✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Passiontide

Dear Friends,

We have now reached Passiontide, which is the last and most intense phase of Lent. The violet veils hide the Crucifix from our eyes; hidden as well are the statues of the Saints. This ancient practice has its origins in the former liturgical calendar, in which, on this Sunday, the Gospel reading was taken from the eighth chapter of the Gospel of St. John, which says, in part:

“The Jews said to Jesus, ‘You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?’ Jesus said to them, ‘Amen, amen I say to you, before Abraham came to be, I AM.’ So they picked up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple area.”

Because of the hardness of heart of those who rejected Our Lord (which is all of us, at times, through sin) the Church recalls this event, and withdraws from our eyes the image of Christ crucified by veiling it, along with the images of the Saints, for the duration of Passiontide. The crucifix is unveiled after the Good Friday Liturgy of the Passion and Death of the Lord, and the rest of the images are unveiled just prior to the Easter Vigil.

The veils are of violet, which is the color of penance. This reminds us of the sufferings of Christ, together with our need for penance, in reparation for our sins. This veiling also conveys the deep sorrow which the Church feels over the suffering and death of her Divine Bridegroom, Jesus Christ.

Duncan Stroik, the architect for our CHRIST AT THE CENTER sanctuary project, completed just over six years ago, in an editorial in Sacred Architecture magazine, which he publishes and edits, wrote:

“In order to better prepare for Easter, we fast from images and sometimes instruments. For visual and aural people, this is a powerful shock to the system. Statues, paintings, and, in some places, even crucifixes are covered with purple fabric. The saints are there, in form, but we cannot see their image – they are veiled in mystery. It is the last penance of Lent: the giving up of images, which are, theologically, windows into the divine. And then with the Triduum, we do not just fast but we also strip the altar in preparation for the Crucifixion; and on Good Friday we come to church, but there is no Mass. All of this makes the Easter Vigil more spectacular: the Easter fire in darkness and then a single candle leading to a church full of candlelight and the reappearance of the saints, beautiful flowers, and iconography of the Resurrection.”

This year’s celebrations of Holy Week will be especially beautiful. On Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, nothing is more important than living those days with Our Lord in and through the Church’s liturgical celebrations. Please mark your calendars, please plan to be with us as once again we enter into the days that changed the world.

God Bless You,

Fred Marcello

THE DAY TO BAPTIZE YOUR CHILD 2025

Our Parish's second Day to Baptize Your Child at St. Catherine's was a resounding success. The Baptisms took place in five ceremonies over the weekend. The energy and joy in the church was simply palpable.

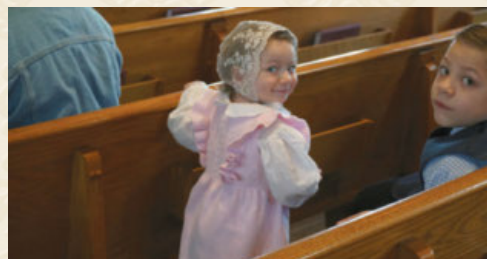

Father Marcello shares these thoughts: "The message of the day was simple: Welcome! It was a day of welcoming families to a deeper friendship with the Lord Jesus, and welcoming them to a new relationship with Him and with the Church. I can't think of many days in my whole ministry that were more joyful than this past weekend, when I had the privilege to baptize so many children at St. Catherine's. It was a day many parents - and grandparents - had looked forward to for a long time. Our whole parish is praying for these children and their families, and I was especially happy to baptize them, entrusting them and their families to the intercession and protection of Our Lady."

Please remember these newly baptized children and their families in your prayers, that this will have been the first step of many in an ever-deepening relationship with Jesus Christ, in the communion of His Church!

SPORTS SUNDAY AT ST. CATHERINE'S

Last Sunday was our fourth annual Sports Sunday!

Dozens of St. Catherine's Athletes attended Mass on March 30 showing their team spirit and sporting their team uniform.

They received a special blessing from Father Marcello, then gathered in the Family Center for refreshments, to spend time with friends, and to shoot some hoops and play cornhole.

