From The Pastor

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Please join us at 3pm today at St. Patrick's Church, Watertown for the celebration. Today the Church celebrates in a special way Christ's compassion for us, which was instituted by Pope St. John Paul II during the canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kowalska in 2000.

This is a special week for us. We welcome Bishop Terry R. LaValley to IC on Friday. He will be here to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. Because of COVID, it has been a number of years since the Bishop has been here to confer the Sacrament. Everyone will be on their best behavior on Friday, including the Pastor. We congratulate our Confirmation candidates. We have listed the names of those to be confirmed in today's bulletin.

There is an important Worship/Liturgy Meeting tomorrow eve (Monday) at 7pm at the SA Parish Center. We will discuss all "things" Spring: Mother's Day, Father's Day, Pentecost Sunday, Corpus Christi, etc.

Congrats to Dr. Julie Lapointe and Janice Gittino who were received into full communion of the Catholic Church last week at the Easter Vigil at IC. Both ladies worked and prayed very hard to prepare themselves for this important point in their spiritual lives. Thanks to all those who helped form them for this important step.

Post-Pandemic stuff: Bishop has given us permission to celebrate the Sign of Peace at mass as well as put holy water in our fonts. The distribution of the Communion Cup is also allowed but after talking to both Parish Councils, it was decided to wait for a while before reintroducing the Communion Cup.

A few years ago I visited a 2nd grade classroom in one of our Diocesan Catholic Schools and it was just a few weeks before Easter. I asked them, "What does Easter mean to us. Why is it important?" One little girl immediately shot up her hand and she said, "Father, Easter is when Jesus comes up out of the tomb and if he sees his shadow then we have 6 more weeks of winter!" I didn't know what to say.

Congratulations to the students from both parishes who will celebrate their Confirmation with Bishop Terry LaValley on Friday, April 29th:

St. Andrew's parish: Nyah Chiodi, Leah Derouin, Lily Green, Thomas Ketcham, Audrey L'Huillier, Connor L'Huillier, Owen L'Huillier, Christian McKeever, Katelynn McKeever, Taylor Mower, Paige Phillips, Kailyn Scheible.

Catholic Communities of Brownville and Dexter: Stacia Barber, Mya Castro, Christopher Center, Kiera Covey, Lucas Dupee, Owen Dupee, Gabriella Hibbard, Emma Lavarway, Brenden Lee, Katie Rastley, Alayna Richards, Jonathan Ruetten, Charlize West.

Please keep these young people and their families in your prayers.

Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sunday 3pm at St. Patrick's Church

Question:

Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."
