❧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ❧

Dear Friends,

Deacon Toole's favorite church in Rome - and one of my favorites too - is the church of Santa Maria della Vittoria (Our Lady of Victory). Built in the early 17th century, it famously houses Gianlorenzo Bernini's masterpiece, the Ecstasy of Saint Teresa of Ávila. The whole church is a stunning baroque gem, and it is entrusted to the care of the Carmelite Fathers.

When St. Thérèse of Lisieux made her one and only pilgrimage to Rome in November of 1877, she visited that church to see the statue of her patron saint, St. Teresa of Ávila. Thérèse went to Rome in hopes of speaking with Pope Leo XIII, and asking his permission to become a Carmelite nun even though she had not yet reached the minimum age.

If you were to visit that church today, you would see immediately on your right a side chapel dedicated to St. Thérèse, which was rededicated in her honor soon after her canonization in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. High above the large painting of her are the words ROSAS MEMENTO SPARGERE. It is a prayer to her: "REMEMBER TO SCATTER ROSES."

St. Thérèse (whose feast day was this past Tuesday, Oct. 1) famously said before she died that she would like to spend her heaven doing good upon the earth, and that she would let fall from Heaven a shower of roses. The countless people who have invoked her intercession through the years (myself included) attest that, very often, roses have uncannily crossed their paths soon after invoking the prayers of this great and powerful saint.

Cardinal Sean O'Malley, the Archbishop of Boston, once mentioned in a homily this fascinating detail:

In 1935, St. Thérèse's sister Pauline received a letter from an Italian nun stationed in Egypt that contained a delightful surprise. The nun explained that many years earlier her father came home from his duties in the papal household and told the family at dinner about a beautiful French girl who had implored the Pope to allow her to enter a Carmel in France even though she was under age. He had tears in his eyes as he told the story, and the family was deeply moved as they listened. When the nun read the account in the autobiography, the book fell from her hands. She realized that the girl her father had seen was St. Thérèse.

Next time you walk along the south side of the church (the side aisle that leads toward St. Joseph's shrine) notice that above our window of St. Thérèse are inscribed those same words: ROSAS MEMENTO SPARGERE. St. Thérèse is a great friend in Heaven to all who call upon her. Try it - you'll see!

God bless you!

John Marcello

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Mark 10:17-27

CONFESSION can sometimes seem daunting or difficult. There might be many reasons we can think of to not go. But regular Confession isn't scary. It is life-changing and life-giving!
