🌀 A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR 🌀

Sunday of the Word of God

Dear Friends,

Next weekend, for the third year now, the whole Church will observe what Pope Francis has instituted as the Sunday of the Word of God, “a Sunday given over entirely to the word of God, so as to appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people,” as the Pope said when he established this new observance in the Church in 2019. Since then, the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time has been and will be observed each year as the Sunday of the Word of God. This is because “ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ” said St. Jerome, who was perhaps the most accomplished Scripture scholar in history.

People often ask me how they can pray with Scripture. So, in preparation for the Sunday of the Word of God next weekend, I am happy to again offer a brief primer on Lectio divina, which is method of prayerfully, meditatively reading and praying with Sacred Scripture. Here’s how to do it:

Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to pray well, and then choose a scriptural text to focus on. I recommend beginning with a brief passage – certainly no more than a chapter, perhaps even just a sentence or two – in one of the four Gospels. Read along until a particular passage or sentence strikes you or resonates with you. Then slowly read and re-read (lectio) that scriptural text. Naturally you will want to understand its content and meaning, guided by the question: What does the biblical text say in itself? Think about that for a bit.

Then comes meditation (meditatio), which centers around the question: What does the biblical text say to us, to me? Here, let yourself be moved and challenged, asking the Holy Spirit to speak to you through the sacred text. Take as long with this as you want.

Following this comes prayer (oratio), which asks the question: What do I say to the Lord in response to his word? In other words, how does this strike you? What are you inspired to thank God for? To ask Him for? To praise Him for? Prayer is the primary way through which God’s Word transforms us.

Finally, conclude with contemplation (contemplatio), taking up, as a gift from God, the question, What conversion of mind, heart and life is the Lord asking of me? What concrete resolution can I implement in my life as a result of this time of prayer with God’s Word?

Back in the 4th century, the Deacon, Saint Ephrem, said this, in words still fully applicable today:

Who is able to understand, Lord, all the richness of even one of your words? There is more that eludes us than what we can understand. We are like the thirsty drinking from a fountain. Your word has as many aspects as the perspectives of those who study it. The Lord has colored his word with diverse beauties, so that those who study it can contemplate what stirs them. He has hidden in his word all treasures, so that each of us may find a richness in what he or she contemplates.

God bless you!

John Marcello

Next Sunday's Gospel:

SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD
 (THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME)

Next weekend's Sunday Gospel reading is provided here, so that we can think and pray about it, and be ready to receive it into our minds and hearts when it is proclaimed at Mass.

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received. Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

PRAY FOR THE UNBORN: Lord, Creator of Life, you have blessed us with the privilege of bringing new life into the world. May your Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to recognize Your special gift of children, and Your great love for each of us created in Your image and likeness. You sent Your son Jesus to redeem us and through love He entered our world. We now turn to Mary, our Mother, for her intercession as we struggle to protect innocent unborn children. Following Mary's example may we proclaim the truth of our faith, assist those in crisis and protect those most vulnerable. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Faith in Action: Novena for Life

In the nine days surrounding the 49TH ANNUAL MARCH FOR LIFE, our Parish will be praying this Novena for Life at daily Masses from Jan 19-27. We invite you to pray it with us at Mass or in your daily prayers at home. 9 DAYS FOR LIFE is a multi-faceted novena for the respect and protection of human life. Each day's intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions. Follow along on our Parish's Facebook page too. Info: 9daysforlife.org.

Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life. Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.

Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.

Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all.

Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen

With holiday celebrations over, many of us are feeling pretty wiped out, physically and emotionally and maybe even financially. So to offer you a bit of a boost, here are some short quotes that will inspire and give strength. Take a moment to reflect on these words of God – heavenly help for the new year ahead.

☞ "My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with His glorious riches in Christ Jesus." - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

☞ "He gives power to the faint, abundant strength to the weak'." - ISAIAH 40:29

☞ "Cast all your worries upon him because he cares for you." - PETER 5:7

☞ "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." - MATTHEW 11:28

☞ "I command you: be strong and steadfast! Do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord, your God, is with you wherever you go." - JOSHUA 1:9

☞ "My deliverance and honor are with God, my strong rock; my refuge is with God." - PSALMS 62:8

☞ "Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you." - ISAIAH 49:15

☞ "They that hope in the Lord will renew their strength, they will soar on eagles' wings; they will run and not grow weary, walk and not grow faint." - ISAIAH 40:31

☞ "In peace I will lie down and fall asleep, for you alone, Lord, make me secure." - PSALMS 4:9

☞ "I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship." - ROMANS 12:1

Keep these in your home for daily encouragement in the year ahead!