Special thanks to Ray Jakabcin, Bob Cavallero, Jerry Spillane of Knights of Columbus Council 5806, plus their newest applicant Jeff DeVito for essential help with set up and providing a warm welcome and generous hospitality to everyone who joined us in the Family Center. What a fun and grace filled day!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

Our 9am Sunday Mass focuses on helping our youngest parishioners develop a love for & understanding of Christ, His Word, & the Mass. Children ages 5-10 join friends in the Church Hall following the opening prayers. They work with a catechist to understand the readings at an age-appropriate level. This is a formal worship experience adapted to make it relevant to the lives and experiences of children. Children return to Mass for the Consecration. LEAH DEVITO: leahcdevito@gmail.com

TO PARENTS OF OUR CHILDREN: RELAX!

God put the wiggle in children. Don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. Everyone is welcome here at St. Catherine's! You may find it helpful to sit in the pews near the front, where it is easier to see and hear. Don't hesitate to quietly explain the parts of the Mass. Sing the hymns and songs, pray and voice the responses together with your children. They learn liturgical behavior by copying YOU! If you need to leave Mass with your child, please feel free to do so, but please do come back! As Jesus said, "Let the children come to Me." Remember that the way we welcome children in Church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, to Christ, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home here! To all the members of our Parish: a smile of encouragement is always welcome to parents with small, active children. The presence of children is a GIFT to the Church! They give us a future full of hope.

HOLY THURSDAY VISIT TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES

April 17, immediately following the Mass of the Lord's Supper

Every year on Holy Thursday, the Mass of the Lord's Supper does not end as usual; instead, the celebrant, servers, and assembled faithful process with the Blessed Sacrament from the altar to a beautifully decorated repository usually located outside the church's sanctuary. This movement to the repository brings us into the moment at which Jesus and the Apostles left the Upper Room and moved to the Garden of Gethsemane, where Christ underwent his agony of anguished prayer.

At the Garden of Gethsemane, an additional suffering for Christ was that he found his disciples asleep during his hour of need. "He said to Peter, 'So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak'" (Mt 26: 40-41).

Through the centuries, generations of Catholics, moved by Christ's haunting and poignant question, have responded to him and accompanied him in his agony by maintaining a vigil of prayer and presence with him at the repository, which represents the Garden of Gethsemane. There they are present before the same Christ, now in the Eucharist, who suffered in the Garden on Holy Thursday.

For those planning to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at various churches on the evening of Holy Thursday (the traditional number of churches to visit being seven) we have prepared for your convenience a list of the closing times of area churches that evening:

ROMAN PILGRIMAGE

This Lent, make the venerable pilgrimage to the "Station Churches" of Rome without leaving the comfort of your home, using George Weigel's book, ROMAN PILGRIMAGE: THE STATION CHURCHES as your guide.

The pilgrimage to the Station Churches is a beautiful but relatively little-known aspect of the Church's life, a hidden treasure which we're happy to make more widely known.

ROMAN PILGRIMAGE is available in hardcover on Amazon.com for $39.99, and the Kindle edition is available for $23.99, and the audio book is free.

We highly recommend this excellent resource as a companion to the journey of prayer and conversion which is Lent!

PRAY FOR THE UNBORN: Lord, Creator of Life, you have blessed us with the privilege of bringing new life into the world. May your Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to recognize Your special gift of children, and Your great love for each of us created in Your image and likeness. You sent Your son Jesus to redeem us and through love He entered our world. We now turn to Mary, our Mother, for her intercession as we struggle to protect innocent unborn children. Following Mary's example may we proclaim the truth of our faith, assist those in crisis and protect those most vulnerable. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

The life-saving 40 Days for Life prayer campaign takes place 3/5 - 4/13 on the sidewalk at 4697 Main St, Bridgeport. Vigil hours: 7am-7pm. Special prayer rallies: Wed 3-4 pm & Sat 10-noon. Please join us as we provide a prayerful, prolific witness for conversion of hearts and an end to abortion for the sake of so many pre-born children.
