Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed your glory to all nations. God of power and might, wisdom and justice, through you authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment is decreed.
We likewise commend to your unbounded mercy all citizens of the United States, that we may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of your holy law. May we be preserved in union and that peace which the world cannot give; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal. We pray to you, who are Lord and God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Dear friends,

As we celebrate our nation's independence this weekend, we thank the Lord for the gift of freedom and peace. We also commemorate our founding fathers who decided to break their ties with Great Britain to gain our freedom. We remain grateful to their sacrifice that brought us together as one nation.

Speaking of freedom, we turn to the writings of St. Paul who reminds us that real freedom is not only absence of coercion or fear. In Galatians 5:13-14, St. Paul said, "For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." In other words, real freedom is connected to love and to use our talents to spread compassion to another. Moreover, we should use our free will in accordance to God's law, whose essence is love.

May the Lord Jesus continue to bless our nation with freedom and may He enlighten our minds so we can truly experience the freedom of being loved and loving others in return.
