✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Dear Friends,

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, I would like to share with you the magnificent reflection below, by the noted French spiritual writer Father Jean d'Elbée.

God Bless You,

Father Marcelo

When we see ourselves to be so weak, so helpless, always falling into the same sins, we are tempted to say to ourselves, "Can it be possible that Jesus does not grow weary of this?" We have all had this temptation at one time or another: "I have promised Him so much, I have made so many resolutions, and I always fall again; it is impossible that He does not get tired of it."

It is a kind of blasphemy to say that, because it is to limit a mercy which has no limit. It is to doubt the patience, the indulgence, the untiring clemency of Jesus. It is not He who grows weary of us; it is we who grow weary of looking at our own ugliness.

During the apparitions of Our Lady at Pontmain, the children spelled out, letter by letter, the words they saw being written in the sky under the feet of the Blessed Virgin. At the word "allows" (se laisse), the adults who saw nothing said to them, "You must be wrong; it must be 'My son is weary' (se lasse) and not 'My son allows.'" But instead of "My son has had enough" it was — oh, divine tenderness — "My son allows himself to be moved."

Why do we have this basic tendency, this first impulse to think that Jesus is dissatisfied? Oh, how I would like to help you do away with this atmosphere of distrust and put you forever into an atmosphere of friendship with your friend Jesus, the omnipotent Savior, who has come for the lost children that we are - lost, but found again like the prodigal son - an atmosphere of hope, a family atmosphere in the mutual confidence of Father and child, which will give you a taste on earth of a happiness which is already heavenly.

Is not the life of glory begun already in the life of grace? Did not Saint Paul say, but our conversation is in heaven (Phil 3:20), and Saint John, perfect love casts our fear (1 Jn 4:18)?

Father Jean du Coeur de Jésus d'Elbée († 1982) was a member of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Dear Friends,

The Church continues to mourn the passing from this life of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, the 265th successor of St. Peter, Bishop of Rome, and Pastor of the Universal Church. Though he had been ill for some time, the suddenness of his passing, on Easter Monday, took us all by surprise. By the time you read these words, his Funeral Mass will have taken place, and his mortal remains will have been interred in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome.

Everyone will remember different aspects of his 12-year pontificate. For me, what stands out most is Pope Francis' emphasis on the beauty of discovering or re-discovering God's mercy.

As a young man, Jorge Mario Bergoglio intended to be a chemist, but God had other plans for him. On September 21, 1953 (the feast of St. Matthew, the Apostle and Evangelist) Jorge, then 16 years of age, stopped into his parish church to say a quick prayer. There he saw a priest he didn't know, named Father Carlos Ibarra. Somewhat spontaneously, he asked Father Ibarra to hear his confession. Five minutes later, as he exited the confessional, he was convinced that God was calling him to be a priest. Many times during his papacy, the Pope adverted to that graced moment in his life, the moment when he recognized, in the confessional, that even though his request to that priest seemed spontaneous, God had been waiting for him there to fill him with his mercy, and to make him a messenger and an instrument of that mercy to others.

Pope Francis said many things about God's mercy during his service as the Bishop of Rome. But my favorite is this: "Let me say this once more: God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking his mercy ... time and time again he bears us on his shoulders. No one can strip us of the dignity bestowed upon us by this boundless and unfailing love."

For Pope Francis we pray: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

God Bless You,

Father Marcelo

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

At that time, Jesus revealed himself to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. John 21:1-14

Our 9am Sunday Mass focuses on helping our youngest parishioners develop a love for & understanding of Christ, His Word, & the Mass. Children ages 5-10 join friends in the Church Hall following the opening prayers. They work with a catechist to understand the readings at an age-appropriate level. This is a formal worship experience adapted to make it relevant to the lives and experiences of children.
