June 5

From The Pastor

Today is the Great Feast of Pentecost! This is the day when, true to his promise, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to the apostles. The coming of the Spirit changed the apostles and saw the launching of a new community – the Church! This day renews the gift of the Spirit in each of us and in the Church as a whole. Let us pause to reflect on our need of the Spirit, and to dispose ourselves to receive this Spirit. Hopefully, you wore something red to mass today. BUT don't worry if you forgot, because we have something red to give you.

Today is a special day for the parishioners of IC and SA. The Bishop has assigned a Seminarian to the parishes for the summer. Today we welcome Douglas Schirmer. Doug is a native of Ogdensburg and studies at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, MD. Please read Doug's welcome note to us printed in today's church bulletin. Welcome aboard, Doug. I have lots of work outlined for him to accomplish this summer.

Registration is now open for Camp Guggenheim for the July/August 2022 camp season. If there are any young people between the age of 12-18 in IC or SA who would be interested in attending Camp for one of the weekly sessions and you need some financial assistance, please see me. I encourage any young people from our parishes to have this important summer experience. To register please visit: <https://www.rcdony.org/youth/camp>

Next week our special collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign engages and builds Catholic communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, television, radio and print media. Half the money collected remains here in the Diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc

for adult children of separated or divorced families

The Life-Giving Wounds retreat is designed for anyone 18 or over whose parents are no longer together either through separation, divorce, or were never married. Topics will include anxiety, anger, sin, temptation and forgiveness. All presentations are given by trained, expert speakers who are children of divorce. The retreat will be held Friday, June 10 to Sunday, June 12 at The Guggenheim Center, Saranac Lake, NY. The registration fee is $100 and includes overnight accommodations, food and all retreat materials.

To register, go to www.rcdony.org/lifegw
For more information about the retreat www.lifegivingwounds.org
If you are in need of financial assistance to attend the retreat, please contact Steve Tartaglia at 315-393-2920 or startaglia@rcdony.org

From the Desk of Seminarian Douglas Schirmer:

I was born in central Wisconsin to Robert and Amy, and have two younger brothers. Our family moved to St. Lawrence county in 2007. My father is an Anglican clergyman, who currently works with the Hospice of the St. Lawrence Valley, and mom is one of the secretaries at the Cathedral in Ogdensburg.

My family moved around a great deal when I was young: mom's side of the family have been missionaries in Africa for three generations, and when I was 12-13 we moved to Zambia for a year. After we returned, mom came into the Catholic church when I was 15. After 7 years of reading and looking into the Church, my brothers and I each came "across the Tiber"; interestingly, none of us had talked to the others about it, and we came in several months apart. (I'll tell you all more about that sometime). I moved to Nebraska to join one of my brothers in 2013, right after I entered the Church. Over a year later, during a discernment retreat with Father's Bryan Stitt and Joseph Giroux, I began actively discerning the call to seminary. Once that course had been settled on, I moved back to the Diocese of Ogdensburg and applied to be a seminarian.

Before seminary, I had some experience doing small-scale farming, and spent 6 years working as a butcher. Once seminary began, I studied philosophy and liberal arts at the Pontifical College Josephinum for four years, and received my bachelor's degree in the mail during Coronatide, 2020. In the fall of 2020, I and three of my classmates began our studies in theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. I just finished my second year of theology, and am pursuing an MA with a focus in Moral Theology.

I'm so happy to be here this summer, and look forward to meeting and working with you all! May the Risen Lord keep you and your loved ones close to His Sacred Heart.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP: Creation Care Tips

"God of creation, guide me to appreciate the warmth of the sun, the tenderness of the night, and the beauty of Your Glory. Lead me to recognize my responsibility as steward of Your creation." - 100 Days of Prayer created by Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange
