Dear Friends,

This past Tuesday, it was our honor to host the Bridgeport Area Retired Firefighters’ 36th Annual Memorial Service at St. Catherine’s. I am grateful to Chief Andrew Kingsbury of the Nichols Fire Department for all he and his colleagues did behind the scenes to help make everything come together so beautifully and well.

That evening, we welcomed hundreds of Firefighters, together with Officers and Chiefs, family members and friends, who gathered in our church to honor and remember Firefighters who have made the supreme sacrifice serving and protecting our community.

It was also the first opportunity that many members of the surrounding community had to see our church since its consecration in March. I was happy to point out to the assembled group that the Memorial Flags in our Memorial Chapel are placed in permanent honor and remembrance of the sacrifice and valor of all Veterans, First Responders, Police Officers, and Firefighters, especially those from this Parish of Saint Catherine of Siena.

Perhaps the most moving aspect of the ceremony was the reading of the names of Firefighters who have died in the line of duty from the Bridgeport, Easton, Fairfield, Long Hill, Nichols, Shelton, Stratford, and Westport Fire Departments. The earliest was Firefighter Wilbur C. Judd of the Bridgeport Fire Department, who died in the line of duty on June 26, 1894. The most recent was Lieutenant Russell Neary of the Easton Fire Department, who died in the line of duty on October 29, 2012.

As each name was read, a current Firefighter brought forward the deceased Firefighter’s helmet, and reverently placed it on the steps surrounding the Altar of Sacrifice in our sanctuary. As the Firefighter then saluted, a silver bell was rung in memory of the deceased. It was a solemn and poignant moment, and it was carried out with great reverence, care, and dignity, as is fitting.

As we look around at the life of our country these days, and observe to our dismay the deeply polarized and confused state of many things, one thing that still unites us as Americans is the respect we all share for the courageous men and women who, day in and day out, risk their lives to keep us safe. Their service often goes unthanked, but it is not unnoticed or unappreciated.

Next time you see a member of the Armed Forces, or a Police Officer, or a Firefighter, please thank them. Those who have made the supreme sacrifice often died protecting and serving people they had never even met. We can never forget them, and we can never take for granted those who serve and protect us today.

“No one has greater love than this,” Jesus said, “than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”

God bless you!

Father Marcello
2020 Mass Book
Our Parish is continuing to grow, and we receive many requests for intentioned Masses.

The Parish Office will be OPEN to receive your Mass intention reservations on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 9:00am - 4:30pm now through the end of June. Reservations must be made in person only (no phone calls or emails, please). Additionally, please bear in mind that we cannot accommodate all requests, as there are about 500 intentioned Masses available each year, and we receive easily twice that number of requests!

In order to be fair to all the families in our parish, it is our parish’s policy that an individual family may request: up to five (5) Masses in a calendar year, including: up to two (2) weekend Masses, and up to three (3) weekday Masses. For a Mass intention, either one (1) or two (2) individual names may be listed as the intention for a Mass. Should the person requesting the Mass desire more than two names, the Mass should be designated for all the deceased members of that family.

Thank you for your kind understanding. It is a great “problem” to have that so many people want to request Masses at our parish!

Toiletry Drive THIS WEEKEND!
June 8-9 at all Masses

Our brothers and sisters most in need do not take a vacation from poverty or homelessness over the summer. Please consider volunteering at or donating to our Annual Toiletry Drive on June 8-9. As you buy toiletries for your vacation, we hope that you will buy a little extra for the homeless and those most in need. Every little bit helps and every little bit makes a difference to someone that has none. Any trial or travel size item is accepted and appreciated but all that we ask is that you keep in mind the dignity of the recipient when choosing your donation.

If you have any questions, please contact Salvatore Spadaccino, Coordinator for Social Justice and Charitable Outreach Caritas@stcatherinetrumbull.com

“We live in such a visual culture. So a procession, with its candles, incense, and servers - with Our Lord in the monstrance, and so many of our parishioners and friends of all ages taking part - this helps to bring home to all of us that the Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic faith.”
-Father Marcello
From the Choir Loft: PENTECOST SEQUENCE

On Pentecost Sunday, as on Easter Sunday, the “sequence” is recited or sung during the Mass as part of the Liturgy of the Word. What exactly is a sequence, and what is its function in the liturgy? A sequence is a special liturgical chant, similar to a hymn, which occurs on certain feast days and solemnities between the Second Reading and the Gospel. The Sequence differs from a hymn in both structure and melody. Unlike a hymn where all of the stanzas have the same meter and are sung to the same music, a sequence is grouped into pairs of stanzas, each with their own unique meter and melody.

Most sequences were written in the Middle Ages and were sung immediately before the Gospel as the clergy processed to the place of Gospel. Particularly in larger churches, the Gospel was chanted midway down the nave so that it could be heard, and these sequences helped to fill up the time of the procession. Many important feasts of the Church began to have these sequences composed for them during the period of the 11th through 13th centuries.

However, after the Council of Trent, in the Missal of St. Pius V (published in 1570), there were only four sequences: Victimae paschali laudes sung at Easter, Veni Sancte Spiritus for Pentecost, Laudate Sion Salvatorem sung at Corpus Christi, and the Dies Irae for All Souls and in Masses for the Dead. In the 1700s, Stabat Mater Dolorosa was added for the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows.

The Pentecost Sequence, Veni Sancte Spiritus was likely written by Pope Innocent III (1161-1216) and is widely regarded as one of the masterpieces of sacred Latin poetry. The English translation of the Pentecost Sequence can be found on page 202 of the Ignatius Pew Missal.

Next Sunday’s Gospel

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Next weekend’s Sunday Gospel reading is provided here, so that we can think and pray about it, and be ready to receive it into our minds and hearts when it is proclaimed at Mass.

Jesus said to his disciples: “I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.”

The way we are attired at Mass expresses the importance we attach to the Mass and to the things of God. It is also an example to our fellow parishioners. Thank you for expressing your love for God’s house through respectful attire and demeanor in church, all year round.

2. Remember to attend Mass faithfully wherever you go for vacation this summer. The website Masstimes.org will help you find a local Catholic Church and all of the available Mass Times wherever you will be.
