Receiving Holy Communion

The concern has been brought to our attention with regard to receiving Holy Communion on the tongue during this time of Covid. Although the Bishop has welcomed that practice, some parishioners are still concerned.

So, while you are welcome to receive on the tongue, please be sure to place yourself at the end of the communion line. That way, those who may be hesitant will feel more comfortable receiving before you.
Thank you.

Love Them Both

The number of abortions in this country has been falling as a result of many prayers. Still, about 300 CT teen age abortions occur yearly.

The sophistry is overwhelming: If I choose and desire my child, than ipso facto I have granted it the right to live, and it will live.
But the inverse is equally the case, by means of nothing more or less than my choice: Caesar's thumb is up, or Caesar's thumb is down." ~ Lord Nicholas Windsor

Matrimony

A beautiful sacrament full of blessings, romance, love, commitment, comedy, giving, new life, joys, sorrows,
adventure, challenges, responsibilities, growth, memories and more.

All things need watching, working at, caring for, and marriage is no exception. Marriage is not something to be indifferently treated or abused, or something that simply takes care of itself.
Nothing neglected will remain as it is, or will fail to deteriorate. All things need attention, care and concern, and especially this most sensitive of all relationships of life. (Richard L.
Evans)

The bulletin was sent for publishing prior to the weekend due to the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday. The figures for Jan. 15/16 will be reported in the next bulletin.

Stewardship Reflection

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..." ~ Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part—to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

LIVE THE LITURGY—Inspiration for the week

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

To the Parishioners of St. John Paul II Parish both locations of St. Bridget's and St. Patrick's

The Department of Children & Families of Norwich, CT extends a very heartfelt thank you to all, who so graciously donated gifts from the giving tree this year.

In total 580 children's names were picked from various organizations this year, making it a very special Christmas for the children who otherwise might not had a gift under the tree.

It says so much about the spirit of the season, despite the struggles we are all facing during these crazy times

Personally, I feel very blessed to be part of such a giving Church community.

May God Bless you!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.
