Hearing the Call of the Good Shepherd

In this Sunday's gospel, Our Lord refers to Himself as the Good Shepherd, thus inviting us to consider the mystery of vocation. The Second Vatican Council reminds us that there is a universal vocation to holiness, which means that every single person is called to be a saint. For the sake of helping people respond to the universal vocation, we believe the Lord gives a special invitation, a particular vocation, to certain men and women to serve him as priests and consecrated religious. In a recent address, Pope Francis spoke about how those who are called to priesthood and consecrated life need to have hearts that are open, generous, courageous, compassionate, and steadfast. These qualities are essential, especially in an age like ours that suffers with great uncertainties and fears about the future and basic questions about life's meaning. The witness of faithful priests and religious brothers and sisters, puts life in the world into perspective, reminding us that God loves us and that life in the world is about living in relationship with Him in preparation for eternal life with God after death. The Holy Father puts forward St. Joseph as an important model for those who the Lord is inviting to a special vocation as a priest, religious brother or sister, or anyone called to consecrated life, because St. Joseph was able to hear the Lord call him to a particular mission, and he answered the call.

Pope Francis notes that St. Joseph was always able to respond without hesitation to what the Lord was asking him to do "because his heart was directed to God; it was already inclined towards Him. A small indication was enough for his watchful 'inner ear' to recognize God's voice." This is an important lesson to all of us who are trying to figure out what God's plan is for our lives. St. Joseph was already someone who lived a life of ordinary fidelity to the Lord, and thus he was able to recognize the voice of the Lord calling him to something extraordinary and be perfectly disposed to respond.

This is true for us as well. The pope writes: "God does not like to reveal Himself in a spectacular way, pressuring our freedom. He conveys His plans to us with gentleness. He does not overwhelm us with dazzling visions but quietly speaks in the depths of our heart, drawing near to us and speaking to us through our thoughts and feelings.... In this way He sets before us profound and unexpected horizons." Some people discover the Lord through dramatic conversion experiences. But that needs to be followed by a "settling-in" to the ordinary day-to-day life of faithful discipleship. It's there that we learn to hear the voice of God speaking to us.

We should keep in mind that just because a young person is serious about his or her faith doesn't mean he or she necessarily has a particular vocation to priesthood or religious life. The fact is, every Catholic man and woman is supposed to develop the habit of regular prayer, make progress in virtue, attend Mass at least every Sunday (and maybe sometimes during the week), and make regular confession part of his or her life. These things are a response to the universal call to holiness. Such a life of ordinary fidelity is what allows us to recognize when the Lord is calling us to serve Him in an extraordinary way, and - like St. Joseph - be disposed to respond. I am convinced that the Lord is calling many young men and women to serve Him as priests and religious sisters, and we must encourage and foster those particular vocations in our midst. To do that, however, all of us must respond with greater generosity to the universal vocation to holiness, so that we might discern well the voice of Christ the Good Shepherd speaking to our hearts.

In Christ,
Fr. John

Mass for The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Introit: The loving kindness of the Lord hath filled the earth, alleluia; by the word of God the heavens were made firm, alleluia. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end, Amen.

First Reading: Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said :“Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.”

Gradual: Alleluia, I am the good shepard and I know those sheep that are mine and they known me who are mine.

Second Reading: 1 Jn 3:1-2

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Gospel: Jn 10:11-18

Jesus said: “I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father.”

Communion Antiphon: I am the good shepard; I know my sheep and mine know me.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Marian Procession

This year’s First Communion Ceremony takes place on Saturday, May 1st.

Please join our First Communion children for a procession to the Marian Grotto on Sunday, May 2, after the 10:00 a.m. Mass.

All are invited to visit the shrine of Our Lady to give thanks for the reception of First Holy Eucharist to the one who gave Jesus the body that He shares with us in the Most Blessed Sacrament. All of us who have received the Eucharist should express our gratitude often for the gift of the Sacrament. This is a special opportunity to join some of the young members of our parish who have received it for the very first time.

We hope you can join us on Sunday, May 2nd.

The Columbiettes Auxiliary #5833

New Covenant Center is one of the major charities that the Columbiettes support during the year. Because of the pandemic, clients are not allowed into the NCC Café to sit and have a hot meal. NCC has a Grab-and-Go lunch bag program, which they distribute to their clients.

There is a need for the following items for their lunch program and we are asking for your assistance. Small individual sized food items such as raisins, chips, cookies, popcorn, fruit snacks, health bars, etc. are needed to round out the lunch bags. Boxes of items that are individually wrapped are also accepted.

The Columbiettes are so proud of what this parish has done in the past to support NCC. Your donations, as always, go a long way in nourishing the human soul and our neighbor's lives. Thank you and God bless you. The Columbiettes Donation Box is in the vestibule of St. Cecilia's Church.

The Spirit Convicts The Wild Goose with Fr. Dave Pivonka

"And when he comes he will convict the world in regard to sin and righteousness and condemnation: sin, because they do not believe in me." - John 16:8

Pope Francis has stated that we must stop "masquerading before God" in relation to our sin. We must take seriously the reality and nature of sin and the impact that sin has in our lives. It is not an exaggeration to say that our attitude towards sin has eternal consequences. Sin wounds, and at times destroys, our relationship with Christ. The Spirit of God convicts us of our sin not to condemn us but to convert us. In this segment we will see how the Spirit draws us closer to Christ by revealing to us our sin.

The Bible Collection - Esther

Esther was a Jewish maiden who is found in the bible in the Old Testament under the title 'Esther.' She was chosen by the Persian King Ahasuerus to be his wife in a contest, not knowing she was a Jew she thus becoming the queen of Persia.

She is a heroine who rescued her people from a murderous plot to annihilate the Jewish people. Esther is recognized for her strength, bravery and dignity. The story of Esther is compelling, and well portrayed in the movie 'ESTHER', part of the Bible Collection on FORMED.
