✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Dear Friends,

Every year around this time, Bishop Caggiano bestows the Saint Augustine Medal of Service on men and women from around the Diocese. Then-Bishop Lori instituted this honor in 2005 so as to recognize people whose exemplary dedication to Christ and the Church is lived out in extraordinary service in the parishes, schools, and charitable works in the Church across Fairfield County.

The kind of people who receive the Saint Augustine Medal are, we might say, the “unsung heroes” of the Church. They are always there when you need them, the ones who never say “no”, the ones who never look the other way when they’re asked to step up and serve. And they do it quietly, unassumingly, and generously. Their service is a manifestation of their goodness, and an expression of their love for Our Lord.

I am honored to say that Bishop Caggiano presented the 2024 Saint Augustine Medal for the Parish of Saint Catherine of Siena to Jack D’Angelo (posthumously) in ceremonies held at the Cathedral on Saturday, October 19th.

Jack’s face and voice were especially familiar to the folks who are regularly present for the 7:30 a.m. Mass on Sundays. At many of those Masses, Jack proclaimed the Word of God as one of our most faithful and conscientious Readers. In fact, he carried out this form of service to the Lord and to the Church for over 50 years, first in Medfield, Massachusetts, and then, for all these years, here at St. Catherine’s.

In addition to serving as a Reader here, Jack was extremely well respected by his many colleagues and friends. As many of you know, Jack closed his eyes to this world on September 8. It was my privilege to visit him many times during his illness, to bring him the last Sacraments, and to be the celebrant of his notably well-attended Funeral Mass here on September 13. In addition to all this, it was my privilege to call him my friend.

Though Jack died before he could accept this richly deserved award, I am grateful that he at least knew about it before he passed away.

A culture of generous service is one in which every baptized person readily and generously puts his or her faith into concrete action, in whatever way is best suited to each person's talents and abilities. This is what makes for a strong and vibrant parish, and this indeed is what living out the promises of our Baptism looks like concretely. Just sitting on the sidelines and observing is never what the Lord wants of us!

May God grant blessed rest to Jack, and may God raise up and inspire many to follow in his footsteps.

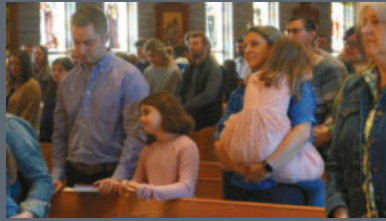

God bless you!

Federico Marcello

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

Next weekend's Gospel reading is provided here, so that we can think and pray about it, and be ready to receive it into our minds and hearts when it is proclaimed at Mass.

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions. Mark 12:28b-34
