IN MEMORIAM: The Parish of Saint Catherine of Siena extends to the family of Nancy Correll, our prayerful sympathy in the hope of Christ's Resurrection.

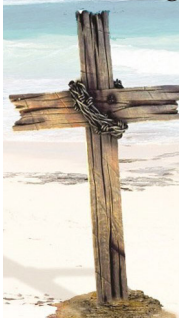

RESPECT LIFE: The white rose at the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary reminds us all to pray for an increased respect for the gift of human life. This week, it is offered in memory of Marilyn Barker.

INFANT BAPTISM should not be delayed, and should be administered within weeks of birth, if possible. Expectant parents are welcome to contact the parish office even prior to the baby's birth to make arrangements. Pre-baptismal formation is necessary for first-time parents.

THE PARISH OF ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA WARMLY WELCOMES...

... anyone who is new to our area, anyone who is searching for the truth, or anyone who is looking for a spiritual home. We are joyfully and faithfully Roman Catholic in belief and practice - a community of faith, worship, service, and formation - and with open hearts we invite everyone into a living and saving friendship with the Lord Jesus Christ, in the communion of His One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Prayer MINISTRY

Please remember in your daily prayers all the sick of our Parish and their caregivers, especially:

Marlene Roberts, Ernestine Gaudio, Sigrid Rogowski, Rose Autuori, Bill Taylor, Jack Godo

Please contact the Parish Office to let us know if you have a family member in the hospital. Due to confidentiality regulations, we are not consistently notified by hospitals, and are often unaware of hospitalizations unless we are notified by the family.

✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Getting More Out of Your Confession

Dear Friends,

As we announce each weekend, the Sacrament of Confession is available here at St. Catherine's every Tuesday evening, from 6 to 8 pm. Whenever someone goes to confession, it is certain that God is already at work in their life - even before the forgiveness takes place. Conversion is a work of the grace of God, who always invites us to return to Him. In Confession, God rejoices to welcome a repentant sinner back to His love and mercy. After Confession, God wants to bring that work to fulfillment through a life of true peace, joy, freedom, and love. I am happy to offer here some practical ideas for cooperating with God's work in your soul, and getting more out of your Confession.

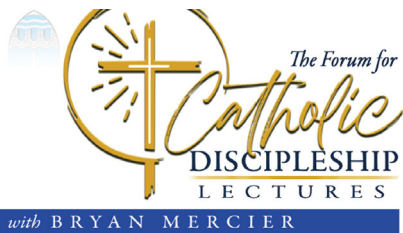

Sincerely yours in Christ,

John Mancillo

A THOUSAND TIMES
I HAVE FAILED GOD,
YET HE KEEPS
FORGIVING ME.
THAT'S LOVE.

1. Examine your conscience daily. Before going to bed, briefly recall the past day. Thank God for the good you have done, ask forgiveness for any sins, and ask His grace to do better tomorrow.
2. Go to Confession monthly. The minimum requirement for a practicing Catholic is to go to confession once a year, but confessing every month or two helps us to better form our conscience, overcome our sins, and grow in God's grace.
3. Seek a more perfect contrition. Contrition is a sorrow of soul for the sins committed, and it includes the firm resolution to sin no more. Aim towards a more perfect contrition, making God's love the motive for your sorrow and resolve, rather than fear of hell or a desire for relief from the feelings of guilt and shame.
4. Make concrete resolutions to amend your life. The firm resolution to sin no more includes taking concrete steps to avoid sin and practice virtue. Consider these or similar resolutions: establishing a prayer routine, making and sticking to a balanced / disciplined schedule of study, work, and leisure, installing porn filters on your devices, and so forth.
5. Evangelize. Share the peace and joy that you receive from Confession by encouraging others to go as well. Consider inviting a friend to come with you.
6. Deepen your relationship with God. The peace and joy of a deep spiritual life causes everything else, including temptation, to pale in comparison. Growing in your spiritual life through daily prayer will bear great fruit in your moral life.
7. Add to your examination of conscience a "particular examen." Examining the past day with a focus on a particular virtue that you want to develop is a great way to respond to struggles with a particular vice or sin.
8. Make fasting and sacrifice a regular spiritual practice. Fasting and sacrifice atone for sin, strengthen us against temptation, and honor the Passion of Christ. Be intentional about taking up some form of self-denial on Fridays to intentionally unite yourself with the Passion of Christ.
9. Practice devotions and acts of reparation. Spiritual practices such as the Rosary, the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy, and devotions to the Sacred Heart of Jesus are great examples of devotion and reparation. These help us to express more genuinely our sorrow for sin and receive more fruitfully the grace we need to fulfill our resolutions of amendment.
10. Make the most out of your time in line! Capitalize on the time spent waiting in line for Confession by preparing well to make a clear, concise, and thorough confession, mentioning all sins in number and kind, but avoiding extraneous talk, out of respect for the people behind you in line. Praying the Rosary for the other people in line with you is a beautiful act of charity as well, known only to you and to God.

The St. Catherine of Siena, KofC Council #5806 thanks Sean Vimini, Harry Cronin, Tom Coughlin, Mike Shea, Gary Vastola, Mark Gurevitz, Paul Halverson, Jerry Spillane and JP Rizzitelli, who volunteered in August to help prepare and serve breakfast for 150 guests at the Thomas Merton Family Center. The Knights had a very busy morning, as they prepared and served Scrambled Eggs, Sausages, Pancakes, Pastries, Bananas and a Fruit Cup.

The Merton Center Staff and most especially Klem, their Chef, was so appreciative of our Council's efforts to provide a healthy breakfast to those in need, with much kindness, respect and dignity.

Last year, our Council volunteered on 6 scheduled dates, and we were so extremely proud to serve breakfast to 910 Merton Center guests.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." Matthew 16: 21-27

IT'S SUMMERTIME

Warmer weather brings lighter wardrobe, and therefore we offer this gentle reminder about the importance of coming to church modestly dressed. This is a concrete way to honor the dignity of God's house, where Our Lord dwells in the tabernacle. Thank you for expressing your love for God's house through respectful dress and demeanor in church.
