The Assumption

It is a very unusual thing not to be celebrating the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time this weekend. Instead, this Sunday the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is unusual because Sundays have a privileged place in Catholic liturgy. Sunday is the Lord's Day, the first day of the week, the day on which Christ rose from the dead. Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians have gathered each Sunday to commemorate the Resurrection with the celebration of the Eucharist. For this reason, the Second Vatican Council describes Sunday as the "original feast day," and teaches us that because it is "the foundation and kernel of the whole liturgical year," no other celebrations should take precedence over Sunday, "unless they be truly of greatest importance." This is why the feasts of saints that fall on a Sunday in a particular year are almost always trumped by the celebration of the Lord's Day – especially during the liturgical seasons of Advent and Lent. Only the most important solemn feasts of the year trump Sunday, including this weekend's feast, the Solemnity of the Assumption.

The Assumption is one of just four Marian Dogmas. Over the centuries, the Church occasionally exercises its infallible teaching authority to declare certain things to be divinely-revealed truths, as well as things that have a necessary connection with these divinely-revealed truths. We call these kinds of teaching "dogma." The four Marian Dogmas are 1) that Mary, as the mother of Jesus, is the Mother of God (Council of Ephesus, 431 AD.); 2) that Mary's virginity is perpetual (Council of Lateran, 649 AD.); 3) that Mary was preserved from the stain of Original Sin from the moment of her conception (Pope Pius IX, 1854 AD.); 4) that, at the end of her life on earth, Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven (Pope Pius X, 1950). As dogma, the Assumption is something that every Catholic must accept as true, adhering to this teaching as a matter of faith, and allowing it to shape our understanding of God's relationship to His creation. Although the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary has no direct basis in scripture, it is contained implicitly in Divine Revelation, being the logical conclusion of Our Lady's unique mission and relationship with Christ. It was defined definitively as dogma only in 1950, but the Assumption was already a widespread belief of Catholics by the 5th century.

The theologian Matthew Levering writes that the Assumption of Mary helps us to see the way in which God calls His followers to participate in His work of salvation.

Continued

“Reversing Eve’s disobedience, Mary shares in the victory of [Jesus, who is] the new Adam: [in Mary,] Christ has made for Himself a real partner in the work of salvation, a partner who already shares in His exaltation by the power of His [sacrifice] and by His superabundant grace.” This reminds us that all of the Church’s teachings about the Blessed Virgin Mother are grounded in the teachings of the Church about Christ. Derived from what we believe to be true about Our Lord, the Marian Dogmas always point to the identity of Christ Himself. This makes sense, of course, since the Blessed Mother introduced the world to Our Savior, and spends all of eternity bringing us closer to Him. Through our meditation on the mystery of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary this Sunday, may we come to a deeper love for her Son, Our Savior.

In Christ,
Fr. John

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Anh Vu,
Seminarian & Pastoral Assistant

For the past two years we have been blessed with a seminarian, Anh Vu, who has been faithful in his service to our parish. On August 24th, Anh will be leaving us to return to seminary where he will begin his final preparations for ordination to the priesthood.

After Masses the weekend of 8/21-22 we will serve some light refreshments in front of the Church of St. Cecilia. We invite you to join us in wishing Anh well as he prepares to return to seminary formation at Pope St. John XXIII Seminary in Weston, MA.

We hope to see you there.
Fr. John

Introit: A great sign appeared in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon beneath her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end.

First Reading: 1 Chr 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2

David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring the ark of the Lord to the place which He had prepared for it. David also called together the sons of Aaron and the Levites. The Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with poles, as Moses had ordained according to the word of the Lord. David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen as chanters, to play on musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to make a loud sound of rejoicing. They brought in the ark of God and set it within the Tent which David had pitched for it. Then they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings to God. When David had finished offering up the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold.

Second Reading: 1 Cor 15:54b-57

Brothers and sisters: When that which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about: Death is swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel: Lk 11:27-28

While Jesus was speaking, a woman from the crowd called out and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed.” He replied, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.”

Communion Antiphon: He who is mighty has accomplished great things on my behalf.

The CHOSEN

Zoom Meetings are
Tuesdays at 7:15 p.m.
August 17, 31

Have you watched the series, "The CHOSEN"? Director Dallas Jenkins's new original series, "The CHOSEN" offers us a glimpse into what the daily life of Jesus and his disciples might have looked like 2,000 years ago. The production quality of the series is impressive; the writing, acting and musical score all add to encountering Jesus, fully Human and fully Divine.

Using "The CHOSEN" as a starting point, the bible study will watch the first season together and discuss the life of Jesus and his disciples. We'll acknowledge where liberty has been granted in the production and how seeing the bible come to life has increased our faith and love of the bible.

There is no cost to join, just RSVP to receive the ZOOM link.

Please contact Vicki Alton

Fall Book Study

- Tactics: A Game Plan for Discussing Your Christian Convictions

In a world increasingly indifferent to Christian truth, followers of Christ need to be equipped to communicate with those who do not speak their language or accept their source of authority. In Tactics, Gregory Koukl demonstrates how to artfully regain control of conversations, keeping them moving forward in constructive ways through thoughtful diplomacy. You'll learn how to stop challengers in their tracks and how to turn the tables on questions or provocative statements. Most importantly, you'll learn how to get people thinking about Jesus. Tactics provides the game plan for communicating the compelling truth about Christianity with confidence and grace.

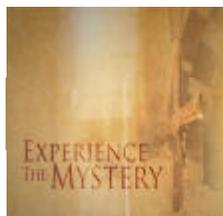

The study will start September 8th and run Wednesdays 6:45 PM - 8:15 PM at St. Cecilia's - McDermott Hall. Space is limited. To purchase the book and reserve your spot email noelle.gross@gmail.com or call 857-345-0808.
