✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Dear Friends,

The wonders of modern technology enable us to determine exactly what the night sky would have looked like over any place in the world on any date in history.

When I learned of this, it gave me an idea.

The ceiling just inside the main doors of our church was, for many years, just a flat ceiling with an old cylindrical light.

Last summer, we took out that flat ceiling, and installed the vaulted ceiling which is currently there.

Then, wondering how we could achieve a visual link with the Basilica of Santa Maria sopra Minerva in Rome (the church in which St. Catherine of Siena is buried) we decided to paint the ceiling in that vaulted area a brilliant, deep blue, which matches as closely as possible the wonderful blue on the ceiling of Santa Maria sopra Minerva, above the altar where the body of St. Catherine of Siena rests.

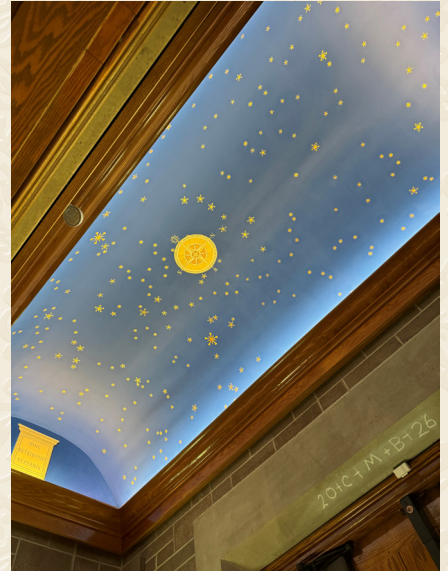

Then, we did some research and determined what the night sky would have been over Rome on April 29, 1380, the day St. Catherine of Siena closed her eyes to this world.

Then our friends at Canning Liturgical Arts in Cheshire, Connecticut plotted out those stars on a grid, transferred the grid to the ceiling, and: presto! the night sky over Rome on April 29, 1380 is now reproduced on the vaulted ceiling just inside the front door of our church.

It is also oriented so that if you step just inside the front doors of the church and face toward the altar, you are facing east, and if you look straight up, the orientation is correct from that vantage point.

Two especially recognizable elements in that night sky are these: the planet Mars was visible from Rome that night, and it is the larger star which is tinted red. Also, the "Big Dipper" is visible, part of the larger constellation Ursa Major, just to the left of the center.

One request: please point this out to your children and grandchildren. They love things like this. These are beautiful reminders of the beauty of our Faith. And a reminder as well of the beauty of God's creation and of our Patroness, Saint Catherine of Siena.

The ceiling of Santa Maria sopra Minerva in Rome, inspiration for our own ceiling renovation.

God Bless You,

John Marcello

WHAT A DAY FULL OF BLESSINGS AND JOY!

With great joy, St. Catherine's welcomed the major relics of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque -- the cloistered, contemplative nun known as the Apostle of the Sacred Heart -- to our parish last weekend. They're on a rare tour of the US under the custody of the Knights of Columbus celebrating the U.S. Catholic bishops' consecration of the nation to the Sacred Heart in June for our country's 250th. And we are privileged and honored to host them!

There were scores of young families at our 9am Family Mass with lots of littles in attendance. It was so wonderful to see so many young moms and dads bringing their children forward to pray with the relics and learn more about St. Margaret Mary. It was a beautiful moment of grace for us all!

Then! We were honored to welcome Bishop Caggiano to St. Catherine's on his 20th anniversary of becoming a Bishop. It was a most beautiful celebration of Mass and blessings of two new additions to our campus: The new St. Catherine Shrine and newly renovated Marian Prayer Garden.

Special thanks to everyone who helped in small and large ways to make the weekend most successful. We most especially thank: Sculptor Cody Swanson, artistic creator for the St. Catherine Shrine, which is dedicated in memory of Msgr. Shea and modeled after the statue of St. Catherine which stands on top of Bernini's colonnade in St. Peter's Square. Jim Cebulski and John Cebulski of the Cebulski Construction Company for their support and installation of the shrine. Life Scout Mia Romano for her idea to place a set of outdoor Stations of the Cross in the garden. Rich Cerniglia and Pepper's Landscaping for their work on the plantings, lighting, and stonework throughout. Architect Patrick Suarez for designing the structure around the statue of Mary. Bill Karcher and his team at the Industrial Wood Products in Cheshire for the roof of the structure around our Blessed Mother. Knights of Columbus Council #5806 for hosting the reception following the event -- especially Bob Cavallero, Ray Jakabcin, Gary Vastola, Paul Pilkington, Michael Hashemi, Harry Cronin, Joe LeMay, Pat Sebastiano, Jerry Spillane, Tom Minar, and Michael Piscatelli -- for standing guard. Your presence, again this weekend, ensured that the veneration was conducted with complete reverence and order. And to the donors who made all of this work possible.

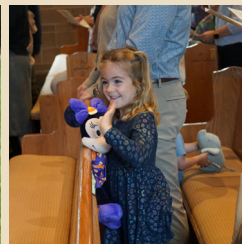

Sculptor Cody Swanson

BLESSING OF ANIMALS

The excitement was in the air and smiles were everywhere at last Sunday's 9am Mass for our fourth Annual Blessing of Stuffed Animals. Kids of all ages brought their favorite stuffie to Mass (if they could pick just one!), showed their stuffie best Mass behavior, and then Father Marcello blessed everyone in attendance. What a moment of joy for our community! Then! The perennial favorite Blessing of (Live) Animals was held Sunday afternoon. There was so much joy and furry wiggles on the lawn in front of the new St. Catherine Shrine as we showed our love of our family pets. What a great way to celebrate God's creation in honor of St. Francis of Assisi.

THE GOSPEL: TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." Matthew 22: 15-21

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Our 9am Sunday Mass focuses on helping our youngest parishioners develop a love for & understanding of Christ, His Word, & the Mass. Children ages 5-10 join friends in the Church Hall following the opening prayers. They work with a catechist to understand the readings at an age-appropriate level. This is a formal worship experience adapted to make it relevant to the lives and experiences of children. Children return to Mass for the Consecration.
