Dear Friends,

Holy Week is the most consequential week of the entire year. Though for much of the world around us, Holy Week seems little more than a time when there are more events going on in church right before Easter, this would be a very superficial understanding of these days. In reality, the Paschal Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, are the three days which changed the world forever.

During the Masses and Liturgies of the Paschal Triduum, we do not simply re-create or remember events which happened long ago. Rather, these liturgies enable us to enter into the very reality of the original events themselves.

In the power of the Holy Spirit, we enter into communion with the Lord Jesus Himself as He institutes the Eucharist, suffers in the Garden of Gethsemane, is condemned to death, dies on the Cross, is buried in the sepulcher, and truly rises to new life.

You will find in today’s bulletin a listing of the liturgical events of Holy Week. It is very encouraging that, in so many places, people of all ages, including younger people, are being introduced or re-introduced to the true magnificence of the Church’s liturgical tradition – the great heritage which is ours by Baptism – in the solemn chants, music, and actions of the sacred rites. As you are reading this, I extend to you a personal invitation to be with us, here in church, for as many of them as you can – indeed, even for all of them.

Also, an especially beautiful Mass which many people have never seen before is the Chrism Mass. It takes place at the Cathedral, on the morning of Holy Thursday, the day on which Christ instituted the Priesthood. The Chrism Mass is celebrated by the Bishop, and is concelebrated by all the priests of the diocese. During the Chrism Mass, the priests renew the promises of their ordination, and the Bishop blesses the Oil of the Sick (used in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick), the Oil of the Catechumens (used in Baptism), and consecrates the Sacred Chrism (used in Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders).

The Chrism Mass is open to everyone, and everyone is welcome. It will take place on Holy Thursday, April 18th, 10:00 a.m., at the Cathedral of Saint Augustine in Bridgeport. If you can be there, and especially if you’ve never seen it before, please do plan to join us for this especially beautiful Mass. Children and young people are most welcome too.

In these days, let us remember the words of Pope Saint John XXIII: “Everything children see in church during Holy Week speaks to their imagination and their senses. You must take them with you, and explain everything clearly.”

God bless you!

Father Marcello
To mark the culmination of thousands of hours of discussing, planning, designing, building and praying, our church, which was originally built in 1958, received its formal Consecration and the unveiling of the CHRIST AT THE CENTER project!

THANKS TO THE DEDICATION CHOIR! Sincere thanks to the Dedication Choir, cantors and guest Instrumentalists that participated in last Sunday’s Mass of Dedication with the Consecration of the Church! The choir of approximately 40 singers spent several hours preparing throughout the weeks leading up to the Dedication in order to learn the vast amount of music required for the Mass. A special word of thanks also to their families for supporting them in this commitment!
On Palm Sunday Weekend, we are going to make available the remaining plaques to be memorialized in the Memorial Chapel.

More than 225 Plaques have been installed in the Memorial Chapel as part of the Christ at the Center project.

Memorial Plaques are available in a variety of sizes.

If you’re interested in acquiring a Memorial Plaque, please provide your contact information on the form below and place the completed form in the offertory basket or hand it to a Parish Staff representative in the Memorial Chapel on Palm Sunday weekend. Thank you.

Next Sunday’s Gospel
EASTER SUNDAY

Next weekend’s Sunday Gospel reading is provided here, so that we can think and pray about it, and be ready to receive it into our minds and hearts when it is proclaimed at Mass.

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Lenten Prayer for Easter [Dynamic Catholic]

Almighty Father, I thank you for the gift of your son, Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead and redeemed human-kind. Fill us with the fire of the Holy Spirit, that we may be faithful disciples and enthusiastic witnesses of our Catholic faith. Alleluia, Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed.

Lenten Prayers for Holy Week [Dynamic Catholic]

Holy Thursday
Jesus, in these last few days leading up to Easter, as I recall your passion and death, let me remember that, above all, I am called to feed your sheep. You have given me a model of how to live; may I strive to be all that you created me for, spreading the love of God and the truth of our Catholic faith wherever I am able. You are the way, the truth, and the life. Amen.

Good Friday
Jesus, no one knows change better than you. You died on the cross, and three days later you rose from the dead. Forty days later you ascended into heaven and left the world transformed for the rest of time. Help me to transform my soul, to die to sin and death and be reborn in your love and eternal life. Amen.

Holy Saturday
Jesus, you are courage incarnate. As you hung on the cross for my sins and the sins of the world, you showed me that all things are possible. You knew that life did not end on the cross. It was only the beginning of a new and glorious eternal life. Amen.

THE MUSIC OF HOLY WEEK

The liturgies of Holy Week are the most solemn and sacred events of the entire Church Year. Music plays an important role in these liturgical celebrations by surrounding the rites with sung prayer. Holy Mother Church affirmed at the Second Vatican Council That “the musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, No. 112). Holy Week is therefore the opportune time for the richness of this sacred musical treasury to be brought forth.

Special worship booklets are being prepared and will be available to foster fully active participation in the liturgies of Holy Week. The Parish Choir will sing at the liturgies on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and the 10am Mass on Easter Sunday. The Children’s Choir will sing for 8am Mass on Easter Sunday. We also welcome the participation of cantors/soloists Allegra De Vita and Cristina DiMuro Trnik, as well as violinist Jennifer Truhan, and trumpeter James Buchta for the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Masses.

Social Justice & Charitable Outreach
Faith • Awareness • Action

Holy Week:
“The tragedy of the Passion brings to fulfillment our own life and the whole of human history. We can’t let Holy Week be just a kind of commemoration. It means contemplating the mystery of Jesus Christ as something which continues to work in our souls.” – St. Josemaría Escrivá

Please consider taking this time to contemplate the mystery of Jesus Christ by reflecting on the Catholic Social Justice Teachings while praying a nightly Rosary: Life & Dignity of the Human Person, Call to Family, Community & Participation, Right & Responsibilities, Option for the Poor and Vulnerable, Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers, Solidarity and Care for God’s Creation.
