THE 2021 PARISH ANNUAL COLLECTION

I pray that you and your family are well as we continue to grapple with the necessary guidelines and the anxiety of the Coronavirus Pandemic. Together we have shared in the challenges and struggles of the past year and a half. Although, many of us have been physically separated from each other, our church community is still alive with love and longing for God and for each other. Hopefully, this experience has increased your hunger to receive the Lord not only physically, but also more deeply into your hearts and lives. I pray that God strengthens you in the knowledge and trust that God desires all that is good for us, that all is in His hands, and that He is truly in our midst.

It is time once again for our Parish Annual Collection, a time when I must ask for your help to raise the funds necessary to keep our parish operating throughout the year. I recognize that many of you may be navigating your own financial challenges, yet with concern for our Parish I must ask for your kindness by contributing to the 2021 Annual Collection.

In a world where fewer people believe in God and His Church, our mission to share our Catholic faith has never been more critical. By responding to the needs of our parish, we give witness to the power of God's love. Saint Augustine once said, "God gives where he finds empty hands." As Christians, we are called to do the same. We come to the altar with empty hands. We are filled with Christ, and we are asked to share Christ with all we meet. Regardless of the challenges we face, you, our faithful parishioners have always been generous in supporting Immaculate Conception Parish. Together with the love and mercy of God we can share our faith, care for those in need, and serve the Kingdom of God here on earth. I am grateful to you for your love of the Lord Jesus and of our Parish.

Letters will be mailed to all registered parishioners this week concerning the 2021 Annual Collection. The Goal for this year's Parish Annual Collection is once again $150,000. I am encouraging all our parishioners to donate $400 to this year's Annual Collection. A successful collection is vital for the financial wellbeing of Immaculate Conception Parish. Please, give your gift during the first two weeks of the campaign by placing your envelope in the special second collection next week or by sending your donation to the Parish Office.

To achieve our goal, I ask the following:

- that each parishioner donate $400 to the 2021 Parish Annual Collection!
- that each parishioner who can, give more, to please do so.
- that each parishioner who is on a fixed income, to please give according to their means.

Thank you for your continued prayers, support, and generosity to Immaculate Conception Parish! May God continue to bless you and all whom you hold dear.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Albert L. Capone

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I Numbers 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied. Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent; yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp. So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp," Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said, "Moses, my lord, stop them." But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!"

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 54:3-4, 5-6, 8

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;
the decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Though your servant is careful of them,
very diligent in keeping them,
Yet who can detect failings?

Cleanse me from my unknown faults!

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant;
let it not rule over me.
Then shall I be blameless and innocent of serious sin.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Reading II James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries. Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like a fire. You have stored up treasure for the last days. Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter. You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one; he offers you no resistance.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward. "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'" The Gospel of the Lord.

HOLY COMMUNION TO THE HOMEBOUND

We pray each week for our parishioners who are not able to be with us because of enduring illness and/or physical limitations. Now that Pandemic restrictions have been lifted - if you have a family member, friend or neighbor who cannot come to church, we want to bring the Church, through Holy Communion, to them.

TOGETHER, WE CAN SAVE A LIFE

The American Red Cross is asking people to call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE to schedule an appointment to donate blood - today! A safe and sufficient blood supply is a community-wide responsibility. In order to donate blood one must be in general good health and at least 17 years old. There is no upper age limit. His Holiness, Pope Saint John Paul II encouraged Catholics to donate blood. He said, "To give one's blood voluntarily and for free is a gesture of high moral and civic value." Help save a life today by giving blood.

LORD JESUS, COME TO OUR AID

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness". At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care. Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another. Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders. Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow. Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace. Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair.

May they know your peace.
