A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Orange Candles

Dear Friends,

From time to time, people ask me why there are orange candles for most of the year (outside the Christmas Season and the Easter Season) on the Sacred Heart altar in the Memorial Chapel.

The reason is that unbleached (or pure beeswax) altar candles are a liturgical expression of mourning and lamentation. For this reason, we often use unbleached candles on the main altar when Funeral Masses take place in our church.

The Memorial Chapel stands in perpetuity to honor the memory of those whose names are recorded therein: those whose Funeral Masses have been celebrated at St. Catherine's from the beginning of our parish's history in 1955 are recorded in the Memorial Book along the left (eastern) wall of the chapel.

Similarly, the plaques on the eastern and western walls of the Chapel memorialize parishioners, relatives, and friends who have gone before us into eternity. The flags overhead hang there in memory of service-men and -women, First Responders, and law enforcement officers from our parish who have made the supreme sacrifice in defense of freedom, order, and peace.

So these unbleached, pure beeswax candles on the altar in the Memorial Chapel stand in silent tribute to all of these.

The entire month of November, which opens with All Saints' Day on Nov. 1 and All Souls' Day on Nov. 2 is set apart for praying for the Faithful Departed. Visiting the graves of loved ones in cemeteries is especially appropriate during this month.

It is noteworthy that on All Souls' Day, when we see the unbleached altar candles, together with the black requiem vestments of that liturgical day, this is the origin of the custom that the colors of Halloween are orange and black.

For all our beloved dead, we pray:

> Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

God Bless You,

Father Marcello

Dear Friends,

A very big thank you – fifty times over! – to everyone who sent expressions of kindness and congratulations – whether a card, goodies, a social media message, a gift, well wishes, or, most importantly, prayers, as I celebrated my 50th birthday earlier this month.

Admittedly, I am still getting used to the idea that I have now lived for a half-century, but I am grateful to have reached this milestone, and grateful also for the kindness of so many. It is such a privilege to lead and serve this wonderful community of faith that is the Parish of St. Catherine of Siena, and I am truly sustained by your prayers.

God Bless You,

Fr. Tim Marcello

HOLY MILES

We see so many moms and dads walking with their young children in the lobby of our Church during Mass: soothing babies, coaxing toddlers, catching their breath. Together in community, they exchange tired smiles and soft chuckles with other parents doing the same thing. How many holy miles are walked during Mass!

Remember, parents! These are missionary steps right here in the domestic church. You are carrying the Gospel to your children and forming little hearts to know that Jesus is worth showing up for, even when it's hard. You're not missing Mass when you're pacing the lobby—you're living it. Every step matters. Every cry comforted. Every tired Sunday morning you show up again and again, you're planting seeds, just like any missionary would. And we thank you for it!

With special thanks to our friends at The Little Rose Shop for this inspiration.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

What does it take to become a Saint? Will it. [St. Thomas Aquinas] Help your kids find their way to heaven; It's not so far out their reach!

Our 9am Sunday Mass focuses on helping our youngest parishioners develop a love for & understanding of Christ, His Word, & the Mass. Children ages 5-10 join friends in the Church Hall following the opening prayers. They work with a catechist to understand the readings at an age-appropriate level. This is a formal worship experience adapted to make it relevant to the lives and experiences of children. Children return to Mass for the Consecration.

SCRIPTURE SCHOOL WITH DEACON TOOLE

Deacon Toole leads an in-depth look at the readings for the coming weekend with explanation, prayer, & discussion. Study materials provided. FREE. No signups. Weds at 6:30pm in the Church Hall

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-- to each according to his ability. Then he went away. "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'" Matthew 25: 14-15, 19-21
