Father Joe's Notes

My dear friends,

“Now that Christmas is over, Father, you will have time to relax!” Yeah, right! It’s Sunday afternoon and I’m waiting at my computer for the HVAC repair man to call. He has to come and repair the system at Immaculate Conception. I may as well keep myself busy typing this letter in the lag time. I have TV Mass tomorrow, along with a deanery meeting, calls to return, paperwork to do, notes to type for Bible study, and a school board meeting in the evening. I have no illusions that there will be any quiet time now, or for quite some time to come!

In the next few weeks I need to work with the Human Resources Office of the Archdiocese to find out all the next steps in the creation of a staff for the coming merger. Job descriptions will have to be drafted. I will have to meet with employees from every one of the five parishes to go over options. We will have to find out who plans to apply, retire, or just not seek a position in the new parish. All that needs to be settled before May 1st, so everyone has a few months to settle plans. That will be January, and interviews will go through February and March.

January and February are the time that pastors meet with business managers, trustees, and finance councils to review the yearend figures. There is paperwork to be submitted to the Archdiocese each year, and now is the time to compile the reports. Once we submit the forms and pay the cathedraticum, we prepare the annual report for the parishioners. I will be busy with that for the next month.

We have to begin the process for a new corporation soon. There is paperwork to meet the requirements of the civil codes and the canons of the Church. Trustees of the new corporation will have to be appointed.

We have to cover issues with a merger and a change of names. Finance councils will have to help plan for dealings with banks and the investments. Parish councils will have to develop norms and procedures for a new group.

I will be somewhat busy for the next few months. The great trick will be keeping all the information straight in my head. It is a busy time. (Oh, and I am just back from Immaculate Conception. They have to order a part to repair the heating unit for the church. Hopefully, it will be here by the time you read this!) If you can spare one, please say a prayer for me!

Hopefully yours in Christ, Fr. Joe

Next Weekend we will hold a second collection for the Archdiocesan Catholic High Schools. Please make checks payable to your parish.

Ordinary Time -Paul Turner

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year, fills the weeks “which do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ.” It’s the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of the weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks “after Epiphany” and “after Pentecost.” The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calendar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting till Advent. Basically, that’s how it works. But we have a few quirks.

For example, there is no “First Sunday in Ordinary Time”; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that’s another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holy day, it falls on a Thursday.) So when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent but counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.

ask father

Question: Father, the bulletin had a question about candidates in the RCIA. What is RCIA?

Answer: RCIA is the “Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults”. Most of us were raised in Catholic families and baptized as infants. We were instructed in the faith at Catholic school or Catechism. We made our sacraments with classmates. While that’s the norm, it isn’t the case for everyone. Some people choose to become Catholic later in life. Maybe they were raised Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, Hindu or some other religion, or perhaps with no religious faith at all. These people need to be baptized to join us.

As adults, they have to be educated in the ways of the faith before the sacrament is conferred. We help educate them on the teachings and requirements of our religion so that they may make a well informed decision to convert. Some Christians of other denominations might choose to become Catholic. They wouldn’t be baptized Catholic, as they already have been in their previous denomination. (We never re-baptize.) But they would need instruction on Catholic faith and practice.

After this, they could be welcomed into the community with an act of reception. Some people may have been baptized as children but were never formed in the Catholic faith. To receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, they would have to be taught the elements of faith required to join us in full communion. RCIA address all these cases and helps people joining us in the Catholic faith or completing the Rites of Initiation. It prepares people to join fully into the sacramental life of the Catholic Church.

rite of christian initiation of adults (rcia)

Is something missing from your life?

Are you searching for God? Were you baptized in another Christian faith?

Have you been thinking about becoming Catholic?

Were you baptized in the Catholic Church, but did not complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist)?

If so, the Southington Catholic Parishes offer a process through which people can learn what the Catholic Church believes, teaches, and tries to live in the world. The first step in the process is called inquiry. It's a time when inquirers explore the basics and meet people who can help them with the process. If after a time, inquirers feel that membership in the Catholic Church is something desirable, they can continue the process of preparation to receive the Sacraments of Initiation.

For more information, please contact the parish office by telephone at 860-628-4713 or by email at stthomassouthington@gmail.com.
