PRAYER TO ST. CATHERINE OF BOLOGNA

St. Catherine of Bologna, patron of artists and of our parish,
I humbly ask you to intercede on my behalf to gain for me, my family and our parish the grace of love and trust, peace and forgiveness.

O Dear St. Catherine,
Let your uncorrupt body be a sign of God's presence in our midst and of the unconditional love our crucified Lord has for each one of us.

May your art inspire us
and may the Franciscan spirit of humility,
simplicity, and obedience,
so close to your heart,
be present in our words, actions and thoughts
at every moment.

St. Catherine of Bologna - pray for us!

by

Fr. Pawel Szurek

FROM FR. PAWEL

Last week we spoke about the benefits of prayer. This week I would like to write about our effort in the process of changing our lives for the better.

Let me start with the bottom line: The best prayer cannot change us if the effort does not follow. What does it mean? Prayer has the power to change us since it is the contact with Divine Power however, the same Divine Power is calling us to put the skin in the game and push ourselves and put some effort in this process.

Prayer is strengthening us, giving us clarity, wisdom and direction. However the best advice, even the Divine advice, is not effective if you do not do your part. The student prays and asks for the direction and strength and it will be granted to him, although if the effort on his side does not follow the prayer, the grace is lost and no progress is made. Prayer is giving us motivation and it is showing us who we may become if we cooperate with God's wisdom. If we force ourselves to accomplish what God expects from us, we progress and transform ourselves. Prayer and our effort may be a tremendously hard project to accomplish. It is not easy at all to force our own nature to do something against our natural instincts. We often prefer to be passive over being active, being a receiver than a giver, awaiting than engaging. How often we ask God to give us advice in our relationships in the family or workplace then we get the answer but then nothing or little is done? We may approach a bully or an aggressive, demanding or abusive coworker, family member, spouse, so we pray. Then we learn in prayer what to say or how to behave towards such a person and then we do not act but hold it back for fear of confrontation, or not being liked, or simply we are afraid or even we get too lazy to do it? How often the student knows what to do but then the effort does not follow the knowledge? We are all like that student; we get great tutoring from God, we get His encouragement, the plan, and all the mental and spiritual tools to prosper but at the end we may shy from engaging ourselves by putting some effort.

Dear brothers and sisters I encourage you to pray and then when you know what to do, do not stop there. Engage yourself in the process. Make this phone call you have been dragging to make for months, take the walk in the park but you always have some silly excuses. Force yourself to do some good, charitable work, give without looking for the return, and engage yourself in the work of God.

A starting point could be something very small like making your bed, but it is not how important or small the project is but the act itself of breaking the old habits and discovering a better version of yourself. Prayer and effort need to go hand in hand. If both are activated, they bring the desired and wanted changes for better. I ask you to enjoy this process. Pray and push yourself in your effort to create the new you. There is effort involved but also the fun and joy that comes from the project of changing ourselves.

God bless,
Fr. Pawel

RESPECT LIFE

The Respect life committee thanks everyone who helps with our monthly bagel sale, couldn't do it without you.

To you bagel lovers who support our sale we extend our deepest thanks. Because of your support we were able to send generous checks to the following organizations who work tirelessly to promote all life from conception to natural death.

Good Counsel Homes, Several Sources Pregnancy Shelters and Birthright of Bergen County. These facilities care for mothers and babies and also counsel pregnant ladies.

The Thomas More Society and Legal Center for the Defense of Life work diligently to protect our inalienable right to life.

New Jersey right to life, American Life League, Priests for life, 40 Days for Life, Patients Right's Council and Helpers of God's Precious Infants are working to educate the public and have a presence outside of abortion facilities to pray and to counsel when possible those women who are thinking of aborting their child.

Log on to the website any of these organizations for more information and truthful updates of current situations.

Thank you again for your support and may God bless you always.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

Meet Noel

Noel is one of the students at Casa Esperanza in Honduras that has received our parish donations to Fr. Brock's Suitcase.

Will you please make a donation to the Franciscan Mission Outreach Education Fund to help Noel and other students further their education?

Ángel Noel Romero Vásquez came to Casa Esperanza (Hope House) seven years ago when he was 12. He went to high school at the Comalhuecan Technical Institute and graduated with a certification in electrical work. His hope is to study food and beverage management at the university. His goals are to work, and in the future buy a house in the city and relocate his mother and grandmother and siblings there. He also wants to learn more about the life of God. Noel is a good, studious and helpful young man.

YOUR LEGACY

What legacy would you like to leave the world?

Perhaps now is the time to consider paying it forward so that your cherished Catholic values will live on here at St. Catherine's Church. There are several ways to accomplish this:

- Bequests in a will or trust
- Beneficiary designations in a retirement fund (IRS, 401K, 403B)
- Beneficiary designation in a life insurance policy
- Outright gift of cash

If you don't have a will, the state will determine how your assets will be distributed. Now could be the time to evaluate your charitable plans for the future.
