Father Joe's Notes

My dear friends,

I spent the last week finishing the cleanup from Christmas. Since I have three houses to decorate (St. Dominic rectory, St. Thomas rectory, and my parents' home), it's a big task. I've been plugging along, but things were not all put away. I hadn't even begun to tackle the office at St. Thomas. This past Monday was the day to drag out the boxes and get going there. I hope that everything is boxed and stored by time you read this! Setting a deadline helps. While it may take time, things will get back to normal; I just need to do some work to make that happen.

Southington has a task ahead of linking five parish communities. It may seem like an insurmountable challenge, and one we would rather put off until later, but it needs to be done. We have a shortage of clergy (priests and deacons), and it will only get worse. We've seen a demographic change with many of our parishioners moving out of state. The Corona Virus hit us hard, and many haven't yet returned to church. With decades of scandals and a general lack in interest in institutional religion among younger people, we've seen decreased attendance. All of these factors mean we no longer can staff, support, or even need five separate parishes with five separate sets of buildings and organizations. The time has come for us to do something.

Some things are done. The deadline of July 1st has been set. We have a committee of people who have been helping plan the transition. We are asking organizations and ministries to begin talking about merging missions and operations. There has been movement and work done, but there is always more to be done. This is where I need your help.

The greatest thing we can do as a community is believe we are one community. We can stop complaining about how terrible the new Mass schedule is, even before we've tried it. We can look for ways to engage in what's happening. We can stop talking only about the past and look forward to the future. We can quit speaking about us and them; there is only us. When we say things can't be done, they won't be done; it becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy. When we trust that good things will happen, we begin to believe it, look for it, and work to make it happen. We can't be paralyzed by fear and anxiety. We can't let "it's always been that way" determine what will be. If we motivate ourselves to tackle the challenge ahead, it will be done and done well. My hope and prayer is that we can all unite in single effort to unify all five parish communities into one. We can work to make it happen.

Hopefully yours in Christ, Fr. Joe

This Weekend we will hold a second collection for the Archdiocesan Catholic High Schools.
Please make checks payable to your parish.

Sunday of the Word of God

Pope Francis instituted 'The Sunday of the Word of God' to be held every year on the third Sunday of Ordinary Time. The Pope intended it to be a day dedicated to the celebration, reflection and dissemination of the Word.

In accordance with the words of Pope Francis, the Bible is not meant for a privileged few. It belongs “to those called to hear its message and to recognize themselves in its words”. The Bible cannot be monopolized or restricted to select groups either, he writes, because it is “the book of the Lord’s people, who, in listening to it, move from dispersion and division towards unity”.

On this day we invite you to spend some time reading the Bible and join us with the following prayer.

God, you speak to us in this sacred book. Your Word gives life, calls us to discipleship, and feeds us on the journey. May we be formed by this Word and preach it with our lives. We encounter you in your Son, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, who give us ears to hear, lives to respond, and voices to proclaim the Good News of salvation. Let this Good News echo throughout the world, in every tongue and culture, so all people may gladly embrace salvation through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Think about joining a bible study group to learn more about sacred scriptures.

ask father

Question: Father, what's a cathedraticum?

Answer: Somehow I knew this would be a question after my letter last weekend! The cathedraticum is payment parishes make to the diocese each year. While each parish has a variety of means to collect revenue for operations, a diocese is rather limited. Yes, there's the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, but that is meant as a supplement to programs.

It doesn't pay all the ordinary expenses. Each parish gives a percentage of their ordinary income collected to the diocese. It's called a cathedraticum since the cathedra is the chair of authority for a local bishop, and we stand united with the bishop who supports us, and we support him. The offices that support us in Catholic education, personnel issues, matters of canon or civil law, and the like are all financed through these funds.

hospice volunteer

Becoming a Franciscan Hospice Volunteer is a rewarding opportunity to journey with someone in the latter portion of his/her life. Franciscan hospice volunteers receive 16 hours of training that enables them to be present to others in a very special way in order to support both the individual and their family through a difficult time. There is continuing education and support through monthly meetings as well as social events for the hospice volunteer throughout the year. Franciscan hospice volunteers provide a variety of services such as visiting patients, reading, sharing stories, praying or being a quiet presence for the patient as well as clerical support. If you are interested in making a difference in someone else's life consider becoming a Franciscan Hospice Volunteer with Franciscan Home Care and Hospice Care. Contact BJ Raby at braby@franciscanhc.org or 202-238-1441. Visit web site at franciscanhc.org.

rite of christian initiation of adults (rcia)

Is something missing from your life?

Are you searching for God? Were you baptized in another Christian faith?

Have you been thinking about becoming Catholic?

Were you baptized in the Catholic Church, but did not complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist)?

If so, the Southington Catholic Parishes offer a process through which people can learn what the Catholic Church believes, teaches, and tries to live in the world. The first step in the process is called inquiry. It's a time when inquirers explore the basics and meet people who can help them with the process. If after a time, inquirers feel that membership in the Catholic Church is something desirable, they can continue the process of preparation to receive the Sacraments of Initiation.

For more information, please contact the parish office by telephone at 860-628-4713 or by email at stthomassouthington@gmail.com.
