Let us pray for all our deceased parishioners, family and friends, especially for Margaret Healy, Frank Bramante, Richard Carino, and Nicholas Bomino. May they live forever in the love of Christ.

PRAYING WITH CONFIDENCE TO THE FATHER

Prayer is simply talking with God. During the Lord's life, one of His favorite spots for prayer was the Mount of Olives. It was possibly on the Mount of Olives where Jesus had been praying when His disciples asked Him to teach them how to pray.

The apostles were perhaps looking for a precise formula to use in prayer but it was not Jesus' intention to give them such. Rather, He wished to indicate to them the manner, the spirit, and the feeling they should have in prayer. The early Christians understood that it was the idea of prayer that was important and not the precise words.

The apostles were both surprised and amazed at Jesus' answer. They were surprised at the brevity of the prayer. The apostles were also amazed at the familiar term 'Father' with which they were told to address God. It is true that the Jews thought of God as their Father; but, in the entire Old Testament, God is referred to as a Father on only fourteen occasions, and the Jews never dared to address Him as such in prayer. Even Abraham was careful in pleading with God to spare Sodom and Gomorrah. He was bold in his approach to God but cautious not to appear brazen or impudent. Abraham did not use the term 'Father' but only 'Lord'. You can imagine how the apostles must have felt when they were told that they were to be more familiar with God than even the great Abraham was!

Jesus used the Aramaic word 'Abba' for 'Father'. The English word does not have the same connotation. 'Abba' was the word a little child used in speaking to his father. Jesus meant to show us the childlike trust we should have in prayer, no matter how old or sophisticated we may be. No wonder Jesus had such concern for little children. Only they can teach us the complete trust we should have in God, absolute reliance on Him, the tender, loving affection that should be ours.

The word Abba expresses the great truth that God as our Father is the source of all our life, spiritual as well as physical. Saint Paul, speaking of baptism, wrote, "God gave you new life in company with Christ." In baptism, God truly became our Father. He gave us a share in the same life that his Divine Son possesses in fullness from all eternity. So, when we pray God sees in us the person of Jesus, and He can say of us, This is my beloved Child in whom I am well pleased.

Whenever we pray, but especially at Mass, we should realize that we are not praying alone - Jesus is living and praying with us and that it is He who makes our prayer so pleasing and effective.

The Church has used the 'Our Father' in the Mass for a very long time. It was probably used in the liturgy even before the Gospels themselves were written. How fortunate we are that we can 'pray with confidence to the Father in the words our Savior gave us'. May the Lord Jesus be with us today and each day of our lives, have faith, believe in Him for He is with us always, until the end of time.

Sincerely in Christ Our Savior,

Father Albert L. Capone

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 96: 1-2,2-3,7-8,9-10

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds
to all the nations.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds
to all the nations.

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds
to all the nations.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations,
give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name!

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds
to all the nations.

Worship the LORD in holy attire.
Tremble before him, all the earth;
say among the nations: The LORD is king.
He governs the peoples with equity.

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds
to all the nations.

Reading II 1Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from, although the servers who had drawn the water knew, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

THE DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court legalized abortion throughout the United States in companion decisions Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton. Since that time, millions of children have lost their lives and millions of families have been wounded by abortion.

The Church designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the “Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.” The Church directs: “In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.”

As individuals, Catholics are called to observe the day through the penitential practices of prayer, fasting or almsgiving. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops provides encourages all Catholics to participate in this important day of prayer and penance.

The USCCB also sponsors an annual, nationwide novena called “9 Days for Life,” which surrounds the liturgical observance of the Day of Prayer. Each day for nine days, a different intention is featured, accompanied by a short reflection, suggested actions, and related information as prayers are said for the respect and protection of every human life. This year’s novena will take place Wednesday, January 19th to Thursday, January 27th. Find the novena at www.9daysforlife.com.

Pray for the protection of human life as you reflect on the anniversary of Roe v. Wade and participate in the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. On Saturday, January 22, the 48th anniversary of Roe v. Wade, we mourn the many children’s lives ended by abortion and remember in prayer those who suffer the aftermath. The Church comes together to pray for the protection of all unborn children and to make reparation for abortion, trusting that the Lord hears our prayers.

The importance of prayer is reflected in the words of Pope Saint John Paul II, “A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life, from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer” (Evangelium vitae, 100). May this prayer arise in our hearts each day until every human being is protected in law and welcomed in love.

NEW MASK MANDATE FOR ALL MASSES

Due to the spiking numbers of new COVID cases and the likely increase in those numbers during the Christmas Season and the beginning of the New Year, Cardinal Sean O’Malley is mandating throughout the Archdiocese, that all people attending Mass in our Churches must wear a mask for the safety and protection of all. This mandate is now in effect and will continue for the next several weeks.

BAPTISM REGISTRATION

Baptisms are being celebrated individually on Sunday afternoons. Please call the Parish Office at 781-324-4941 to register your child for the Sacrament. We will speak with the parents of the child to arrange the date of the Baptism and we will share the necessary information at that time. We look forward to your child’s Baptism.

LORD JESUS, COME TO OUR AID

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus.

May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care. Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another. Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders. Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow. Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace. Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.
