SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE: We congratulates Jonathan & Christina (Chin) Ortiz, who were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, October 24, 2026.

SANCTUARY LAMP: The Sanctuary Lamp, which indicates and honors the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, burns this week in memory of Mary & Philip Lucy.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE: The Parish of St. Catherine of Siena prays for Danielle Giacinto and Brian McKenna (Bann II) and Danielle Perez and Adam Finch (Bann I) as they prepare to receive the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony.

THE PARISH OF ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA WARMLY WELCOMES anyone who is new to our area, anyone who is searching for the truth, or anyone who is looking for a spiritual home. We are joyfully and faithfully Roman Catholic in belief and practice - a community of faith, worship, service, and formation - and with open hearts we invite all our brothers and sisters into a living and saving friendship with the Lord Jesus Christ, in the communion of His One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

PRAYER MINISTRY:

Please remember in your daily prayers all the sick of our Parish and their caregivers, especially:

Marlene Roberts, Ernestine Gaudio, Sigrid Rogowski, Rose Autuori, Bill Taylor, Jack Godo

Contact Mary Ellen Kovacs, Director of Pastoral Care: (203) 377-3133, ext. 104.

NEWLY BAPTIZED: The Parish of St. Catherine of Siena warmly congratulates the families of Jameson Anthony Noyes, Lane Robert Noyes, and Scarlet Monroe DeRienzo, who were Baptized in the Name of the Father, & of the Son, & of the Holy Spirit. We pray that the grace of this Sacrament will bear abundant fruit in their lives & in the lives of their families.

INFANT BAPTISM should not be delayed, and should be administered within weeks of birth, if possible. Expectant parents are welcome to contact the parish office even prior to the baby's birth to make arrangements. Pre-baptismal formation is necessary for first-time parents.

RESPECT LIFE: The white rose at the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary reminds us all to pray for an increased respect for the gift of human life. This week, it is offered in memory of the George M. Kuruc, Sr.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY: *Please remember in your prayers the family & friends of our Parish serving in the military. We pray for peace & for all serving in the military: ETV1(SS) Eli Bair, USN; LCDR Robert C. ✧ A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR ✧

Dear Friends,

Last Saturday, the Funeral Mass for Ellen Moran took place here at St. Catherine's. Ellen, known to our whole parish community and beyond, for so many years was the welcoming, friendly face and voice of the Parish Office. Ellen's battle with cancer these past three years was fought with courage, grace, and faith.

The outpouring of tributes on our parish's social media platforms, as well as the turnout at her Funeral Mass, were eloquent and powerful testaments to the love and respect in which she was and is held.

During the homily at the funeral, I shared some words written by one of our parishioners about the impact Ellen had in her life. I was unaware of most of it until this past week. I would like to share an excerpt of it with you here, because it contains some words of wisdom for all of us:

Ellen and I talked about life, family, motherhood, and all the things that come with them. I listened as she spoke, and I cannot help but wonder whether it was Our Blessed Mother speaking to my heart through Ellen's words. In her wisdom, her love, and the simple way she shared her life with me, I caught glimpses of Mary's own maternal tenderness, as though Our Blessed Mother had found yet another quiet way to draw me closer to her Son. What stayed with me was not necessarily any one conversation, but the way Ellen spoke about her family. The love she had for her boys. The relationships she chose to build with her daughters-in-law. The kind of grandmother she chose to be to her grandchildren. She understood that these relationships were not simply about the roles we are given, but about the choices we make within them.

It was then that I began to realize that we do not always get to choose the crosses we carry, the circumstances we find ourselves in, or the heartaches that come our way. We do, however, get to choose how we respond to them, how we love, how we forgive, how we show up for the people God has placed in our lives. Somewhere in those conversations, without either of us realizing it, Ellen was teaching me something. She was not sitting me down to teach me how to be a better Catholic, a better wife, or a better mother. We were simply talking; woman to woman, mother to mother. Yet, those ordinary conversations were quietly shaping my understanding of the kind of wife and mother I wanted to become.

Ellen was simply herself, and her faith was so naturally a part of who she was that it began to touch my own life. I do not know that Ellen ever realized what God was doing through her, but I believe He placed her in my life for a reason . . . to bring me back home.

Here at St. Catherine's, a major project Ellen worked on twice was "The Day to Baptize your Child." The first time we held it in March of 2023, we baptized 47 children, and the second time, in April of 2025, we baptized 74 children. There was a monumental amount of logistical work that went into preparing for, pulling off, and following up from those days, and Ellen was absolutely instrumental in that. Her help and support to me and Bob Cavallero during the Christ at the Center project which renewed our sanctuary in 2018 and 2019 was unwavering. On this parish campus, she knew every drawer, every cupboard, every cabinet, every storage space, every lock and key. She knew who to call, what to do, and how to make it all work.

Every year Ellen prepared the chalk for the Blessing of Chalk on Epiphany. She set out the blessed Rosaries for Rosary Sunday. She printed and cut and placed the orange sheets on which we write what we're most thankful for at Thanksgiving. And every year, it was Ellen who prepared the Mass on November 2, All Souls' Day, when we have a candle burning in front of the altar for every person who has been buried from St. Catherine's in the last year, along with some other friends of the parish. Ellen personalized and printed every label, affixed them to the candles with black ribbon, and helped Mary Ellen Kovacs arrange them in front of the altar for that Mass.

This year on All Souls' Day, one of the candles - it will be front and center before the altar - will burn for Ellen. May her beautiful soul rest in the peace of Christ, and may she have in eternity the reward of her goodness and her faith.

God Bless You,

John Mancillo

MOTHER-DAUGHTER SUNDAY

Our 5th Annual Mother-Daughter Sunday event was a resounding success! The church was full of moms, daughters, grandmothers & granddaughters. Father Marcello offered a beautiful blessing during Mass. The reception in the Church Hall was packed. And there were smiles everywhere! Special thanks to everyone who came out to be with us to celebrate the great gift of motherhood.

SCRIPTURE SCHOOL WITH DEACON TOOLE

THE GOSPEL: THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Matthew 25: 1-13
