we may be so inflamed with heavenly desires..."

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

As the priest prepares to bless the fire at the Easter Vigil, he prays that we might be "inflamed with heavenly desires." For one hundred and fifty years, the faithful of the Diocese of Ogdensburg have been inflamed with the heavenly desire to follow Jesus. We remember with much gratitude those who came before us, sowing the seeds of faith and building up the Body of Christ.

Over the last century and a half, beautiful parish churches and schools have been erected through the sacrifice and generosity of so many. Parish families have celebrated the Sacraments throughout the broad expanse of our North Country. Since our founding in 1872, thousands of women and men, inflamed with heavenly desires, have come into the Church and celebrated the Easter sacraments. We welcome and congratulate those who are entering the Church this Easter. We are so blessed!

Every generation encounters unique challenges in their faith journeys. Ours is no exception. While the demographics of the North Country have changed significantly, the Church continues to proclaim the joy of the Gospel. We accept our crosses with hope inflamed with heavenly desires because we are an Easter people. Jesus is risen and that has made all the difference in the world.

I hope that this Lenten Season has provided you with the opportunity to think of things of heaven. Sadly, for many today the focus is on worldly desires. Inevitably, such a focus feeds hatred, greed, and disrespect for our neighbor. Crime, violence, war, and terror haunt humankind. This Easter we want to renew our commitment to the Risen Christ. We are eager to embrace the mission He gave the Church as we begin another chapter in the story of the Church of Ogdensburg.

Easter blessings to you and your loved ones!

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Terry R. LaValley

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg
